

EVENING NEWS REVIEW.

THIRTEENTH YEAR. NO. 46.

EAST LIVERPOOL, OHIO, SATURDAY, JULY 31, 1897.

TWO CENTS

AN ATTACK ON FOSTER.

Hot Letter From Prof. Elliott to Judge Day.

SHERMAN'S LETTER THE EXCUSE.

The Professor Says It Will Recoll on Sherman, as It Was Result of Foster's Stupidity—Says He Wrote '91-'93 Modus Vivendi.

CLEVELAND, July 31.—Prof. Henry W. Elliott of the Smithsonian Institute has given out the complete text of his recent sensational letter, written July 15 from Lakewood, near this city, to Judge Day, assistant secretary of state, regarding the seal fisheries. It is as follows:

"In The Morning Recorder of this city appears the text of a letter to Lord Salisbury, dated May 10, 1897, and signed by John Sherman, secretary of state, on the fur seal question. This letter is prefaced by an account of the great embarrassment which its publication has caused the president and that it has been held up for several days at the request of John W. Foster, who now fears the effect of his own work a few weeks earlier.

"Inasmuch as I have a closer personal knowledge of this present question than any other man living and vastly more extended, and inasmuch as I am the author of the modus vivendi of 1891-'93, which is the only creditable step taken by our government towards settling this seal dispute since it began in 1890 up to date, I desire to say that after a careful perusal of this letter of May 10, above cited, the president has reason to feel greatly embarrassed, because it lays the state department open to a crushing reply from the Canadian office, and you will be in the same mortifying fix that Blaine found himself in during 1890, when the Canadians simply crushed his letter by the data which they promptly furnished in rebuttal.

"Inexperienced and ignorant men should not write such letters dealing with data about which they know no more than so many parrots. John W. Foster is utterly ignorant of the truth in regard to the salient features of this seal question on the islands; that letter of May 10 is like all other preparations from his hand on this subject—full of gross errors. His dullness in making up the American case in 1892-3 cost us that shameful and humiliating defeat which we met with at Paris in 1893. Had he been bright and quick-witted he never would have met with such disaster.

"Taking this common place man up now after this record of flat failure stamped all over his anatomy and putting him in charge of your sealing question will only thrust you deeper into the mire than he and your predecessors have been placed before by the bright men over the line at Ottawa.

"I am moved to write you on this point because a senator of the United States recently said to me that Foster had assured the president that the information which I gave the British in 1890 caused the defeat of the American case in Paris in 1893. The meanness and untruth of this charge will be quickly seen by your turning to my report of Nov. 17, 1890, which contains this information. Mr. Foster and his stupid associates tried to suppress the proof of my authorship of the modus vivendi of 1891-'93, which he meanly stole from me—plagiarized in fact—but he was unable to suppress it. And now that he comes forward again to figure in this question, I intend that he shall be required at the proper time and before the proper tribunal to give a full account of his wretched record as the agent of the United States before the Bering sea tribunal at Paris in 1893.

"This whole sealing business, from the day the trouble began in 1890-91 up to date, has not been in the hands of a competent man for one moment. It has been and is now the sport of the Canadians and the languid contempt of the British queen's council is all that it receives when it comes up there."

A SEAL CONFERENCE.

Great Britain Accepts Our Proposition Europe Considers Annexation of Hawaii by the U. S. as Inevitable, Says Ex-Secretary John W. Foster.

LONDON, July 31.—The British foreign office has notified Ambassador Hay that Great Britain has accepted the proposition of the United States for an international conference on the question of pelagic sealing in the Bering sea, to be held in Washington during the coming autumn.

Hon. John W. Foster, the special ambassador, in an interview before leaving London, said he would report his gratifying success to President McKinley on his return. He further said: "As to the Hawaiian question, I may say that in London, Paris, Berlin and St. Petersburg I have had ample opportunity to ascertain the prevailing sentiment in political and commercial circles. In all these capitals annexation is generally regarded as the natural, if not the inevitable result of the large growth and expansion of the United States on the western coast of America."

WALKED AND TOOK A DRIVE.

The President Evidently Enjoying His Stay at Lake Champlain.

HOTEL CHAMPLAIN, N. Y., July 31.—The president and Mr. Porter have taken a long walk about the parks surrounding the hotel here. Later the president and Mrs. McKinley, General and Mrs. Alger and Mr. Porter drove to the United States military post and down the elegant boulevard past the regimental quarters of the Twenty-first infantry. As they passed the guardhouse, a guard of 20 men turned out and saluted the president with the call of the bugle, presenting arms.

The people of Plattsburg knew nothing of the intention of the president to visit the village and he drove through the streets without demonstration of any kind. Numbers, however, doffed their hats and their salutes were returned generally by the president. The party drove through all the principal streets. Mrs. McKinley felt much revived by the fresh balmy air. Later the Twenty-first regiment band of 35 pieces, came from the post and taking a position below the western balcony rendered a concert program of choice selections. The president and Mrs. McKinley enjoyed the music from the veranda.

FAILED TO STRIKE.

DeArmit's Men Did Not Stick to Their Resolution—Striking Miners Continue to Camp About the Mines Near Pittsburgh—Massmeeting Planned.

PITTSBURG, July 31.—The expected exodus from DeArmit's mines has failed to occur. The men who passed resolutions deciding to strike went back to work. Only two men joined the strikers.

At a massmeeting the strikers adopted a resolution to continue the demonstrations before DeArmit's mines. Deputies are still on guard. Corey's mines at Edgewood and Mucklerat are working. A demonstration was made at the Edgewood mine, but the men were not molested and are still at work.

A report was brought to the strikers that four men were working in the Munhall mine, of Munhall Bros., digging an entry for a center course, at $1.50 a yard, the owners to have the coal. This is at the rate of 1 1/2 cents per bushel. A committee was sent to the mine to get the men out.

Big massmeetings were held at the different DeArmit mines last night. President Dolan received a telegram from Eugene V. Debs asking him to call a public meeting for next Thursday at Old City hall or in one of the theaters. Secretary Warner replied, saying that arrangements would be made.

Sheriff Lowry has issued a proclamation forbidding the assembling of the miners who are defying the proclamation.

MINERS AT WORK AGAIN.

Failure to Get Out Boggs Run Men Hurting the Strike.

WHEELING, July 31.—The striking miners' organizers in the Wheeling district are making a desperate effort to counteract the effect of the refusal of the men in the two mines of the Boggs Run Coal company to come out, but it is likely that the Boggs Run break will precipitate others.

In fact the mine at Moundsville has been working with a small force and 33 of the 70 men at Elm Grove were at work. The Glendale operators assert that their mine will resume today with a full force. All of these desertions are the direct cause of the failure to bring out the Boggs Run men.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S ALLIANCE GROWS.

An Encouraging Report Made at the Convention at Pittsburgh.

PITTSBURG, July 31.—When the second session of the first biennial convention of the Young People's Alliance of the Evangelical association was called to order in the High Street Evangelical church there were about 200 delegates and visitors present from almost every state in the Union and from Canada.

Rev. S. P. Spreng, president of the alliance, called the meeting to order. The first half hour was devoted to religious exercises led by Rev. G. H. Heinmiller.

After the religious services a number of committees were appointed by the president.

Rev. J. C. Hornberger, corresponding secretary, reported new societies and a large increase in membership. Rev. C. F. Zimmerman of Cleveland, President Spreng and Rev. J. P. Hauch of Berlin, Ont., made speeches.

Pushed to His Death.

WASHINGTON, Ind., July 31.—Harry Lister, son of the purchasing agent for the Monon, has been murdered near here by being pushed from a train, it is alleged, by John Williamson of Trenton, Mo.

Brown Asks Another Chance.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 31.—Rev. O. O. Brown, formerly of this city but now a resident of Chicago, has appealed for a reopening of his case before the Bay conference of the Congregational church.

President's Uncle Appointed.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 30.—B. F. McKinley, uncle of President McKinley, has been appointed assistant postmaster of this city by Postmaster Montague.

TRADE IS IMPROVING.

Dun Notes In Addition Splendid Crop Prospects.

NEW DUTIES ADJUSTED EASILY.

An Important Event Is the Marked Increase In Foreign Demand and Advance In Price of Wheat—Strength of Miners' Strike May Force Uniformity.

NEW YORK, July 31.—R. G. Dun & Co. in their Weekly Review of Trade say: Dispatches from almost every northern place of importance report, without exception, improvement in business and from Detroit to Seattle and Portland splendid crop prospects. The task of adjusting the business and industries of the country to conditions created by the new law has progressed with gratifying rapidity and ease. Even the increasing strength of striking coal miners probably forwards the adoption of the uniformity plan, which promises to remove most of the causes of such struggles. Some confusion is caused by events seemingly contradictory; by closing of large cotton mills, when many other works are starting and by decline in some prices, when others are advancing, but the balance is unmistakably on the right side.

The most important event since the passage of the new tariff, which was generally anticipated a week ago, has been the marked increase in foreign demand and advance in price for wheat.

The fact that corn exports exceed last year's, although the price has advanced to 32.87 cents, is further proof that foreign demands are substantial. With crop news still favorable, producers may probably realize something like $80,000,000 more than last year on wheat, which means a great difference in purchases by agricultural states.

The industrial sky is partly overclouded by coal and iron difficulties and by the closing of some large cotton mills. Having run for months far ahead of consuming demand on cotton bought at comparatively high prices, the mills see ahead a large crop and cheap cotton, and it is but the rational way to halt production, clear off accumulated stocks at the season when vacations are common, and begin the new year on its own basis.

The woolen manufacture answers wholesomely and moderately to new tariff conditions, and while opening of light weights below about $1 in cost has met a very encouraging demand, the advance in prices asked is not large.

With very heavy stocks of free wool on hand, manufacturers are able and, in the presence of a large stock of foreign goods, are obliged to engage for the next season without advancing prices in proportion to the rise in wool, and large contracts of that nature have already been made. Selling of wool at Boston, where the speculation has been most active, is suggestive, amounting to 8,848,000 pounds for the week, and at three chief markets to 11,984,500 pounds. Sales for four weeks have been 46,109,200 pounds, 22,538,200 pounds being domestic, against 7,211,350 pounds in all last year.

Delay in the iron industry is partly because wages have not been settled at all works, though at many but partly because steadily rising demand does not yet raise prices. In some products prices are a shade lower notwithstanding a larger demand, owing to competition between works, but Bessemer is a shade higher. In structural work, plates, sheets and bars for the enormous operation of agricultural implement works, the demand increases and for rolling stock owing to the abundance of crops.

Failures for the week have been 236 in the United States, against 281 last year.

TORNADO IN ILLINOIS.

Seven People Killed and Buildings Destroyed Near San Jose.

SAN JOSE, Ills., July 31.—A tornado has passed through the farm of A. C. McDowell, two and a quarter miles north of that town, completely destroying the house and barn.

Seven persons were killed. The are: A. C. McDowell and his grandson. Wife of Samuel Brownlee, three of the Brownlee children.

Miss Jessie Groves, a neighbor, who was spending the day at McDowell's.

The following were seriously injured: Mrs. A. C. McDowell, her son Charles and daughter Mary. Miss McDowell is but slightly hurt.

The storm came directly from the north and entirely destroyed the McDowell house, barn and walnut grove. It then rose and went over the town of San Jose.

At Mason City lightning struck the Presbyterian church and set it on fire.

WRECKED BY SCOUNDRELS.

Two Killed and Others Injured on Big Four In Indiana.

INDIANAPOLIS, July 31.—Passenger train No. 34 on the Chicago division of the Big Four has been wrecked at Thorntown. A pin placed in the switch by some scoundrel caused the train to leave the track. The engine, baggage and express cars were overturned. Engineer Sinslow and Fireman Crickmore were killed. No passengers were injured. The engine is a complete wreck.

The injured are Henry Pijbe, Cleveland, who was badly scalded and will die, and Charles Cavenir, Cleveland, who was probably fatally scalded and crushed.

The opinion is entertained at the headquarters of the Big Four road that the train wreckers had hoped to destroy a coal train about due. General Manager Schaff has offered a reward of $500 for the arrest and conviction of the wreckers.

JAP WARSHIPS BARRED.

After Agreeing to Arbitrate With Hawaii the Mikado Wanted to Send More Ships There—This Government Refused to Allow It.

WASHINGTON, July 31.—The Japanese government has accepted the offer made by Hawaii to arbitrate the dispute between the two countries. The state department has been informed of the offer and the acceptance.

When the officials of the state department were informed of the offer and acceptance of arbitration the secretary of the Japanese legation here was informed that until the annexation treaty was concluded the United States would not assume any authority in the matter and that the present dispute must be considered as between Japan and Hawaii.

The secretary in reply said he was glad to learn that such was the position of the United States, as it would permit Japan sending two or three warships to Hawaii pending final action on the arbitration treaty. This interpretation of the situation rather surprised the state department official, who answered that the United States would consider in a different light an agreement of arbitration and the sending of a warship, and intimated that non-interference by the United States in one case could not be construed as passive acceptance of the latter position.

The Japanese secretary was told, however, that in the absence of Secretary Sherman and Assistant Secretary Day nothing could or would be said officially upon the subject and any conversation must be considered as wholly unofficial.

A CONFERENCE ASKED.

Manufacturers Want Window Glassworkers to Meet Them in Chicago.

PHILADELPHIA, July 31.—The joint wage committee of the Window Glass Workers association has continued its sessions, but nothing was determined in the direction of the general wage scale. The entire day was spent in discussing the question of equalization in the various departments. The important business of the day, outside of the question of the workers' scale of wages was the receipt of a communication from the National Manufacturers' association, requesting that the workers' representatives in question of wages meet the manufacturers' representatives in conference on Aug. 11, in Chicago.

This was agreed to by the committee and is looked upon as a belief on the part of the manufacturers that business promises to be brisk and that they desire an early settlement of the wage scale accordingly.

NOTE CONSIDERED BOGUS.

The State Department Receives the Tobacco Case Communication.

WASHINGTON, July 31.—The state department has received from the Philadelphia tobacco firm the note found in a bale of tobacco from Cuba stating that three Americans were confined in Moro castle and were unable to communicate with their friends outside. The note will be forwarded to Consul General Lee at Havana, but the officials do not attach much importance to the note from the internal evidence of its bogus character.

For instance it is said that there were no Cook's excursions last year to Cuba; that the American consul general knows all of the very few American prisoners in Moro, and lastly it is pointed out that while the men are described as young men, later on in the note they refer to their honorable discharges from the United States army in 1895.

Colonel Clarke Resigns.

HARRISBURG, July 31.—Colonel J. M. Clarke has tendered his resignation as superintendent of the Soldiers Orphans' Industrial school at Scotland in order to attend to private business. Colonel J. Frank Magee of Wrightsville, inspector of schools, has been detailed to take charge.

Gold to Be Shipped.

NEW YORK, July 31.—Lazard Freres will ship $1,700,000 and Heidelbach, Ickelheimer & Co. $500,000 in gold to Europe today. Kidder, Peabody & Co. of Boston will ship $750,000 in gold Tuesday next and L. W. Von Hoffman & Co. $1,000,000 today. Total announced thus far today, $3,950,000.

A Second Ireland.

BOMBAY, July 31.—The indignation of the natives against the government for its summary policy of repression increases. They say that the government is going to convert India into a second Ireland by a program of coercion, and that no one is safe.

ATTACKED BY TRAMPS.

A Switching Crew Assaulted Near Lima.

TWO OF RAILROADERS STABBED.

George James and Robert Gordon Received Wounds From Which They Will Likely Die—Bloodhounds on the Trail of the Murderous Gang.

LIMA, O., July 31.—The Chicago and Erie switching crew have been attacked by a party of tramps at the crossing of the Wapakoneta pike, a half mile west of the passenger station. George James and Robert Gordon of the switching crew were both mortally stabbed by one man of the party and the others fled, but will likely be arrested, as bloodhounds are on their trail.

Gordon was slashed across the breast and the left lung exposed. The wound was ten inches in length. James has a cut in the side which reached a corner of the lung. Neither of the men is expected to live.

SLASHED THE SNAKES.

A Wooster Woman Slaughtered Twenty-Five With a Hoe.

WOOSTER, O., July 31.—Mrs. A. B. Scobey, wife of Baggage-master Scobey of the Pennsylvania lines, has proved herself different than most of her sex. She was busy at work when she was startled by the screams of some children. She ran to the door and was told by the terribly frightened youngsters that the pavement was covered with snakes.

Mrs. Scobey ran to the garden, seized a hoe and was soon chopping her reptiles to pieces. When she had finished it was found that she had killed 25, which were from 12 to over 33 inches in length. The snakes were thrown on to a brush heap and cremated, and it is not known what species they were.

SOCKALEXIS LIKES FIREWATER.

Robison Tells Why the Indian Brave Is Not in the Game.

CLEVELAND, July 31.—President Robison of the Cleveland Baseball club announced that the cause of the non-appearance in the game of the young Indian, Sockalexis, is due to his intoxicating liquors.

Sockalexis has been intoxicated frequently of late and Mr. Robison has fined him $25, $50 and $100 respectively for three instances of which he has proof. He also suspended the red man until he can produce a certificate from the club's physician that he is not drinking and is in good physical condition.

Miners Accepted a Raise.

ALLIANCE, O., July 31.—The 100 miners employed in the three mines at Bergholz, the southern terminus of the Lake Erie, Alliance and Southern railroad, have returned to work. They went out at the commencement of the strike. The operators offered them 75 cents a ton for mining, an advance of 20 cents over the old rate. They accepted the offer at once and returned to work.

Talmage Demanded Dog's Release.

FRANKLIN, O., July 31.—At the Miami Chautauqua, while Dr. Talmage was speaking, the second rise in the pavilion at the rear of the speaker gave way and several hundred people were dropped about 10 inches. No one was seriously injured. A dog was pinned beneath the timbers and the doctor would not proceed until the animal was released.

May Have Intended a Wreck.

MASSILLON, July 31.—The Wheeling and Lake Erie yardmaster at Dillonvale has found a number of spikes on the main track, supposed to have been placed there for the purpose of train-wrecking. The deputy marshals have been removed from Dillonvale and the property is being guarded by the company's men only at present.

Wage Conference at Youngstown.

YOUNGSTOWN, July 31.—The manufacturers and conference committee of the Amalgamated association is meeting here today, it being found impossible for the mill operators from Alabama and Indiana to reach here in time for a meeting yesterday. The prospects for a settlement are very good.

Sold Out For $65,000.

TIFFIN, O., July 31.—John C. Connelly, living near Bloomdale, has returned from Alaska. Mr. Connelly has made a nice fortune in six months. He sold his claim for $65,000 and started back home, and advises all people to wait until claims can be worked. Mr. Connelly will go back to Alaska as soon as work can be commenced.

Suicided on His Wife's Grave.

SPRINGFIELD, O., July 31.—At De-graff, O., Frank Wright was found lying dead on his wife's grave with a bullet in his brain. Wright was formerly a resident of Springfield, but lately lived in New York.

EVENING NEWS REVIEW.

THIRTEENTH YEAR. NO. 46.

EAST LIVERPOOL, OHIO, SATURDAY, JULY 31, 1897.

TWO CENTS

AN ATTACK ON FOSTER.

Hot Letter From Prof. Elliott to Judge Day.

SHERMAN'S LETTER THE EXCUSE.

The Professor Says It Will Recoil on Sherman, as It Was Result of Foster's Stupidity—Says He Wrote '91-'93 modus Vivendi.

CLEVELAND, July 31.—Prof. Henry W. Elliott of the Smithsonian Institute has given out the complete text of his recent sensational letter, written July 15 from Lakewood, near this city, to Judge Day, assistant secretary of state, regarding the seal fisheries. It is as follows:

"In The Morning Recorder of this city appears the text of a letter to Lord Salisbury, dated May 10, 1897, and signed by John Sherman, secretary of state, on the fur seal question. This letter is prefaced by an account of the great embarrassment which its publication has caused the president and that it has been held up for several days at the request of John W. Foster, who now fears the effect of his own work a few weeks earlier.

"Inasmuch as I have a closer personal knowledge of this present question than any other man living and vastly more extended, and inasmuch as I am the author of the modus Vivendi of 1891-'93, which is the only creditable step taken by our government towards settling this seal dispute since it began in 1890 up to date, I desire to say that after a careful perusal of this letter of May 10, above cited, the president has reason to feel greatly embarrassed, because it lays the state department open to a crushing reply from the Canadian office, and you will be in the same mortifying fix that Blaine found himself in during 1890, when the Canadians simply crushed his letter by the data which they promptly furnished in rebuttal.

"Inexperienced and ignorant men should not write such letters dealing with data about which they know no more than so many parrots. John W. Foster is utterly ignorant of the truth in regard to the salient features of this seal question on the islands; that letter of May 10 is like all other preparations from his hand on this subject—full of gross errors. His dullness in making up the American case in 1892-3 cost us that shameful and humiliating defeat which we met with at Paris in 1893. Had he been bright and quick-witted he never would have met with such disaster.

"Taking this common place man up now after this record of flat failure stamped all over his anatomy and putting him in charge of your sealing question will only thrust you deeper into the mire than he and your predecessors have been placed before by the bright men over the line at Ottawa.

"I am moved to write you on this point because a senator of the United States recently said to me that Foster had assured the president that the information which I gave the British in 1890 caused the defeat of the American case in Paris in 1893. The meanness and untruth of this charge will be quickly seen by your turning to my report of Nov. 17, 1890, which contains this information. Mr. Foster and his stupid associates tried to suppress this report, because it contained the proof of my authorship of the modus Vivendi of 1891-'93, which he meanly stole from me—plagiarized in fact—but he was unable to suppress it. And now that he comes forward again to figure in this question, I intend that he shall be required at the proper time and before the proper tribunal to give a full account of his wretched record as the agent of the United States before the Bering sea tribunal at Paris in 1893.

"This whole sealing business, from the day the trouble began in 1890-91 up to date, has not been in the hands of a competent man for one moment. It has been and is now the sport of the Canadians and the languid contempt of the British queen's council is all that it receives when it comes up there."

A SEAL CONFERENCE.

Great Britain Accepts Our Proposition Europe Considers Annexation of Hawaii by the U. S. as Inevitable, Says Ex-Secretary John W. Foster.

LONDON, July 31.—The British foreign office has notified Ambassador Hay that Great Britain has accepted the proposition of the United States for an international conference on the question of pelagic sealing in the Bering sea, to be held in Washington during the coming autumn.

Hon. John W. Foster, the special ambassador, in an interview before leaving London, said he would report his gratifying success to President McKinley on his return. He further said: "As to the Hawaiian question, I may say that in London, Paris, Berlin and St. Petersburg I have had ample opportunity to ascertain the prevailing sentiment in political and commercial circles. In all these capitals annexation is generally regarded as the natural, if not the inevitable result of the large growth and expansion of the United States on the western coast of America."

WALKED AND TOOK A DRIVE.

The President Evidently Enjoying His Stay at Lake Champlain.

HOTEL CHAMPLAIN, N. Y., July 31.—The president and Mr. Porter have taken a long walk about the parks surrounding the hotel here. Later the president and Mrs. McKinley, General and Mrs. Alger and Mr. Porter drove to the United States military post and down the elegant boulevard past the regimental quarters of the Twenty-first infantry. As they passed the guardhouse, a guard of 20 men turned out and saluted the president with the call of the bugle, presenting arms.

The people of Plattsburg knew nothing of the intention of the president to visit the village and he drove through the streets without demonstration of any kind. Numbers, however, doffed their hats and their salutes were returned generally by the president. The party drove through all the principal streets. Mrs. McKinley felt much revived by the fresh balmy air. Later the Twenty-first regiment band of 35 pieces, came from the post and taking a position below the western balcony rendered a concert program of choice selections. The president and Mrs. McKinley enjoyed the music from the veranda.

FAILED TO STRIKE.

DeArmit's Men Did Not Stick to Their Resolution—Striking Miners Continue to Camp About the Mines Near Pittsburgh—Mass Meeting Planned.

PITTSBURG, July 31.—The expected exodus from DeArmit's mines has failed to occur. The men who passed resolutions deciding to strike went back to work. Only two men joined the strikers.

At a mass meeting the strikers adopted a resolution to continue the demonstrations before DeArmit's mines. Deputies are still on guard.

Corey's mines at Edgewood and Mucklerat are working. A demonstration was made at the Edgewood mine, but the men were not molested and are still at work.

A report was brought to the strikers that four men were working in the Munhall mine, of Munhall Bros., digging an entry for a center course, at $1.50 a yard, the owners to have the coal. This is at the rate of 1 1/2 cents per bushel. A committee was sent to the mine to get the men out.

Big mass meetings were held at the different DeArmit mines last night.

President Dolan received a telegram from Eugene V. Debs asking him to call a public meeting for next Thursday at Old City hall or in one of the theaters. Secretary Warner replied, saying that arrangements would be made.

Sheriff Lowry has issued a proclamation forbidding the assembling of the miners who are defying the proclamation.

MINERS AT WORK AGAIN.

Failure to Get Out Boggs Run Men Hurting the Strike.

WHEELING, July 31.—The striking miners' organizers in the Wheeling district are making a desperate effort to counteract the effect of the refusal of the men in the two mines of the Boggs Run Coal company to come out, but it is likely that the Boggs Run break will precipitate others.

In fact the mine at Moundsville has been working with a small force and 33 of the 70 men at Elm Grove were at work. The Glendale operators assert that their mine will resume today with a full force. All of these desertions are the direct cause of the failure to bring out the Boggs Run men.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S ALLIANCE GROWS.

An Encouraging Report Made at the Convention at Pittsburgh.

PITTSBURG, July 31.—When the second session of the first biennial convention of the Young People's Alliance of the Evangelical association was called to order in the High Street Evangelical church there were about 200 delegates and visitors present from almost every state in the Union and from Canada.

Rev. S. P. Spreng, president of the alliance, called the meeting to order.

The first half hour was devoted to religious exercises led by Rev. G. H. Heinmiller.

After the religious services a number of committees were appointed by the president.

Rev. J. C. Hornberger, corresponding secretary, reported new societies and a large increase in membership.

Rev. O. F. Zimmerman of Cleveland, President Spreng and Rev. J. P. Hauch of Berlin, Ont., made speeches.

Pushed to His Death.

WASHINGTON, Ind., July 31.—Harry Lister, son of the purchasing agent for the Monon, has been murdered near here by being pushed from a train, it is alleged, by John Williamson of Trenton, Mo.

Brown Asks Another Chance.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 31.—Rev. C. O. Brown, formerly of this city but now a resident of Chicago, has appealed for a reopening of his case before the Bay conference of the Congregational church.

President's Uncle Appointed.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 30.—B. F. McKinley, uncle of President McKinley, has been appointed assistant postmaster of this city by Postmaster Montague.

TRADE IS IMPROVING.

Dun Notes In Addition Splendid Crop Prospects.

NEW DUTIES ADJUSTED EASILY.

An Important Event Is the Marked Increase In Foreign Demand and Advance In Price of Wheat—Strength of Miners' Strike May Force Uniformity.

NEW YORK, July 31.—R. G. Dun & Co. in their Weekly Review of Trade say: Dispatches from almost every northern place of importance report, without exception, improvement in business and from Detroit to Seattle and Portland splendid crop prospects. The task of adjusting the business and industries of the country to conditions created by the new law has progressed with gratifying rapidity and ease. Even the increasing strength of striking coal miners probably forwards the adoption of the uniformity plan, which promises to remove most of the causes of such struggles. Some confusion is caused by events seemingly contradictory; by closing of large cotton mills, when many other works are starting and by decline in some prices, when others are advancing, but the balance is unmistakably on the right side.

The most important event since the passage of the new tariff, which was generally anticipated a week ago, has been the marked increase in foreign demand and advance in price for wheat.

The fact that corn exports exceed last year's, although the price has advanced to 32.87 cents, is further proof that foreign demands are substantial. With crop news still favorable, producers may probably realize something like $80,000,000 more than last year on wheat, which means a great difference in purchases by agricultural states.

The industrial sky is partly overclouded by coal and iron difficulties and by the closing of some large cotton mills. Having run for months far ahead of consuming demand on cotton bought at comparatively high prices, the mills see ahead a large crop and cheap cotton, and it is but the rational way to halt production, clear off accumulated stocks at the season when vacations are common, and begin the new year on its own basis.

The woolen manufacture answers wholesomely and moderately to new tariff conditions, and while opening of light weights below about $1 in cost has met a very encouraging demand, the advance in prices asked is not large.

With very heavy stocks of free wool on hand, manufacturers are able and, in the presence of a large stock of foreign goods, are obliged to engage for the next season without advancing prices in proportion to the rise in wool, and large contracts of that nature have already been made. Selling of wool at Boston, where the speculation has been most active, is suggestive, amounting to 8,848,000 pounds for the week, and at three chief markets to 11,984,500 pounds. Sales for four weeks have been 46,109,200 pounds, 22,538,200 pounds being domestic, against 7,211,350 pounds in all last year.

Delay in the iron industry is partly because wages have not been settled at all works, though at many but partly because steadily rising demand does not yet raise prices. In some products prices are a shade lower notwithstanding a larger demand, owing to competition between works, but Bessemer is a shade higher. In structural work, plates, sheets and bars for the enormous operation of agricultural implement works, the demand increases and for rolling stock owing to the abundance of crops.

Failures for the week have been 236 in the United States, against 281 last year.

TORNADO IN ILLINOIS.

Seven People Killed and Buildings Destroyed Near San Jose.

SAN JOSE, Ills., July 31.—A tornado has passed through the farm of A. C. McDowell, two and a quarter miles north of that town, completely destroying the house and barn.

Seven persons were killed. The are: A. C. McDowell and his grandson. Wife of Samuel Brownlee, three of the Brownlee children.

Miss Jessie Groves, a neighbor, who was spending the day at McDowell's.

The following were seriously injured: Mrs. A. C. McDowell, her son Charles and daughter Mary. Miss McDowell is but slightly hurt.

The storm came directly from the north and entirely destroyed the McDowell house, barn and walnut grove. It then rose and went over the town of San Jose.

At Mason City lightning struck the Presbyterian church and set it on fire.

WRECKED BY SCOUNDRELS.

Two Killed and Others Injured on Big Four in Indiana.

INDIANAPOLIS, July 31.—Passenger train No. 34 on the Chicago division of the Big Four has been wrecked at Thorntown. A pin placed in the switch by some scoundrel caused the train to leave the track. The engine, baggage and express cars were overturned. Engineer Sinslow and Fireman Crickmore were killed. No passengers were injured. The engine is a complete wreck.

The injured are Henry Pijbe, Cleveland, who was badly scalded and will die, and Charles Cavenir, Cleveland, who was probably fatally scalded and crushed.

The opinion is entertained at the headquarters of the Big Four road that the train wreckers had hoped to destroy a coal train about due. General Manager Schaaf has offered a reward of $500 for the arrest and conviction of the wreckers.

JAP WARSHIPS BARRED.

After Agreeing to Arbitrate With Hawaii the Mikado Wanted to Send More Ships There—This Government Refused to Allow It.

WASHINGTON, July 31.—The Japanese government has accepted the offer made by Hawaii to arbitrate the dispute between the two countries. The state department has been informed of the offer and the acceptance.

When the officials of the state department were informed of the offer and acceptance of arbitration the secretary of the Japanese legation here was informed that until the annexation treaty was concluded the United States would not assume any authority in the matter and that the present dispute must be considered as between Japan and Hawaii.

The secretary in reply said he was glad to learn that such was the position of the United States, as it would permit Japan sending two or three warships to Hawaii pending final action on the arbitration treaty. This interpretation of the situation rather surprised the state department official, who answered that the United States would consider in a different light an agreement of arbitration and the sending of a warship, and intimated that non-interference by the United States in one case could not be construed as passive acceptance of the latter position.

The Japanese secretary was told, however, that in the absence of Secretary Sherman and Assistant Secretary Day nothing could or would be said officially upon the subject and any conversation must be considered as wholly unofficial.

A CONFERENCE ASKED.

Manufacturers Want Window Glassworkers to Meet Them in Chicago.

PHILADELPHIA, July 31.—The joint wage committee of the Window Glass Workers association has continued its sessions, but nothing was determined in the direction of the general wage scale. The entire day was spent in discussing the question of equalization in the various departments. The important business of the day, outside of the question of the workers' scale of wages was the receipt of a communication from the National Manufacturers' association requesting that the workers' representatives in question of wages meet the manufacturers' representatives in conference on Aug. 11, in Chicago.

This was agreed to by the committee and is looked upon as a belief on the part of the manufacturers that business promises to be brisk and that they desire an early settlement of the wage scale accordingly.

NOTE CONSIDERED BOGUS.

The State Department Receives the Tobacco Case Communication.

WASHINGTON, July 31.—The state department has received from the Philadelphia tobacco firm the note found in a bale of tobacco from Cuba stating that three Americans were confined in Moro castle and were unable to communicate with their friends outside. The note will be forwarded to Consul General Lee at Havana, but the officials do not attach much importance to the note from the internal evidence of its bogus character.

For instance it is said that there were no Cook's excursions last year to Cuba; that the American consul general knows all of the very few American prisoners in Moro, and lastly it is pointed out that while the men are described as young men, later on in the note they refer to their honorable discharges from the United States army in 1865.

Colonel Clarke Resigns.

HARRISBURG, July 31.—Colonel J. M. Clarke has tendered his resignation as superintendent of the Soldiers Orphans' Industrial school at Scotland in order to attend to private business. Colonel J. Frank Magee of Wrightsville, inspector of schools, has been detailed to take charge.

Gold to Be Shipped.

NEW YORK, July 31.—Lazard Freres will ship $1,700,000 and Heidelberg, Ickelheimer & Co. $500,000 in gold to Europe today. Kidder, Peabody & Co. of Boston will ship $750,000 in gold Tuesday next and L. W. Von Hoffman & Co. $1,000,000 today. Total announced thus far today, $3,950,000.

A Second Ireland.

BOMBAY, July 31.—The indignation of the natives against the government for its summary policy of repression increases. They say that the government is going to convert India into a second Ireland by a program of coercion, and that no one is safe.

ATTACKED BY TRAMPS.

A Switching Crew Assaulted Near Lima.

TWO OF RAILROADERS STABBED.

George James and Robert Gordon Received Wounds From Which They Will Likely Die—Bloodhounds on the Trail of the Murderous Gang.

LIMA, O., July 31.—The Chicago and Erie switching crew have been attacked by a party of tramps at the crossing of the Wapakoneta pike, a half mile west of the passenger station. George James and Robert Gordon of the switching crew were both mortally stabbed by one man of the party and the others fled, but will likely be arrested, as bloodhounds are on their trail.

Gordon was slashed across the breast and the left lung exposed. The wound was ten inches in length. James has a cut in the side which reached a corner of the lung. Neither of the men is expected to live.

SLASHED THE SNAKES.

A Wooster Woman Slaughtered Twenty-Five With a Hoe.

WOOSTER, O., July 31.—Mrs. A. B. Scooby, wife of Baggage-master Scooby of the Pennsylvania lines, has proved herself different than most of her sex. She was busy at work when she was startled by the screams of some children. She ran to the door and was told by the terribly frightened youngsters that the pavement was covered with snakes.

Mrs. Scooby ran to the garden, seized a hoe and was soon chopping the reptiles to pieces. When she had finished it was found that she had killed 25, which were from 12 to over 36 inches in length. The snakes were thrown on to a brush heap and cremated, and it is not known what species they were.

SOCKALEXIS LIKES FIREWATER.

Robison Tells Why the Indian Brave Is Not in the Game.

CLEVELAND, July 31.—President Robison of the Cleveland Baseball club announced that the cause of the non-appearance in the game of the young Indian, Sockalexis, is due to his of intoxicating liquors.

Sockalexis has been intoxicated frequently of late and Mr. Robison has fined him $25, $50 and $100 respectively for three instances of which he has proof. He also suspended the red man until he can produce a certificate from the club's physician that he is not drinking and is in good physical condition.

Miners Accepted a Raise.

ALLIANCE, O., July 31.—The 100 miners employed in the three mines at Bergholz, the southern terminus of the Lake Erie, Alliance and Southern railroad, have returned to work. They went out at the commencement of the strike. The operators offered them 75 cents a ton for mining, an advance of 20 cents over the old rate. They accepted the offer at once and returned to work.

Talmage Demanded Dog's Release.

FRANKLIN, O., July 31.—At the Miami Chautauqua, while Dr. Talmage was speaking, the second rise in the pavilion at the rear of the speaker gave way and several hundred people were dropped about 10 inches. No one was seriously injured. A dog was pinioned beneath the timbers and the doctor would not proceed until the animal was released.

May Have Intended a Wreck.

MASSILLON, July 31.—The Wheeling and Lake Erie yardmaster at Dillonvale has found a number of spikes on the main track, supposed to have been placed there for the purpose of train-wrecking. The deputy marshals have been removed from Dillonvale and the property is being guarded by the company's men only at present.

Wage Conference at Youngstown.

YOUNGSTOWN, July 31.—The manufacturers and conference committee of the Amalgamated association is meeting here today, it being found impossible for the mill operators from Alabama and Indiana to reach here in time for a meeting yesterday. The prospects for a settlement are very good.

Sold Out For $65,000.

TIFFIN, O., July 31.—John C. Connelly, living near Bloomdale, has returned from Alaska. Mr. Connelly has made a nice fortune in six months. He sold his claim for $65,000 and started back home, and advises all people to wait until claims can be worked. Mr. Connelly will go back to Alaska as soon as work can be commenced.

Suicided on His Wife's Grave.

SPRINGFIELD, O., July 31.—At De-graff, O., Frank Wright was found lying dead on his wife's grave with a bullet in his brain. Wright was formerly a resident of Springfield, but lately lived in New York.

THINKING OF KLONDYKE

A Meeting Was Held at City Hall.

SOLICITING COMMITTEE SELECTED

An Endeavor Will Be Made to Organize a Company—Ex-Solicitor A. H. Clark Took an Active Part In the Meeting—Believes Gold Will End the Financial Question.

The first steps toward organizing a company to send one or more men to Alaska from this city, were taken in the council chamber last evening. Perhaps 15 persons were present, and all were interested.

The meeting was called to order by James E. Green, who acted as chairman. The chair called upon Harry McDonald, who was in that country in 1869. He in part said:

"When I was in that district I predicted it would become a second California. There is gold along the banks of all rivers, and unlike others of its kind it may properly be called a placer mining district. The earlier an agent is sent there the better it would be for the company. The country is very rich both in gold and silver, but more of the former is found."

Attorney A. H. Clark is deeply interested in the subject and took an active part in the meeting.

Mr. Clark said: "I think it a good scheme to organize a company and have it incorporated at $5,000. This will cost but $25, and then people would know that it was a legitimate and business-like undertaking. But, if you will pardon me, I would like to say, if we turn the slack piles of the west into gold and silver let us do so for the good of mankind. Gold and silver, corn and wheat, coal and iron, lead and copper, are all found in mother earth. She furnishes these for the good and welfare of our families. We don't care for ourselves, but we look to the good we can do our wives and children and the happiness of humanity. Besides doing all this, the discovery of gold in large quantities settles the financial question of the country. Coming events cast their shadows before them, and I am satisfied there will be found in the future an abundance of gold and silver. All the people who want money go to mother earth after it. This is God's law and shall never be broken. You can't get rich out of nothing, and now is our chance."

When the speaker had finished his talk a committee composed of T. P. Williams, James Green, Harry McDonald, Bert Wells, W. E. Price and L. Morley were appointed to make a canvass of the city and report at the meeting to be held at the same place next Tuesday night.

PERITONITIS

Caused the Death of Little Curtis Moon.

Curtis J. Moon, the 15-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Moon, died last night at their home in Fourth street from an attack of peritonitis. Deceased was taken ill on Saturday last but not until Tuesday evening did the dread disease make its presence known, and is supposed to be the result of a strain or eating berries. The funeral services will be held at the house tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock, and the remains will be taken to the Clarkson Presbyterian church where funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock.

On the River.

The river is still above the eight-foot mark at the local port, and the prospects for a good stage of water for several weeks seems favorable. Passed up—Mariner, Little Dick, Ed Roberts, Voyager and Leader. Down—H. K. Bedford.

The Ben Hur, Keystone State and Kanawha are due up tomorrow and all have heavy cargoes.

The James Moren which passed the city the early part of the week with a heavy tow, reached Cincinnati 60 hours after leaving Pittsburg. This is considered a very fast run.

The Big Show Is Coming.

Advertising car No. 1 of the Barnum & Bailey syndicate arrived in the city this morning at 5 o'clock, and covered the town today with some flashy lithographs. The car, with 14 men, is in charge of W. C. Boyd. The show today is exhibiting in Rock Island, Ill., and expects to be here about Sept. 27.

A Heavy Load.

The Virginia on her down trip this evening will take on board from this port 300 dinner sets in new style crates and 150 barrels. A lot of miscellaneous freight will also be shipped.

SHE FINDS HER SON.

After Seventeen Years a Parent and Her Child Are United.

Charles Norton, a 17-year-old boy, supposed to be without parents, after being a ward of Marblehead, Mass., from infancy, has found his mother and recently left the almshouse for his home in Lynn. The story is almost like a romance.

Seventeen years ago last April Charles Norton was born in Boston and was put out to board with a woman who had other babies to care for and who was unable or unwilling to bestow the care upon him that the state authorities said she must. Cholera infantum attacked the children, and the state board took the babies from the woman and sent them to a public institution in one of the suburbs of Boston.

The mother of the Norton baby went to see her child and to pay its board at the end of a fortnight. Hearing of the change made, she proceeded to the public institution to recover it. Arriving there, she was told that the baby had died either on the way or soon after arriving.

It is now said that one of the babies did die, but that those in charge were not clear as to which, one and consequently made the mistake unwittingly.

Charles Norton grew, and when it came time for the payment of the board he was enrolled as a ward of Marblehead, and the bill was sent to the overseers of the poor. The latter soon afterward took the boy in charge and placed him at the almshouse, later giving him into the keeping of the sisters of charity of Salem. Charles remained at that institution until two years ago, when he went back to the almshouse.

The mother is a dressmaker in Lynn. She first learned that her boy was living through Mrs. Elena Blaney of Marblehead.

Mrs. Norton went to the almshouse, where, by certain indisputable proofs, she recognized her boy and asked for his restoration to her.—Boston Herald.

HELD UP BY PORPOISES.

Upset a Ranchman's Boat and Captured His Pork.

Olie Iverson, who owns a ranch on McNeil's island, had an experience the other day he is not likely to forget for many a long year.

Iverson was crossing the mainland to his island home. When in Tacoma, the rancher had purchased a quarter of a hog, intending to salt it down for future use. Shortly after he left Steilacoom in his skiff he noticed a large school of porpoises following in his wake, but it never occurred to him that the carcass in the boat had any connection with the school of sea pigs following his boat.

When he was about in midchannel, the school, which numbered about 150, began to close in on him, and two of the leaders began to work up alongside of his skiff. By this time the rancher was scared, and he bent all his energies to reach the island shore, but his efforts to pull away from his fishy pursuers proved futile, for he might just as well have tried to outrow a tornado as to attempt to escape from fleet tailed sea hogs.

As Iverson was nearing the shore the two large porpoises that for about 20 minutes had been swimming so close to the boat that he had struck them several times with his oars suddenly shot out of the water into the boat, knocking the rancher overboard with such force as to break one of his ribs and upset the skiff. For a short time the water about his boat had the appearance of a miniature maelstrom as the hungry sea hogs fought and quarreled over the carcass of the land pig.

Iverson swam to his skiff and clung to the gunwale. Will Jenkins, hearing the racket and seeing the latter part of the trouble, put off in his boat and rescued Iverson from his extremely perilous position.—Portland Oregonian.

A Revolutionary Relic.

Among the many curiosities in the museum of the Schenley Park Carnegie library is a canvas knapsack carried in the war of 1812 by Robert Ross, loaned by his grandson, A. Marshall Ross of Confluence, Pa. From a memorandum attached to the knapsack we learn that Robert Ross was born near Masontown, Fayette county, Pa., Nov. 28, 1786. He served in the volunteer army during the entire war of 1812-15, having enlisted at the first call for troops and promptly re-enlisted at the expiration of each term of service.

One of his enlistments, the second, was in a company commanded by his uncle, Captain James Andrews, Second (Zumat's) Ohio regiment, the others were in Indiana regiments. He was in a great many sanguinary engagements and important and dangerous reconnaissances. He was wounded at Fort Erie, and the bullet was never extracted. When discharged after the close of the war, he enlisted in the regular army and served until his death at Baton Rouge, La., Jan. 9, 1822, in Company A, First United States infantry.—Exchange.

The dress of a fully equipped diver weighs 169½ pounds and costs about $500. The thick underclothing weighs 8½ pounds, the dress itself 14 pounds, the huge boots, with leaden soles, 32 pounds, the breast and back 60 pounds and the helmet 35 pounds.

WOMAN'S WORLD.

A YOUNG WOMAN WHO IS INFATUATED WITH EGYPTOLOGY.

No Middle Aged Women—New York's Woman Art Students' Club—The College Girl Graduate—An Interesting Controversy—The Suffrage Question.

"I look forward to a season of Egyptology at home next winter," said Miss Lucy Cleveland to a reporter who talked with this patroness of the ancients in her charming summer quarters at Amagansett. Then from a huge pile of manuscripts on the table before her she produced a list of titles of "Talks on Ancient Egypt" as she has arranged them for her future use. She went on: "I have made engagements to deliver drawing room talks next fall and winter on the following subjects, which doubtless sound quite meaningless to the uninitiated, but from the standpoint of the teacher are full of significance that only waits an opportunity to be unfolded to the listener:

"The Blossom From the Brain of Hapi," "The Religion of Ancient Egypt," "The Pharaoh," "Revelations of an Egyptian Mirror," "The Arts and Literature of Ancient Egypt," "The Oldest Love Story in the World," "The Vocal Memnon, or Taia, Taia Queen," "The Mummy," "A Bubastic Pussy Cat," "The Egyptian Origin of Eros," "The Music of Ancient Egypt," "Woman in Ancient Egypt," "The Flower of the Pharaohs," "The Roses of Fayum."

"When I took up Egyptology as a study, it was merely a fad," said Miss Cleveland, "but I find so much that is of human interest connected with it on every side I know the public only needs to become conversant with it to feel the same keen enthusiasm that I feel. Concerning the talk called the 'Arts and Literature of Ancient Egypt,' Egyptologists credit me with having made a valuable discovery in reference to the true significance of the horizontal line ornamenting the Egyptian temple. I claim that a deeper meaning than students have yet recognized lies beneath that long line. It has a profounder significance than if the temple had been erected in the likeness of the world—a flat shallow plane as the ancient Egyptians conceived it, larger than its width, etc. Egyptian architecture is the outcome of the thought of men who worshipped. Forever before the face of that magian poet—the architect of the Egyptian temple—was the long line of the horizon, the desert line of the eternal, above whose rim the sun god sparkled and came victorious and equipped. The solemn sublimity of the Egyptian temple's line is the petrified infinite in art. It represents the great boundary of human needs. Anything could come out of it.

MISS LUCY CLEVELAND.

"But my studies for the present are interrupted," added this fair apostle of the ancient in art and religion, "in order that I may read the proof sheets of the book of poems on my favorite subject. My new book is coming from the press next month. Is it exclusively Egyptian? No, indeed. It contains my poems on Cuba and Greece also, compiled from the current literature."

Miss Cleveland has never been among the scenes of the country whose ancient art she so reverently worships, but she has her plans arranged for a trip thither late next winter.

"I have had no trouble in finding material at my hand for study," said she. "For six years I have searched and delved among the works afforded by our own dear Astor library, and when I go to the scenes I know almost as well as though I had seen them I go not as a stranger, but as one who returns to the reality that imagination has long rendered a fact.

"The reading of the obelisk hieroglyphics has been one of my chief delights. On the robes of princes and on the altars, the tombs, temples and everywhere in this grand old relic of the past I have found inscriptions awaiting and inviting study." Here Miss Cleveland proceeded to read an inscription that was composed of a variety of characters that appeared as simple to her as they were unfamiliar to others.

Miss Cleveland is an enthusiast and idealist. Her poems reach toward the realm of the transcendental, though she is a humorist and satirist of no mean rank in the world of letters.

No Middle Aged Women.

"What do the older women wear in Paris?" said a recently returned woman of fashion. "Why, my dear," was the response, "are you so behind the times as not to know that there are no so called 'older women' nowadays? At least I never saw any abroad. There are aged women of course, great-grandmothers and decrepit crones, but the middle aged woman no longer exists. A dressmaker would never dream of recommending a gown to a customer to suit her years. The flounced, ruffled, befrilled creations are deemed as suitable for the grandmothers as for the younger persons. As for bonnets, they have been relegated to next winter. No one, old or young, wears in summer anything but round hats, hats cocked up on one side, with flowers and ribbons and coques galore. As the Frenchwomen of the beau monde invariably wear a veil and are seldom fat, they pass muster well.

"As the hat is tilted forward the hair, natural or supplied, is arranged with studied effect, and the neck is muffled up to the chin so that there is really little left to betray one's age, especially now that it has become the fashion to receive in a hat in one's own drawing room. Even at luncheon the hostess generally wears hat and veil, so that it is almost impossible to distinguish her from her guests. Are there any new fashions? No, not especially. Indeed, it struck me that the dressmakers were all at sea themselves and employed their ingenuity in tacking on meaningless trimmings, like children dressing their dolls. The skirts are many of them absolutely ugly, with ruffles and other ornamentations put on without any apparent reason. The hats are all small, as with the narrowed shoulders the large hats look top heavy and make the head look too large. I must acknowledge the French have a sense of proportion which always shows itself. Every one, as I said before, whether old or young, wears her hat aslant to left side, being relieved with a trimming of flowers or ribbon under the brim."—New York Tribune.

New York's Woman Art Students' Club.

The Catherine Lorillard Wolfe Art Students' club, established in the first days of last November in Grace House on Broadway, New York city, is one of the very latest organizations in the cause of the young woman student of art. It owes its existence to Mrs. William W. Newell, who, with her husband, has been interested in the welfare of these students in Paris, and to Dr. Huntington of Grace church. Two comfortable rooms on the second floor of Grace House, adjoining the rectory, formerly used by missionary and aid societies, were offered for the use of the club for a year, and funds were raised for its equipment. Of these two rooms, cheerfully furnished in red denim, with maroon curtains, the necessary tables, chairs, etc., one serves as a tearoom, in which, every afternoon from 4 to 6, two ladies of the committee are in attendance to pour tea and distribute sandwiches, and the other offers one large table covered with periodicals and works of reference, and a second with a supply of neat stationery duly bearing the club imprint.

The members have also the use of the circulating library connected with the church. The rooms are open from 10 a. m. to 10 p. m., the annual dues are $1 and there is no other expense. Within ten days of its organization the club had a list of 40 members, and the advantages it offers are so great and the class it appeals to is so numerous that it is probable that the present accommodations will be too restricted before the end of the year. For the tenants of small and unwarmed hall bedrooms or of apartments occupied by three or four in common, with the accompanying and inevitable weariness of each other's constant society, for those whose income is so limited as to shut them out from most comforts, physical and intellectual, these warmed, well lighted and well furnished rooms offer an opening into the world which they see around them.—"The Field of Art" in Scribner's.

The Suffrage Question.

American women are taking toward the question at issue a curious attitude. One large and picturesque division, when exhorted that they "ought" to desire a finger in the political pie, if not for the sake of the pie at least for the sake of the finger, show a sweet resignation, and, definitely premising that they do not wish the ballot cry meekly that if it be the will of God to give it to them they will do their best to make a proper use of it. Others express a frank impatience with our prophets and saviors. Others still, recognizing that the vantage ground upon which American women stand today is not entirely the result of democracy, give due gratitude and appreciation to those who through hard battles have helped to win the position. "But," they exclaim, "stay in your ministrations of deliverance. Forbear to impose upon us the added responsibility of the suffrage."

And, worst of all, masses of these shackled citizens show an unalterable apathy toward the injustice they are suffering, and indifference to the hands reached out to help them. Surely never did enthusiasts have to deal with more refractory and exasperating material. The suffrage leaders have proved in their own persons the angelic quality of womankind in not giving up long ago the attempts to free such inveterate slaves.—Ellen Coit Elliott in Appleton's Popular Science Monthly.

The Boundary Line.

When a young girl steps from girlhood into womanhood, she enters a new and strange country. A land of promise and hope, yet full of hidden dangers. Whether she will find happiness or misery depends largely upon the health and condition of the delicate, special organism which is the source and centre of her womanhood.

The lives of young women are often wrecked because of a mistaken sense of modesty, which leads them to neglect the earlier symptoms of feminine weakness. These troubles unless corrected, develop into serious chronic difficulties which become a dragging burden, ruining life's best opportunities and blighting all possibility of happy wifehood and motherhood.

Any woman suffering from these delicate complaints needs the health-giving power of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It heals and strengthens the womanly organs; stops weakening drains; gives vitality to the nerve-centres, and restores perfect organic soundness and constitutional energy. It is the only medicine devised for this purpose by a skilled and experienced specialist in diseases of the feminine organism.

Mrs. W. B. Duncan, of Arlington, Mo., writes: "I have used your 'Favorite Prescription' and am never tired of sounding its praise. When my lady friends complain, I say 'Why don't you take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription?' I told an anxious mother, whose daughter (18 years old) had not been right for five months, about the medicine, and after the young lady had taken two-thirds of a bottle of 'Favorite Prescription' she was all right. She had been treated by two of our best doctors."

Dr. Pierce's great thousand-page illustrated book, "The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser" sent paper-bound on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay the cost of mailing only. Or, a handsome cloth-bound copy for 31 stamps. Address, Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

PEOPLE WE KNOW.

They are East Liverpool People, and What they say is of Local Interest.

When an incident like the following occurs right here at home it is bound to carry weight with our readers. The public statement of a reputable citizen living right here at home, one whom you can see every day, leaves no ground for the skeptic to stand on:

Mrs. A. Searight, No. 152 High street, East End, says: "I had a severe attack of kidney disease over a year ago which confined me to my bed for about three months. It affected my entire system and while I have been able to be about I never got completely rid of it. I suffered almost constantly with a dull heavy pain across the loins; if I sat for any length of time, or did anything that brought me into a stooping position and attempted to rise, there would be a sharp shooting pain in the small of my back that felt as if a knife or other sharp instrument had pierced me. I could not sleep when I went to bed, expecting to get rest. I was often robbed of it by nervousness and pain in my back. I have risen unrefreshed and more tired and worn out than I was when I retired. I had taken so much medicine without being cured that I was discouraged. I belong to the Daughters of Liberty and the Maccabees and notified them to drop me, but they refused to do so; this made me more determined than ever to get well, as I did not want to be a burden to them. Doan's Kidney Pills presented themselves in the form of a newspaper account. I got some at the W. and W. Pharmacy. They proved to be the proper remedy for me. Their mild and gentle influence gradually reduced the pain in my back and strengthened the weakness. I am not suffering in any way since taking them, all the symptoms having disappeared. I rest well at night and am gaining in strength and weight every day. Of course I can recommend Doan's Kidney Pills; it would not be right to refuse to, for the benefit of other sufferers."

Doan's Kidney Pills are for sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Mailed by Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Health is Wealth.

DR. E. C. WEST'S NERVE AND BRAIN TREATMENT

THE ORIGINAL, ALL OTHERS IMITATIONS. Is sold under positive Written Guarantee. by authorized agents only, to cure Weak Memory, Dizziness, Wakefulness, Fits, Hysteria, Quickness, Night Losses, Evil Dreams, Lack of Confidence, Nervousness, Lassitude, all Drains, Youthful Errors, or Excessive Use of Tobacco, Opium, or Liquor, which leads to Misery, Consumption, Insanity and Death. At store or by mail, $1 a box; six for $5; with written guarantee to cure on refund money. Sample package, containing five days' treatment, with full instructions, 25 cents. One sample only sold to each person. At store or by mail.

Red Label Special Extra Strength. For Impotency, Loss of Power, Lost Manhood, Sterility or Barrenness. $1 a box; six for $5, with written guarantee to cure in 30 days. At store or by mail. For sale by Will Reed, East Liverpool, O.

Get the Best.

The place to get it is at the News

REVIEW. We refer to our high grade Job Printing.

THINKING OF KLONDYKE

A Meeting Was Held at City Hall.

SOLICITING COMMITTEE SELECTED

An Endeavor Will Be Made to Organize a Company—Ex-Solicitor A. H. Clark Took an Active Part in the Meeting—Believes Gold Will End the Financial Question.

The first steps toward organizing a company to send one or more men to Alaska from this city, were taken in the council chamber last evening. Perhaps 15 persons were present, and all were interested.

The meeting was called to order by James E. Green, who acted as chairman. The chair called upon Harry McDonald, who was in that country in 1869. He in part said:

"When I was in that district I predicted it would become a second California. There is gold along the banks of all rivers, and unlike others of its kind it may properly be called a placer mining district. The earlier an agent is sent there the better it would be for the company. The country is very rich both in gold and silver, but more of the former is found."

Attorney A. H. Clark is deeply interested in the subject and took an active part in the meeting.

Mr. Clark said: "I think it a good scheme to organize a company and have it incorporated at $5,000. This will cost but $25, and then people would know that it was a legitimate and business-like undertaking. But, if you will pardon me, I would like to say, if we turn the slack piles of the west into gold and silver let us do so for the good of mankind. Gold and silver, corn and wheat, coal and iron, lead and copper, are all found in mother earth. She furnishes these for the good and welfare of our families. We don't care for ourselves, but we look to the good we can do our wives and children and the happiness of humanity. Besides doing all this, the discovery of gold in large quantities settles the financial question of the country. Coming events cast their shadows before them, and I am satisfied there will be found in the future an abundance of gold and silver. All the people who want money go to mother earth after it. This is God's law and shall never be broken. You can't get rich out of nothing, and now is our chance."

When the speaker had finished his talk a committee composed of T. P. Williams, James Green, Harry McDonald, Bert Wells, W. E. Price and L. Morley were appointed to make a canvass of the city and report at the meeting to be held at the same place next Tuesday night.

PERITONITIS

Caused the Death of Little Curtis Moon.

Curtis J. Moon, the 15-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Moon, died last night at their home in Fourth street from an attack of peritonitis. Deceased was taken ill on Saturday last but not until Tuesday evening did the dread disease make its presence known, and is supposed to be the result of a strain or eating berries. The funeral services will be held at the house tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock, and the remains will be taken to the Clarkson Presbyterian church where funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock.

On the River.

The river is still above the eight-foot mark at the local port, and the prospects for a good stage of water for several weeks seems favorable. Passed up—Mariner, Little Dick, Ed Roberts, Voyager and Leader. Down—H. K. Bedford.

The Ben Hur, Keystone State and Kanawha are due up tomorrow and all have heavy cargoes.

The James Moren which passed the city the early part of the week with a heavy tow, reached Cincinnati 60 hours after leaving Pittsburg. This is considered a very fast run.

The Big Show Is Coming.

Advertising car No. 1 of the Barnum & Bailey syndicate arrived in the city this morning at 5 o'clock, and covered the town today with some flashy lithographs. The car, with 14 men, is in charge of W. C. Boyd. The show today is exhibiting in Rock Island, Ill., and expects to be here about Sept. 27.

A Heavy Load.

The Virginia on her down trip this evening will take on board from this port 300 dinner sets in new style crates and 150 barrels. A lot of miscellaneous freight will also be shipped.

SHE FINDS HER SON.

After Seventeen Years a Parent and Her Child Are United.

Charles Norton, a 17-year-old boy, supposed to be without parents, after being a ward of Marblehead, Mass., from infancy, has found his mother and recently left the almshouse for his home in Lynn. The story is almost like a romance.

Seventeen years ago last April Charles Norton was born in Boston and was put out to board with a woman who had other babies to care for and who was unable or unwilling to bestow the care upon him that the state authorities said she must. Cholera infantum attacked the children, and the state board took the babies from the woman and sent them to a public institution in one of the suburbs of Boston.

The mother of the Norton baby went to see her child and to pay its board at the end of a fortnight. Hearing of the change made, she proceeded to the public institution to recover it. Arriving there, she was told that the baby had died either on the way or soon after arriving.

It is now said that one of the babies did die, but that those in charge were not clear as to which, one and consequently made the mistake unwittingly.

Charles Norton grew, and when it came time for the payment of the board he was enrolled as a ward of Marblehead, and the bill was sent to the overseers of the poor. The latter soon afterward took the boy in charge and placed him at the almshouse, later giving him into the keeping of the sisters of charity of Salem. Charles remained at that institution until two years ago, when he went back to the almshouse.

The mother is a dressmaker in Lynn. She first learned that her boy was living through Mrs. Elena Blaney of Marblehead.

Mrs. Norton went to the almshouse, where, by certain indisputable proofs, she recognized her boy and asked for his restoration to her.—Boston Herald.

HELD UP BY PORPOISES.

Upset a Ranchman's Boat and Captured His Pork.

Olie Iverson, who owns a ranch on McNeil's island, had an experience the other day he is not likely to forget for many a long year.

Iverson was crossing the mainland to his island home. When in Tacoma, the rancher had purchased a quarter of a hog, intending to salt it down for future use. Shortly after he left Stella-loom in his skiff he noticed a large school of porpoises following in his wake, but it never occurred to him that the carcass in the boat had any connection with the school of sea pigs following his boat.

When he was about in midchannel, the school, which numbered about 150, began to close in on him, and two of the leaders began to work up alongside of his skiff. By this time the rancher was scared, and he bent all his energies to reach the island shore, but his efforts to pull away from his fishy pursuers proved futile, for he might just as well have tried to outrow a tornado as to attempt to escape from fleet tailed sea hogs.

As Iverson was nearing the shore the two large porpoises that for about 20 minutes had been swimming so close to the boat that he had struck them several times with his oars suddenly shot out of the water into the boat, knocking the rancher overboard with such force as to break one of his ribs and upset the skiff. For a short time the water about his boat had the appearance of a miniature maelstrom as the hungry sea hogs fought and quarreled over the carcass of the land pig.

Iverson swam to his skiff and clung to the gunwale. Will Jenkins, hearing the racket and seeing the latter part of the trouble, put off in his boat and rescued Iverson from his extremely perilous position.—Portland Oregonian.

A Revolutionary Relic.

Among the many curiosities in the museum of the Schenley Park Carnegie library is a canvas knapsack carried in the war of 1812 by Robert Ross, loaned by his grandson, A. Marshall Ross of Confluence, Pa. From a memorandum attached to the knapsack we learn that Robert Ross was born near Masontown, Fayette county, Pa., Nov. 28, 1786. He served in the volunteer army during the entire war of 1812-15, having enlisted at the first call for troops and promptly re-enlisted at the expiration of each term of service.

One of his enlistments, the second, was in a company commanded by his uncle, Captain James Andrews, Second (Zumalt's) Ohio regiment, the others were in Indiana regiments. He was in a great many sanguinary engagements and important and dangerous reconnaissances. He was wounded at Fort Erie, and the bullet was never extracted. When discharged after the close of the war, he enlisted in the regular army and served until his death at Baton Rouge, La., Jan. 9, 1822, in Company A, First United States infantry.—Exchange.

The dress of a fully equipped diver weighs 169½ pounds and costs about $600. The thick underclothing weighs 8½ pounds, the dress itself 14 pounds, the huge boots, with leaden soles, 32 pounds, the breast and back 80 pounds and the helmet 85 pounds.

WOMAN'S WORLD.

A YOUNG WOMAN WHO IS INFATUATED WITH EGYPTOLOGY.

No Middle Aged Women—New York's Woman Art Students' Club—The College Girl Graduate—An Interesting Controversy—The Suffrage Question.

"I look forward to a season of Egyptology at home next winter," said Miss Lucy Cleveland to a reporter who talked with this patroness of the ancients in her charming summer quarters at Amagansett. Then from a huge pile of manuscripts on the table before her she produced a list of titles of "Talks on Ancient Egypt" as she has arranged them for her future use. She went on: "I have made engagements to deliver drawing room talks next fall and winter on the following subjects, which doubtless sound quite meaningless to the uninitiated, but from the standpoint of the teacher are full of significance that only waits an opportunity to be unfolded to the listener:

"The Blossom From the Brain of Hapi," "The Religion of Ancient Egypt," "The Pharaoh," "Revelations of an Egyptian Mirror," "The Arts and Literature of Ancient Egypt," "The Oldest Love Story in the World," "The Vocal Memnon, or Taia, Taia Queen," "The Mummy," "A Bubastic Pussy Cat," "The Egyptian Origin of Eros," "The Music of Ancient Egypt," "Woman in Ancient Egypt," "The Flower of the Pharaohs," "The Roses of Fayum."

"When I took up Egyptology as a study, it was merely a fad," said Miss Cleveland, "but I find so much that is of human interest connected with it on every side I know the public only needs to become conversant with it to feel the same keen enthusiasm that I feel. Concerning the talk called the 'Arts and Literature of Ancient Egypt,' Egyptologists credit me with having made a valuable discovery in reference to the true significance of the horizontal line ornamenting the Egyptian temple. I claim that a deeper meaning than students have yet recognized lies beneath that long line. It has a profounder significance than if the temple had been erected in the likeness of the world—a flat shallow plane as the ancient Egyptians conceived it, larger than its width, etc. Egyptian architecture is the outcome of the thought of men who worshiped. Forever before the face of that magian poet—the architect of the Egyptian temple—was the long line of the horizon, the desert line of the eternal, above whose rim the sun god sparkled and came victorious and equipped. The solemn sublimity of the Egyptian temple's line is the petrified infinite in art. It represents the great boundary of human needs. Anything could come out of it.

MISS LUCY CLEVELAND.

"But my studies for the present are interrupted," added this fair apostle of the ancient in art and religion, "in order that I may read the proof sheets of the book of poems on my favorite subject. My new book is coming from the press next month. Is it exclusively Egyptian? No, indeed. It contains my poems on Cuba and Greece also, compiled from the current literature."

Miss Cleveland has never been among the scenes of the country whose ancient art she so reverently worships, but she has her plans arranged for a trip thither late next winter.

"I have had no trouble in finding material at my hand for study," said she. "For six years I have searched and delved among the works afforded by our own dear Astor library, and when I go to the scenes I know almost as well as though I had seen them I go not as a stranger, but as one who returns to the reality that imagination has long rendered a fact."

"The reading of the obelisk hieroglyphics has been one of my chief delights. On the robes of princes and on the altars, the tombs, temples and everywhere in this grand old relic of the past I have found inscriptions awaiting and inviting study." Here Miss Cleveland proceeded to read an inscription that was composed of a variety of characters that appeared as simple to her as they were unfamiliar to others.

Miss Cleveland is an enthusiast and idealist. Her poems reach toward the realm of the transcendental, though she is a humorist and satirist of no mean rank in the world of letters.

No Middle Aged Women.

"What do the older women wear in Paris?" said a recently returned woman of fashion. "Why, my dear," was the response, "are you so behind the times as not to know that there are no so called 'older women' nowadays? At least I never saw any abroad. There are aged women of course, great-grandmothers and decrepit crones, but the middle aged woman no longer exists. A dressmaker would never dream of recommending a gown to a customer to suit her years. The flounced, ruffled, befrilled creations are deemed as suitable for the grandmothers as for the younger persons. As for bonnets, they have been relegated to next winter. No one, old or young, wears in summer anything but round hats, hats cocked up on one side, with flowers and ribbons and coques galore. As the Frenchwomen of the beau monde invariably wear a veil and are seldom fat, they pass muster well."

"As the hat is tilted forward the hair, natural or supplied, is arranged with studied effect, and the neck is muffled up to the chin so that there is really little left to betray one's age, especially now that it has become the fashion to receive in a hat in one's own drawing room. Even at luncheon the hostess generally wears hat and veil, so that it is almost impossible to distinguish her from her guests. Are there any new fashions? No, not especially. Indeed, it struck me that the dressmakers were all at sea themselves and employed their ingenuity in tacking on meaningless trimmings, like children dressing their dolls. The skirts are many of them absolutely ugly, with ruffles and other ornamentations put on without any apparent reason. The hats are all small, as with the narrowed shoulders the large hats look top heavy and make the head look too large. I must acknowledge the French have a sense of proportion which always shows itself. Every one, as I said before, whether old or young, wears her hat askant to left side, being relieved with a trimming of flowers or ribbon under the brim."—New York Tribune.

New York's Woman Art Students' Club.

The Catherine Lorillard Wolfe Art Students' club, established in the first days of last November in Grace House on Broadway, New York city, is one of the very latest organizations in the cause of the young woman student of art. It owes its existence to Mrs. William W. Newell, who, with her husband, has been interested in the welfare of these students in Paris, and to Dr. Huntington of Grace church. Two comfortable rooms on the second floor of Grace House, adjoining the rectory, formerly used by missionary and aid societies, were offered for the use of the club for a year, and funds were raised for its equipment. Of these two rooms, cheerfully furnished in red denim, with maroon curtains, the necessary tables, chairs, etc., one serves as a tearoom, in which, every afternoon from 4 to 6, two ladies of the committee are in attendance to pour tea and distribute sandwiches, and the other offers one large table covered with periodicals and works of reference, and a second with a supply of neat stationery duly bearing the club imprint.

The members have also the use of the circulating library connected with the church. The rooms are open from 10 a. m. to 10 p. m., the annual dues are $1 and there is no other expense. Within ten days of its organization the club had a list of 40 members, and the advantages it offers are so great and the class it appeals to is so numerous that it is probable that the present accommodations will be too restricted before the end of the year. For the tenants of small and unwarmed hall bedrooms or of apartments occupied by three or four in common, with the accompanying and inevitable weariness of each other's constant society, for those whose income is so limited as to shut them out from most comforts, physical and intellectual, these warmed, well lighted and well furnished rooms offer an opening into the world which they see around them.—"The Field of Art" in Scribner's.

The Suffrage Question.

American women are taking toward the question at issue a curious attitude. One large and picturesque division, when exhorted that they "ought" to desire a finger in the political pie, if not for the sake of the pie at least for the sake of the finger, show a sweet resignation, and, definitely premising that they do not wish the ballot cry meekly that if it be the will of God to give it to them they will do their best to make a proper use of it. Others express a frank impatience with our prophets and saviors. Others still, recognizing that the vantage ground upon which American women stand today is not entirely the result of democracy, give due gratitude and appreciation to those who through hard battles have helped to win the position. "But," they exclaim, "stay in your ministrations of deliverance. Forbear to impose upon us the added responsibility of the suffrage."

And, worst of all, masses of these shackled citizens show an unalterable apathy toward the injustice they are suffering, and indifference to the hands reached out to help them. Surely never did enthusiasts have to deal with more refractory and exasperating material. The suffrage leaders have proved in their own persons the angelic quality of womankind in not giving up long ago the attempts to free such inveterate slaves.—Ellen Coit Elliott in Appleton's Popular Science Monthly.

The Boundary Line.

When a young girl steps from girlhood into womanhood, she enters a new and strange country. A land of promise and hope, yet full of hidden dangers. Whether she will find happiness or misery depends largely upon the health and condition of the delicate, special organism which is the source and centre of her womanhood.

The lives of young women are often wrecked because of a mistaken sense of modesty, which leads them to neglect the earlier symptoms of feminine weakness. These troubles unless corrected, develop into serious chronic difficulties which become a dragging burden, ruining life's best opportunities and blighting all possibility of happy wifehood and motherhood. Any woman suffering from these delicate complaints needs the health-giving power of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It heals and strengthens the womanly organs; stops weakening drains; gives vitality to the nerve-centres, and restores perfect organic soundness and constitutional energy. It is the only medicine devised for this purpose by a skilled and experienced specialist in diseases of the feminine organism.

Mrs. W. B. Duncan, of Arlington, Mo., writes: "I have used your 'Favorite Prescription' and am now tired of sounding its praise. When my lady friends complain, I say 'Why don't you take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription?' I told an anxious mother, whose daughter (18 years old) had not been right for five months, about the medicine, and after the young lady had taken two-thirds of a bottle of 'Favorite Prescription' she was all right. She had been treated by two of our best doctors."

Dr. Pierce's great thousand-page illustrated book, "The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser" sent paper-bound on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay the cost of mailing only. Or, a handsome cloth-bound copy for 31 stamps. Address, Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

PEOPLE WE KNOW.

They are East Liverpool People, and What they say is of Local Interest.

When an incident like the following occurs right here at home it is bound to carry weight with our readers. The public statement of a reputable citizen living right here at home, one whom you can see every day, leaves no ground for the skeptic to stand on:

Mrs. A. Searight, No. 152 High street, East End, says: "I had a severe attack of kidney disease over a year ago which confined me to my bed for about three months. It affected my entire system and while I have been able to be about I never got completely rid of it. I suffered almost constantly with a dull heavy pain across the loins; if I sat for any length of time, or did anything that brought me into a stooping position and attempted to rise, there would be a sharp shooting pain in the small of my back that felt as if a knife or other sharp instrument had pierced me. I could not sleep when I went to bed, expecting to get rest. I was often robbed of it by nervousness and pain in my back. I have risen unrefreshed and more tired and worn out than I was when I retired. I had taken so much medicine without being cured that I was discouraged. I belong to the Daughters of Liberty and the Maccabees and notified them to drop me, but they refused to do so; this made me more determined than ever to get well, as I did not want to be a burden to them. Doan's Kidney Pills presented themselves in the form of a newspaper account. I got some at the W. and W. Pharmacy. They proved to be the proper remedy for me. Their mild and gentle influence gradually reduced the pain in my back and strengthened the weakness. I am not suffering in any way since taking them, all the symptoms having disappeared. I rest well at night and am gaining in strength and weight every day. Of course I can recommend Doan's Kidney Pills; it would not be right to refuse to, for the benefit of other sufferers."

Doan's Kidney Pills are for sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Mailed by Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., so agents for the United States.

Health is Wealth.

DR. E. C. WEST'S NERVE AND BRAIN TREATMENT

THE ORIGINAL, ALL OTHERS IMITATIONS. Is sold under positive Written Guarantee, by authorized agents only, to cure Weak Memory, Dizziness, Wakefulness, Fits, Hysteria, Quickness, Night Losses, Evil Dreams, Lack of Confidence, Nervousness, Lassitude, all Drains, Youthful Errors, or Excessive Use of Tobacco, Opium, or Liquor, which leads to Misery, Consumption, or Insanity and Death. At store or by mail, $1 a box; six for $5, with written guarantee to cure or refund money. Sample package, containing five days' treatment, with full instructions, 25 cents. One sample only sold to each person. At store or by mail.

Red Label Special Extra Strength. For Impotency, Loss of Power, Lost Manhood, Sterility or Barrenness, $1 a box; six for $5, with written guarantee to cure in 30 days. At store or by mail.

For sale by Will Reed, East Liverpool, O.

Get the Best.

The place to get it is at the News Review. We refer to our high grade Job Printing.

A GOODBYE CLEARANCE SALE.

The time has come when goodbye must be said to every piece of Summer Merchandise in our store, irrespective of what effect it may have on our profit and loss account. This will be done, and done in short order. We don't propose to do it by advertising a Clearance Sale for 30 days, and selling the goods at regular prices. Ten days will be the limit of this sale, and the prices will be so low that a clean sweep will be made in every department.

FRIDAY MORNING, JULY 30th, at 8 O'Clock,

the sale begins, and continues for 10 days only. Unnecessary to say that those who get here first will carry away the best bargains. Below we give you a fair sample of how the goods will be sold. Bring this price list with you, and remember that one-half of the bargains offered are not mentioned here.

DOMESTICS.

REGULAR PRICE.	SALE PRICE.
5c Yard Wide Unbleached Muslin.....	.03
8c 40-inch Unbleached Muslin.....	.04
7c Yard Wide Bleached Muslin.....	.04
Lancaster Gingham.....	.04
7c Canton Flannel.....	.04
All 5c and 6c Calicos.....	.04
All 7c and 8c Calicos.....	.05
10c 36-inch Percales.....	.05
12c and 15c 36-inch Percales.....	.09
18c Best Carpet Warp.....	.15

LINENS.

25c Turkey Red Damasks.....	.12
35c White Linens.....	.21
40c White Linens.....	.25
50c White Linens.....	.38
75c White Linens.....	.58
85c White Linens.....	.68
$1.00 White Linens.....	.78
75c Bed Spreads.....	.49
$1.00 Bed Spreads.....	.79

BARGAINS IN TOWELS AND NAPKINS.

WASH GOODS.

15c Sateens.....	.07
10c Dimities.....	.06
15c Dimities.....	.10
15c Gingham.....	.09
25c Gingham.....	.12
35c and 39c Organdies.....	.25

SILKS.

50c Silks.....	.38
75c Silks.....	.48
$1.00 Silks.....	.68
$1.25 Silks.....	.89

SHIRT WAISTS.

REGULAR PRICE.	SALE PRICE.
50c and 65c Shirt Waists.....	.25
$1.00 and $1.25 Shirt Waists.....	.50
$1.50 and $2.00 Shirt Waists.....	.98

SEPARATE SKIRTS.

$1.00 Shepherd Plaid Skirts.....	.59
$2.00 Novelty Skirts.....	.89
$2.00 Black Novelty Skirts.....	1.49
$4.00 Colored Novelty Skirts.....	2.19

WRAPPERS

Our entire Wrapper Stock, like our Shirt Waist Stock, will be offered in 3 lots at the following prices:
$1.00 Wrappers.....	.50
1.50 Wrappers.....	.75
2.00 Wrappers.....	1.00

CORSETS.

39c Summer Corsets.....	.25
75c Jean Corsets.....	.33
All Staple Brands of Dollar Corsets during this sale.....	.79

Collars and Chemisettes.

1 lot of Ladies' 10c Collars.....	.01
1 lot of 25c and 35c Ladies' Chemisettes.....	.05

HOSIERY.

10c Fast Black Hose.....	.05
20c Fast Black Hose.....	.10
25c Children's Ribbed Hose.....	.12

UNDERWEAR.

All Odd Sizes in Misses' and Ladies' Underwear at exactly half price.

Muslin Underwear and Embroideries.

On every piece of Muslin Underwear and Embroidery in the store we will give a straight discount of 25 per cent. off regular prices.

KID GLOVES.

$1.00 Kid Gloves.....	.59
1.25 Kid Gloves.....	.89
1.50 Kid Gloves.....	1.19

RIBBONS.

35c and 40c Fancy Ribbons.....	.25
--------------------------------	-----

BELTS.

15c Leather Belts.....	.09
25c Leather Belts.....	.15
35c Leather Belts.....	.23

Wool Dress Goods.

Big reductions in Wool Dress Goods. All summer goods in this department will be closed out at half price.

House Furnishing Dep't.

During this 10 days' sale we will give Special Bargains in Lace Curtains, Floor Oil Cloths, Trunks, Graniteware and Glassware.

Best Table Oil Cloth 12c a yard.

Ice Cream Freezers at a big bargain.

All 5c articles in our basement at 3c; all 10c articles at 7c.

Toilet Soap 1c a cake.

Ammonia, 4 bottles for 25c.

We could go on indefinitely, but space will not allow. We have hundreds of bargains not mentioned here. We mean business, and if you want to buy Dry Goods at less money than you ever bought them for in your life, come to our Semi-Annual Goodbye Clearance Sale. Prices good for 10 days only; remember, beginning Friday Morning, at 8 o'clock.

THE BOSTON DEPARTMENT STORE,

A. S. Young, Fifth Street and the Diamond.

WELLSVILLE.

Mr. C. R. McGregor has taken charge of the NEWS REVIEW, and is our only authorized agent in Wells-ville. Subscribers will make note that Mr. McGregor is the only authorized agent of this paper, and to him alone will they make payment of money due the REVIEW.

Any subscribers who have not received the NEWS REVIEW will make known the fact to C. R. McGregor, and the matter will receive prompt attention.

HARRY PALMER,
Owner and Manager.

SHOPS ON SHORT TIME

The August Appropriation Is Very Small.

THIRTY-HOUR SCHEDULE USED

Home From Mexico—Lisbon Would Not Play Ball—Happenings About the Railroad Shops—The Watch Examiner on Hand—All the News.

As foretold by the NEWS REVIEW, the Cleveland & Pittsburg railroad shops here went on short hours today, the beginning of a new month. Every department except the wreck gang have been put on a 30 hour a week schedule, and the August appropriations are so small that it is probable that this will be the schedule for the entire month, and it is feared that unless the miners' strike is settled soon the shops will have to shut down as there is not enough work even to keep the shops going on half time.

Home From Mexico.

William Wooster returned yesterday from Mexico, where he was superin- tending the putting in of machinery at the Luster gold mine, which is near the famous Great Boulder. He says greasers are worse than dagos, and says his belief in free silver is not weakened. Although they mine gold, they buy silver to pay their men with, as it is about two-thirds cheaper than gold. Mr. Wooster goes back the last of August.

Sporting Notes.

Lisbon backs out in her agreement to come here and play against the home team today, and East Liverpool will be tackled again. Lisbon plays Saline-ville at Lisbon today.

Addison Turner will pitch for Saline-ville at Lisbon today.

The West End Athletics defeated an East Liverpool team at Rock Spring, yesterday, by a score of 7 to 6.

Railroad Notes.

The new Cleveland and Pittsburg weigh scales at Eleventh street were finished yesterday, and are now ready for use. They will do away with the scales in the lower yards.

Will Menough, who was formerly foreman in the car shop storeroom here, is now working in the general office of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railroad at Chicago.

The office Cleveland and Pittsburg watch examiner is doing business at the company's reading room.

Will Fisher has returned from Fort Wayne where he was overseeing the putting up of his father's patent paint machine at the shops there.

To the Public.

All money due the NEWS REVIEW from my late subscribers will be paid to Capt. Harry Palmer, owner and man- ager, or his duly accredited agent, Mr. C. R. McGregor, as I have severed my connection with the NEWS REVIEW to take charge of my father's business at Toronto. I embrace this opportunity to thank my friends for kindness to myself while in the newspaper business, and bespeak their good will for my successor.

FRANK B. KELLY.

The News of Wellsville.

Gardeners say that English sparrows are eating the blossoms off tomato plants.

Miss Helen Potts entertained a com- pany of friends at her home on Center street last night. Joseph McGinnis, of Allegheny and Fred and Grace Math- ews, of Youngstown, were the out-of- town guests.

Mrs. Wm. Toot, of Cleveland, is in the city visiting her brother, also friends and relatives. Mr. Toot will arrive this evening.

A. R. Wells returned from his Cali- fornia trip yesterday.

Prof. R. E. Hudson will deliver a temperance lecture at the Methodist Episcopal church, August 1. His bills are headed "The Saloons Must Go." That's what the minority in council say, if the police ordinance passes.

William Snowden and family held a family picnic at Rock Spring yesterday. Rev. James Snowden and daughter and son, of Washington, Pa., attended.

A small crowd of young folks held a trolley party last evening.

The two new water lines, one leading up Liverpool street and the other to Harlem avenue, are finished, and yester- day fire plugs were put in along the lines.

May Be a Sort of Double A Ray.

A remarkable discovery has just been made by Frank L. Woodward of Albany in the finding of a new ray of light, closely resembling the Roentgen in its properties, but produced under entirely different conditions. The rays are ob- tained directly from decomposed light, and Mr. Woodward has named them spectroscopic X rays. They have great pen- etrative power, and with them radio- graphs of the hand and other nontrans- parent bodies have been obtained.

Like the Roentgen ray, the spectroscopic X ray eludes the spectroscopy and is be- lieved to be of very short vibrative per- iod. The discovery of the Woodward rays will throw important light upon the nature of Roentgen rays and prove be- yond doubt that the Roentgen rays are waves of very short vibrative period.

The details of the method of produc- tion of the Woodward rays have not yet been made public. Mr. Woodward is a member of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers of New York city. —Albany Argus.

There is to be seen at Schwarzenberg, in Saxony, a linden whose trunk is 25 feet in circumference, and two others at Schneeberg, one 16 feet and the other 14 feet in circumference.

The ancient copper mines of Sinai have just been re-explored. These were worked by the Egyptians or their slaves 7,000 years ago and are believed to have been abandoned about 3,000 years ago.

A LONG LIVED RACE.

He Is 104 Years Old and Has Not Gone to Bed In Twenty Years.

John Pooler of Waterville, Me., is 104 years of age. He is the fortunate possessor of nearly all of his faculties. Mr. Pooler was born in St. Francis, Canada, being one of five children, four of whom are living now and in fairly good health. These are Ephraim, aged 102; Frank, 99; George, 76, and John, 104, making an aggregate of 381 years, with an average of 95 years to a man. The father of these children, John Pooler, was a soldier in the late rebel- lion and also served in the war of 1812, but has long since passed to the other world. He was a well to do farmer, and as such brought up three of his sons. His namesake, however, would have no farming in his, and after serving an apprenticeship of 36 years he married Sophia Lacombe and moved to Water- ville. This was at a time when that place was known as Winslow, and when, as John says, there were but three houses in the hamlet.

Mrs. Pooler is 18 years younger than her husband and looks only 30. She is rather robust and seems young beside her husband, whom she deems a very old man, as she is but 86, and of this she reminds him frequently.

Mr. Pooler says he has not been to bed for 20 years, which is accounted for by his inability to breathe when lying down. But, as he says, after one gets used to sitting up it is more convenient, as one does not have to take off his clothes and can go out for a walk at any time, day or night. When asked how old any of his relatives had lived to be, he remarked that he did not recall whether it was his grandfather or his great-grandfather who did not die until he was 136. For his part, he sees no special reason why he might not live to be as old. —Boston Herald.

CASE FOR LAW EXPERTS.

Strange Complications Growing Out of Normand's Case.

Whether a person pronounced by the law as civilly dead can be proceeded against for a crime committed prior to his civil death is a question that is en- grossing the attention of a number of at- torneys in North Dakota. The case in point is that of August Normand, the Grand Forks county murderer, who has been found guilty and sentenced to life imprisonment. He has not been brought to the penitentiary and will have to stand another trial for murder before he begins to serve out his life sentence.

and there are those who hold that if he is convicted and sentenced to death for the second murder, he having commit- ted two, he can be hanged and the life sentence will be of no effect to save his life.

On the other hand, many attorneys hold that he will have to be relieved of the life sentence by pardon before a sentence of death could be executed upon him. This is a peculiar case and is seldom paralleled. Judge Fisk of the Grand Forks district court has ordered that the man be tried again for murder. Public sentiment is so inflamed by the fact that the first jury failed to inflict the death penalty that it is more than probable that that punishment will be inflicted at the second trial. If this should be the case, Normand will stand under a sentence of life imprisonment and one of death. Then the question will arise as to which sentence takes precedence. The matter will have to be carried to the supreme court for settle- ment. —St. Paul Pioneer-Press.

Russia's Great Ship Canal.

Russia proposes to connect by canal the Black and Baltic seas, the big ditch, which is to carry the largest battleships, being 1,000 miles long, 213 feet wide at the surface and 115 at the base and 28 feet deep and connecting Riga on the Baltic with Cherson on the Dneiper, near the Black sea. The canal will run from Riga into the river Dwina, which will be used to Dwina- burg, whence the canal will be cut to Sepel, and the Beresina and Dneiper rivers utilized from thence to Cherson, and it is proposed also to cover all the river regions with such a network of canals as will aid greatly in developing the surrounding country. The steam- ship voyage between the two seas will be reduced from 12 to 6 days, as travel will go on night and day at a permitted speed of seven miles an hour. The es- timated cost is $95,000,000, which will fall far short of the actuality, and Ger- many sees in the work not only cheaper food, but a new demand for her iron and steel products. —Exchange.

Mozart.

Mozart lived 37 years. His first mass was composed when he was less than 10 years of age, and the enormous quantity of his compositions was the work of the succeeding 27 years. Mo- zart wrote 41 symphonies, 15 masses, over 30 operas and dramatic composi- tions, 41 sonatas, together with an im- mense number of vocal and concerted pieces in almost every line of the art.

A GOODBYE CLEARANCE SALE.

The time has come when goodbye must be said to every piece of Summer Merchandise in our store, irrespective of what effect it may have on our profit and loss account. This will be done, and done in short order. We don't propose to do it by advertising a Clearance Sale for 30 days, and selling the goods at regular prices. Ten days will be the limit of this sale, and the prices will be so low that a clean sweep will be made in every department.

FRIDAY MORNING, JULY 30th, at 8 O'Clock,

the sale begins, and continues for 10 days only. Unnecessary to say that those who get here first will carry away the best bargains. Below we give you a fair sample of how the goods will be sold. Bring this price list with you, and remember that one-half of the bargains offered are not mentioned here.

DOMESTICS.

REGULAR PRICE.	SALE PRICE.
5c Yard Wide Unbleached Muslin.....	.03
8c 40-inch Unbleached Muslin.....	.04
7c Yard Wide Bleached Muslin.....	.04
Lancaster Gingham.....	.04
7c Canton Flannel.....	.04
All 5c and 6c Calicos.....	.04
All 7c and 8c Calicos.....	.05
10c 36-inch Percales.....	.05
12c and 15c 36-inch Percales.....	.09
18c Best Carpet Warp.....	.15

LINENS.

25c Turkey Red Damasks.....	.12
35c White Linens.....	.21
40c White Linens.....	.25
50c White Linens.....	.38
75c White Linens.....	.58
85c White Linens.....	.68
$1.00 White Linens.....	.78
75c Bed Spreads.....	.49
$1.00 Bed Spreads.....	.79

BARGAINS IN TOWELS AND NAPKINS.

WASH GOODS.

15c Sateens.....	.07
10c Dimities.....	.06
15c Dimities.....	.10
15c Gingham.....	.09
25c Gingham.....	.12
35c and 39c Organdies.....	.25

SILKS.

50c Silks.....	.38
75c Silks.....	.48
$1.00 Silks.....	.68
$1.25 Silks.....	.89

SHIRT WAISTS.

REGULAR PRICE.	SALE PRICE.
50c and 65c Shirt Waists.....	.25
$1.00 and $1.25 Shirt Waists.....	.50
$1.50 and $2.00 Shirt Waists.....	.98

SEPARATE SKIRTS.

$1.00 Shepherd Plaid Skirts.....	.59
$2.00 Novelty Skirts.....	.89
$2.00 Black Novelty Skirts.....	1.49
$4.00 Colored Novelty Skirts.....	2.19

WRAPPERS

Our entire Wrapper Stock, like our Shirt Waist Stock, will be offered in 3 lots at the following prices:
$1.00 Wrappers.....	.50
1.50 Wrappers.....	.75
2.00 Wrappers.....	1.00

CORSETS.

39c Summer Corsets.....	.25
75c Jean Corsets.....	.33
All Staple Brands of Dollar Corsets during this sale.....	.79

Collars and Chemisettes.

1 lot of Ladies' 10c Collars.....	.01
1 lot of 25c and 35c Ladies' Chemisettes.....	.05

HOSIERY.

10c Fast Black Hose.....	.05
20c Fast Black Hose.....	.10
25c Children's Ribbed Hose.....	.12

UNDERWEAR.

All Odd Sizes in Misses' and Ladies' Underwear at exactly half price.

Muslin Underwear and Embroideries.

On every piece of Muslin Underwear and Embroidery in the store we will give a straight discount of 25 per cent. off regular prices.

KID GLOVES.

$1.00 Kid Gloves.....	.59
1.25 Kid Gloves.....	.89
1.50 Kid Gloves.....	1.19

RIBBONS.

35c and 40c Fancy Ribbons.....	.25
--------------------------------	-----

BELTS.

15c Leather Belts.....	.09
25c Leather Belts.....	.15
35c Leather Belts.....	.23

Wool Dress Goods.

Big reductions in Wool Dress Goods. All summer goods in this department will be closed out at half price.

House Furnishing Dep't.

During this 10 days' sale we will give Special Bargains in Lace Curtains, Floor Oil Cloths, Trunks, Graniteware and Glassware.

Best Table Oil Cloth 12c a yard.

Ice Cream Freezers at a big bargain.

All 5c articles in our basement at 3c; all 10c articles at 7c.

Toilet Soap 1c a cake.

Ammonia, 4 bottles for 25c.

We could go on indefinitely, but space will not allow. We have hundreds of bargains not mentioned here. We mean business, and if you want to buy Dry Goods at less money than you ever bought them for in your life, come to our Semi-Annual Goodbye Clearance Sale. Prices good for 10 days only; remember, beginning Friday Morning, at 8 o'clock.

THE BOSTON DEPARTMENT STORE,

A. S. Young, Fifth Street and the Diamond.

WELLSVILLE.

Mr. C. R. McGregor has taken charge of the NEWS REVIEW, and is our only authorized agent in Wellsville. Subscribers will make note that Mr. McGregor is the only authorized agent of this paper, and to him alone will they make payment of money due the REVIEW.

Any subscribers who have not received the NEWS REVIEW will make known the fact to C. R. McGregor, and the matter will receive prompt attention.

HARRY PALMER,
Owner and Manager.

SHOPS ON SHORT TIME

The August Appropriation Is Very Small.

THIRTY-HOUR SCHEDULE USED

Home From Mexico—Lisbon Would Not Play Ball—Happenings About the Railroad Shops—The Watch Examiner on Hand—All the News.

As foretold by the NEWS REVIEW, the Cleveland & Pittsburgh railroad shops here went on short hours today, the beginning of a new month. Every department except the wreck gang have been put on a 30 hour a week schedule, and the August appropriations are so small that it is probable that this will be the schedule for the entire month, and it is feared that unless the miners' strike is settled soon the shops will have to shut down as there is not enough work even to keep the shops going on half time.

Home From Mexico.

William Wooster returned yesterday from Mexico, where he was supervising the putting in of machinery at the Luster gold mine, which is near the famous Great Boulder. He says greasers are worse than dagos, and says his belief in free silver is not weakened. Although they mine gold, they buy silver to pay their men with, as it is about two-thirds cheaper than gold. Mr. Wooster goes back the last of August.

Sporting Notes.

Lisbon backs out in her agreement to come here and play against the home team today, and East Liverpool will be tackled again. Lisbon plays Salineville at Lisbon today.

Addison Turner will pitch for Salineville at Lisbon today.

The West End Athletics defeated an East Liverpool team at Rock Spring, yesterday, by a score of 7 to 6.

Railroad Notes.

The new Cleveland and Pittsburgh weigh scales at Eleventh street were finished yesterday, and are now ready for use. They will do away with the scales in the lower yards.

Will Menough, who was formerly foreman in the car shop storeroom here, is now working in the general office of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railroad at Chicago.

The office Cleveland and Pittsburgh watch examiner is doing business at the company's reading room.

Will Fisher has returned from Fort Wayne where he was overseeing the putting up of his father's patent paint machine at the shops there.

To the Public.

All money due the NEWS REVIEW from my late subscribers will be paid to Capt. Harry Palmer, owner and manager, or his duly accredited agent, Mr. C. R. McGregor, as I have severed my connection with the NEWS REVIEW to take charge of my father's business at Toronto. I embrace this opportunity to thank my friends for kindness to myself while in the newspaper business, and bespeak their good will for my successor.

FRANK B. KELLY.

The News of Wellsville.

Gardeners say that English sparrows are eating the blossoms off tomato plants.

Miss Helen Potts entertained a company of friends at her home on Center street last night. Joseph McGinnis, of Allegheny and Fred and Grace Mathews, of Youngstown, were the out-of-town guests.

Mrs. Wm. Toot, of Cleveland, is in the city visiting her brother, also friends and relatives. Mr. Toot will arrive this evening.

A. R. Wells returned from his California trip yesterday.

Prof. R. E. Hudson will deliver a temperance lecture at the Methodist Episcopal church, August 1. His bills are headed "The Saloons Must Go." That's what the minority in council say, if the police ordinance passes.

William Snowden and family held a family picnic at Rock Spring yesterday. Rev. James Snowden and daughter and son, of Washington, Pa., attended.

A small crowd of young folks held a trolley party last evening.

The two new water lines, one leading up Liverpool street and the other to Harlem avenue, are finished, and yesterday fire plugs were put in along the lines.

May Be a Sort of Double A Ray.

A remarkable discovery has just been made by Frank L. Woodward of Albany in the finding of a new ray of light, closely resembling the Roentgen in its properties, but produced under entirely different conditions. The rays are obtained directly from decomposed light, and Mr. Woodward has named them spectroscopic X rays. They have great penetrative power, and with them radiographs of the hand and other nontransparent bodies have been obtained.

Like the Roentgen ray, the spectroscopic X ray eludes the spectroscope and is believed to be of very short vibrative period. The discovery of the Woodward rays will throw important light upon the nature of Roentgen rays and prove beyond doubt that the Roentgen rays are waves of very short vibrative period.

The details of the method of production of the Woodward rays have not yet been made public. Mr. Woodward is a member of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers of New York city. —Albany Argus.

There is to be seen at Schwarzenberg, in Saxony, a linden whose trunk is 25 feet in circumference, and two others at Schneeberg, one 16 feet and the other 14 feet in circumference.

The ancient copper mines of Sinai have just been re-explored. These were worked by the Egyptians or their slaves 7,000 years ago and are believed to have been abandoned about 3,000 years ago.

A LONG LIVED RACE.

He Is 104 Years Old and Has Not Gone to Bed In Twenty Years.

John Pooler of Waterville, Me., is 104 years of age. He is the fortunate possessor of nearly all of his faculties. Mr. Pooler was born in St. Francis, Canada, being one of five children, four of whom are living now and in fairly good health. These are Ephraim, aged 102; Frank, 99; George, 76, and John, 104, making an aggregate of 381 years, with an average of 95 years to a man. The father of these children, John Pooler, was a soldier in the late rebellion and also served in the war of 1812, but has long since passed to the other world. He was a well to do farmer, and as such brought up three of his sons. His namesake, however, would have no farming in his, and after serving an apprenticeship of 36 years he married Sophia Lacombe and moved to Waterville. This was at a time when that place was known as Winslow, and when, as John says, there were but three houses in the hamlet.

Mrs. Pooler is 18 years younger than her husband and looks only 30. She is rather robust and seems young beside her husband, whom she deems a very old man, as she is but 86, and of this she reminds him frequently.

Mr. Pooler says he has not been to bed for 20 years, which is accounted for by his inability to breathe when lying down. But, as he says, after one gets used to sitting up it is more convenient, as one does not have to take off his clothes and can go out for a walk at any time, day or night. When asked how old any of his relatives had lived to be, he remarked that he did not recall whether it was his grandfather or his great-grandfather who did not die until he was 136. For his part, he sees no special reason why he might not live to be as old. —Boston Herald.

CASE FOR LAW EXPERTS.

Strange Complications Growing Out of Normand's Case.

Whether a person pronounced by the law as civilly dead can be proceeded against for a crime committed prior to his civil death is a question that is engrossing the attention of a number of attorneys in North Dakota. The case in point is that of August Normand, the Grand Forks county murderer, who has been found guilty and sentenced to life imprisonment. He has not been brought to the penitentiary and will have to stand another trial for murder before he begins to serve out his life sentence.

and there are those who hold that if he is convicted and sentenced to death for the second murder, he having committed two, he can be hanged and the life sentence will be of no effect to save his life.

On the other hand, many attorneys hold that he will have to be relieved of the life sentence by pardon before a sentence of death could be executed upon him. This is a peculiar case and is seldom paralleled. Judge Fisk of the Grand Forks district court has ordered that the man be tried again for murder. Public sentiment is so inflamed by the fact that the first jury failed to inflict the death penalty that it is more than probable that that punishment will be inflicted at the second trial. If this should be the case, Normand will stand under a sentence of life imprisonment and one of death. Then the question will arise as to which sentence takes precedence. The matter will have to be carried to the supreme court for settlement. —St. Paul Pioneer-Press.

Russia's Great Ship Canal.

Russia proposes to connect by canal the Black and Baltic seas, the big ditch, which is to carry the largest battleships, being 1,000 miles long, 213 feet wide at the surface and 115 at the base and 28 feet deep and connecting Riga on the Baltic with Cherson on the Dneiper, near the Black sea. The canal will run from Riga into the river Dwina, which will be used to Dwina-burg, whence the canal will be cut to Sepel, and the Beresina and Dneiper rivers utilized from thence to Cherson, and it is proposed also to cover all the river regions with such a network of canals as will aid greatly in developing the surrounding country. The steamship voyage between the two seas will be reduced from 12 to 6 days, as travel will go on night and day at a permitted speed of seven miles an hour. The estimated cost is $95,000,000, which will fall far short of the actuality, and Germany sees in the work not only cheaper food, but a new demand for her iron and steel products. —Exchange.

Mozart.

Mozart lived 37 years. His first mass was composed when he was less than 10 years of age, and the enormous quantity of his compositions was the work of the succeeding 27 years. Mozart wrote 41 symphonies, 15 masses, over 30 operas and dramatic compositions, 41 sonatas, together with an immense number of vocal and concerted pieces in almost every line of the art.

The News Review.

LEADING DAILY OF COLUMBIANA COUNTY.

PUBLISHED DAILY EXCEPT SUNDAY BY
THE NEWS REVIEW COMPANY.

HARRY PALMER, Manager and Proprietor.
[Entered as second class matter at the East
Liverpool, O., postoffice.]

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION:
(Postage free in United States and Canada.)
One Year in Advance.....$5 00
Three Months.....1 25
By the Week.....10

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., SATURDAY JULY 31.

REPUBLICAN TICKET.

Governor, Asa S. Bushnell.
Lieutenant governor, A. W. Jones.
Supreme judge, Jacob A. Burkett.
Attorney general, Frank Monnet.
State treasurer, Samuel Campbell.
School commissioner, L. D. Bonebrake.
Member of Board of Public Works, C. A. Gaddard.
For Senator, W. V. Blake.
For Representative, P. M. Ashford of Washington township.
For Treasurer, Charles E. Smith of Fairfield township.
For Sheriff, Charles Gill of Liverpool township.
For Commissioner, W. K. George of Madison township.
For Prosecutor, J. H. Brookes of Liverpool township.
For Infirmary Director, C. D. Filson of Center township.

THE Republican party presents a solid front to all its enemies. It is prepared for battle without internal dissension or factional quarrel.

THE opinion is spreading that some of the fellows who recently returned from Alaska can tell a good story much better than they can find gold.

If potteries and rumors of potteries constitute prosperity for this particular part of the world, we have no reason to complain of the Republican party not fulfilling its promises.

WHO knows but what the Dingley bill will be the means of giving East Liverpool that long expected federal building. Uncle Sam is usually pretty liberal when his pockets are full.

THE cry of calamity makes a poor platform at best, but when the unvarnished assertions of the calamity advocates are proved to contain no truth whatever, the platform falls to pieces.

THE Democrats in their state platform say they are opposed to issues of interest bearing bonds in time of peace, forgetting probably that their own idol, Grover Cleveland, was the only president in recent years who dared attempt that sort of thing.

BRYAN's friends are beginning to realize that he is talking too much, and an effort will be made to have him elected governor of Nebraska in order to keep him quiet. Giving him a bit of candy as they do many children who are noisy, as it were.

JUST why the Democratic party should desire to honor John R. McLean by sending him to the senate is one of the things the average man cannot well understand. His only claim for recognition can be summed up in the simple statement that he has been a contributor to the campaign fund. Does the fact that a man, with an overabundance of wealth, sees fit to give a very small proportion of his income to his party necessarily fit him for one of the highest offices in its gift?

MR. CHAPMAN is unfortunate in that he happens to be a candidate when his own and thousands of other miners are asking his influence and the influence of every other coal operator in the state in an effort to end the strike. The knowledge that he has made no attempt to settle the wage question shows that Mr. Chapman cares little for the welfare of the men whose votes he so glibly asks. At present it seems that Mr. Chapman would prove a political mistake this year.

MEETING THE ENEMY.

While it is true that the free silver wave has spent its force, and the people of Ohio are not affected as they were a year ago, the determination of the Republican committee to meet the political enemies of the party at every turn is a display of wisdom which will some day bear good fruit. The sending of talented and well informed speakers into every township of the state will do much toward dispelling any remnants of the craze of last year. It will do more, inasmuch as it will put forward the real condition of affairs not only in Ohio, but throughout the country, and if the people are only well informed as to that, Republican victory is assured.

"SKULLDUGGERY."

Creatures Who Employ This Feature Will Suffer Defeat.

The fellow who makes use of "skull-duggery" is a sneak and a cheat—fair to your face and a veritable fiend behind your back. He is always a cur and a coward, with the proverbial "yellow streak" in his makeup. He never comes out boldly with charges, but indulges in sly hints and innuendoes. He is a traitor, and is incapable of true friendship to any one. There is a few of him in East Liverpool. We have one of him branded, and we will drive the brand home deep in his cowardly carcass at the time when it will do the community at large the most good. He wants office, and imagines he is very cunning in the pursuit thereof. His treachery, low cunning and devilish deceit are acting as boomerangs, and the weapons he is now making use of will sting him to death. Selah.

SAW SNAKES.

They Were Big Fellows When the Boys Got Home.

The small boys at Spring Grove are wildly excited over their adventures with snakes. Yesterday afternoon a crowd of them went after berries, and Bertram Harker and Orville Sebring each killed a snake. When the boys arrived at the ground the snakes had grown to enormous proportions, and measured anywhere from 6 to 10 feet. They were copperheads.

Orville Sebring, of East Palestine, is the guest of Charlie Sebring.

A new gate is being erected at the main entrance to the ground.

Miss Margery Rebe, who has been the guest of Miss Nan Stevenson, left today for her home in Columbus.

BACK TO HIS OLD LOVE.

J. F. Manor Returns to the Knowles, Taylor & Knowles Company.

When the NEWS REVIEW stated a few days ago that Benjamin Harker would take charge of the Laughlin pottery there was much speculation as to who would be his successor at the Knowles plant. It was learned today that the position will be filled by J. F. Manor, of the Union. Mr. Manor was for many years connected with the Knowles company, but took charge of the clay department of the Union when the company was organized, being one of its stockholders. Manager Smith will look after the work at the Union until a suitable man can be found. Mr. Manor will take up his work next Monday morning.

NO LAW REQUIRES IT.

Ugly Wooden Awnings Are Still Allowable.

Mayor Gilbert after carefully searching the ordinance book has discovered there is no law in the book requiring wooden awnings to be torn down. A resolution has been passed, but there is no ordinance, and consequently the order of council a few months ago was never enforced.

Secretary Charles.

The following will be noted with interest by the numerous friends of this estimable young man:

ALLEGHENY GENERAL HOSPITAL,
July 29, 1897.

J. T. Roberts:

DEAR SIR—Mr. Charles' condition is somewhat improved. He is still quite weak and not entirely out of danger.

Very truly yours,

JOHN L. DEENS,
Superintendent.

Bargains in every department at the Buckeye Clothing House.

Died at Industry.

Mrs. Michael Murray died this morning at 1:30 o'clock, at her home in Industry, after a lingering illness. Deceased was aged 79 years, and was the mother of Mrs. John Ryan and Mrs. Holtzman of this city. The remains will be brought to this city, and the funeral will take place Monday morning at 9 o'clock from St. Aloysius church.

Fine Trips on the River.

The pleasant weather has had a wonderful influence on river travel, and all the packets have during the week carried a great many passengers, and if the stage of water continues the season will prove one of the best in the history of the Pittsburg and Cincinnati boats.

25c straw hats for boys and children going for 10c at the Buckeye Clothing House.

COLUMBIAN PARK WON

Labor Day Sports Will Take Place In East End.

NO RAILROAD RATES YET

But the Committee Will Correspond With the Proper Officials—Good Progress Being Made In Securing Prizes—The Usual Badges Will Be Worn In the Parade.

The Labor day demonstration will be held at Columbiana park.

The committee met last evening and discussed the subject of grounds, and by a practically unanimous vote decided to hold the celebration at Columbiana park. The principal reason for selecting the park was because of the race track, as it will permit the affair to take the nature of a field day and will save the expenditure of a great deal of money necessary to make the day a success at Rock Spring. It was also argued that races would furnish the people with more amusement, a much desired feature.

The railway committee reported having received a letter from Mr. Van Dusen, telling them to communicate with the Central Traffic association. The committee were instructed to continue their labors, and at the next meeting it will be decided whether the affair will be made more than local.

It was decided to make the parade a leading feature, and all union men will be asked to take part and wear the usual Labor day ribbon.

The sports committee reported that they were meeting with very flattering success in securing prizes from local merchants.

William Ruhe, Charles McCauley and Criss McConnell will act as a printing committee, and Ed McKinnon, E. W. Hill and J. J. Weisend will look after the music.

CHURCH CHIMES.

Subjects of Sermons For the Sabbath Day.

The regular 4 o'clock service will be held at the Young Men's Christian association tomorrow afternoon. The meeting will be addressed by W. A. Kenney on the subject "God's Call to man."

St. Stephens Episcopal church—Services by the Rev. D. W. Thornberry, of Gambier. Morning service 10:45, evening 7:30.

Methodist Protestant church, Rev. C. F. Swift, pastor—Preaching morning and evening, Sunday school 9:30 a. m., Young People's meeting 6:30 p. m. All are invited.

Christian Church, Prof. O. S. Reed, pastor:—Morning subject, "Christ the Great Sacrifice;" evening, "Why Am I a Disciple." Other services as usual.

Second U. P. church, Rev. J. R. Green, pastor—Preaching at 11 a. m., subject, "Balm in Gilead;" 8 p. m., address by John Hanley, subject, "Faith Triumphant."

First U. P. church, Rev. J. C. Taggart, pastor—Services at 11 a. m., subject "Jesus In Heaven Our Confidence on Earth;" evening subject, "God Thinks of Man," Sabbath school 9:45 a. m., Young People's meeting at 7 p. m.

A Noisy Crowd.

There was trouble among the members of a family in Davidson's Opera House, this morning. Tables and dishes were upset, and two of the boys had a fight in the hall. Frank Stevens called on the mayor to have the trouble settled, but as he was not in, nothing was done.

Going to Hollow Rock.

A large number of persons from this city will attend the campmeeting at Hollow Rock. Several have already rented cottages, but the majority will only go there for a day or two.

Men's and boy's clothing at great reductions at the Buckeye Clothing House.

NOTICE.

All Rechabites are urgently requested to meet at their hall this evening at 7:30 o'clock sharp, to arrange for the funeral of Brother Curtis Moon.

P. F. MCCLOSKEY.

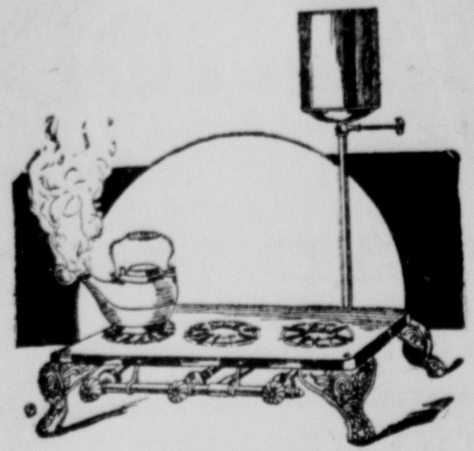

Startled the Crowd.

Last evening while James York was riding his bicycle on Fifth street the rear tire blew up with a report like a pistol shot. It startled the crowd.

A Big Tow.

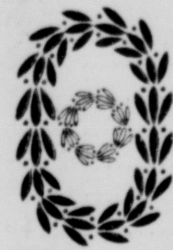

The towboat Ed Roberts passed up last evening with one of the largest tows it has handled this season.

A large assortment of soft bosom shirts, in percale, linen and madras, for 50c, 75c and 95c at the Buckeye Clothing House.

Why
Keep a Range
Full of Red Hot Coals

When you can have comfort these hot days by using one of our

Gas Ranges,
Hot Plates,
Gasoline Stoves,
or Oil Stoves

Our Stock is the Largest and Prices the Lowest.

THE EAGLE HARDWARE CO.,

Fifth Street, East Liverpool, O.

EVERY WOMAN

Sometimes needs a reliable, monthly, regulating medicine. Only harmless and the purest drugs should be used. If you want the best, get

Dr. Peal's Pennyroyal Pills

They are prompt, safe and certain in result. The genuine (Dr. Peal's) never disappoint. Sent anywhere, $1.00. Address PEAL MEDICINE CO., Cleveland, O.

For sale by Alvin B. Bulger, Druggist, Sixth and W. Market, East Liverpool.

195 and 197 Market Street. 195 and 197 Market Street

J. L. APPLE,

Dry Goods, Millinery,
Ladies and Gents Furnishings.

The big values in our summer goods during our July Clearance Sale has created much sensation in the past three weeks among the shrewd shoppers of East Liverpool and vicinity. The prices in all our different lines of goods have been cut right and left—some to one-half and some to less than half their real value. The millinery especially we have cut to one-third its original value. If you have not attended this wonderful bargain sale you are cordially invited to come and be convinced. All these goods are new and of best quality—facts not often met with in sales of this sort, where quality of fabrics is a secondary point. This difference is all in favor of the customers of this store. Note carefully the prices quoted.

36 inch, round thread, unbleached muslin, medium weight, 3 1/2c a yard. From our $2.50, $3 and $3.50 parasols, in all colors, with two ruffles, your choice for $1.50.

36 inch bleached muslin, good quality, 4 1/2c a yard.

Lancaster and other high grade brands of gingham, 6c values at 4c.

Embroideries and laces are also proportionately reduced.

Ladies' vests, with taped neck and sleeves, 5c.

5-4 table oil cloth, best quality made, at 12c a yard.

29c for women's waists, made of lawns, percales, dimities, with detachable collars and turn-over soft cuffs, worth 75c.

Quite a large assortment of parasols in 22 inch at 35c worth double.

Fine silk parasols, in white only, former price $1.50, now only 75c.

All our fine trimmed hats, toques and bonnets are reduced to 1/2 their cost. $1 buys a $3 hat, $1.50 buys a $4.50 hat. Great bargains.

Mens' Laundered Shirts, with collar and cuffs attached, reduced to 25c.

Mens' Soft Working Shirts, extra well made, at 25c.

Mens' Half Hose, 5c.

Mens' Balbriggan Underwear, the 50c quality, at 25c.

Neckwear at 5, 10, 15, 20 and 25c. Worth double.

Boys' Shirts, laundered and unlaundered, at exceedingly low prices.

J. L. APPLE,

195 and 197 Market Street, EAST LIVERPOOL OHIO.

The News Review.

LEADING DAILY OF COLUMBIANA COUNTY.

PUBLISHED DAILY EXCEPT SUNDAY BY
THE NEWS REVIEW COMPANY.

HARRY PALMER, Manager and Proprietor.
[Entered as second class matter at the East
Liverpool, O., postoffice.]

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION:
(Postage free in United States and Canada.)
One Year in Advance.....$5 00
Three Months.....1 25
By the Week.....10

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., SATURDAY JULY 31.

REPUBLICAN TICKET.

Governor, Asa S. Bushnell.
Lieutenant governor, A. W. Jones.
Supreme Judge, Jacob A. Burkett.
Attorney general, Frank Monnet.
State treasurer, Samuel Campbell.
School commissioner, L. D. Honebrake.
Member of Board of Public Works, C. A. Goddard.
For Senator, W. V. Blake.
For Representative, P. M. Ashford of Washington township.
For Treasurer, Charles E. Smith of Fairfield township.
For Sheriff, Charles Gill of Liverpool township.
For Commissioner, W. K. George of Madison township.
For Prosecutor, J. H. Brookes of Liverpool township.
For Infirmary Director, C. D. Filson of Center township.

The Republican party presents a solid front to all its enemies. It is prepared for battle without internal dissension or factional quarrel.

The opinion is spreading that some of the fellows who recently returned from Alaska can tell a good story much better than they can find gold.

If potteries and rumors of potteries constitute prosperity for this particular part of the world, we have no reason to complain of the Republican party not fulfilling its promises.

Who knows but what the Dingley bill will be the means of giving East Liverpool that long expected federal building. Uncle Sam is usually pretty liberal when his pockets are full.

The cry of calamity makes a poor platform at best, but when the unvarnished assertions of the calamity advocates are proved to contain no truth whatever, the platform falls to pieces.

The Democrats in their state platform say they are opposed to issues of interest bearing bonds in time of peace, forgetting probably that their own idol, Grover Cleveland, was the only president in recent years who dared attempt that sort of thing.

Bryan's friends are beginning to realize that he is talking too much, and an effort will be made to have him elected governor of Nebraska in order to keep him quiet. Giving him a bit of candy as they do many children who are noisy, as it were.

Just why the Democratic party should desire to honor John R. McLean by sending him to the senate is one of the things the average man cannot well understand. His only claim for recognition can be summed up in the simple statement that he has been a contributor to the campaign fund. Does the fact that a man, with an overabundance of wealth, sees fit to give a very small proportion of his income to his party necessarily fit him for one of the highest offices in its gift?

Mr. Chapman is unfortunate in that he happens to be a candidate when his own and thousands of other miners are asking his influence and the influence of every other coal operator in the state in an effort to end the strike. The knowledge that he has made no attempt to settle the wage question shows that Mr. Chapman cares little for the welfare of the men whose votes he so glibly asks. At present it seems that Mr. Chapman would prove a political mistake this year.

MEETING THE ENEMY.

While it is true that the free silver wave has spent its force, and the people of Ohio are not affected as they were a year ago, the determination of the Republican committee to meet the political enemies of the party at every turn is a display of wisdom which will some day bear good fruit. The sending of talented and well informed speakers into every township of the state will do much toward dispelling any remnants of the craze of last year. It will do more, inasmuch as it will put forward the real condition of affairs not only in Ohio, but throughout the country, and if the people are only well informed as to that, Republican victory is assured.

"SKULLDUGGERY."

Creatures Who Employ This Feature Will Suffer Defeat.

The fellow who makes use of "skull-duggery" is a sneak and a cheat—fair to your face and a veritable fiend behind your back. He is always a cur and a coward, with the proverbial "yellow streak" in his makeup. He never comes out boldly with charges, but indulges in sly hints and innuendoes. He is a traitor, and is incapable of true friendship to any one. There is a few of him in East Liverpool. We have one of him branded, and we will drive the brand home deep in his cowardly carcass at the time when it will do the community at large the most good. He wants office, and imagines he is very cunning in the pursuit thereof. His treachery, low cunning and devilish deceit are acting as boomerangs, and the weapons he is now making use of will sting him to death. Selah.

SAW SNAKES.

They Were Big Fellows When the Boys Got Home.

The small boys at Spring Grove are wildly excited over their adventures with snakes. Yesterday afternoon a crowd of them went after berries, and Bertram Harker and Orrville Sebring each killed a snake. When the boys arrived at the ground the snakes had grown to enormous proportions, and measured anywhere from 6 to 10 feet. They were copperheads.

Orrville Sebring, of East Palestine, is the guest of Charlie Sebring.

A new gate is being erected at the main entrance to the ground.

Miss Margery Rebe, who has been the guest of Miss Nan Stevenson, left today for her home in Columbus.

BACK TO HIS OLD LOVE.

J. F. Manor Returns to the Knowles, Taylor & Knowles Company.

When the NEWS REVIEW stated a few days ago that Benjamin Harker would take charge of the Laughlin pottery there was much speculation as to who would be his successor at the Knowles plant. It was learned today that the position will be filled by J. F. Manor, of the Union. Mr. Manor was for many years connected with the Knowles company, but took charge of the clay department of the Union when the company was organized, being one of its stockholders. Manager Smith will look after the work at the Union until a suitable man can be found. Mr. Manor will take up his work next Monday morning.

NO LAW REQUIRES IT.

Ugly Wooden Awnings Are Still Allowable.

Mayor Gilbert after carefully searching the ordinance book has discovered there is no law in the book requiring wooden awnings to be torn down. A resolution has been passed, but there is no ordinance, and consequently the order of council a few months ago was never enforced.

Secretary Charles.

The following will be noted with interest by the numerous friends of this estimable young man:

ALLEGHENY GENERAL HOSPITAL,
July 29, 1897.

J. T. Roberts:

DEAR SIR—Mr. Charles' condition is somewhat improved. He is still quite weak and not entirely out of danger.

Very truly yours,

JOHN L. DEENS,
Superintendent.

Bargains in every department at the Buckeye Clothing House.

Died at Industry.

Mrs. Michael Murray died this morning at 1:30 o'clock, at her home in Industry, after a lingering illness. Deceased was aged 79 years, and was the mother of Mrs. John Ryan and Mrs. Holtzman of this city. The remains will be brought to this city, and the funeral will take place Monday morning at 9 o'clock from St. Aloysius church.

Fine Trips on the River.

The pleasant weather has had a wonderful influence on river travel, and all the packets have during the week carried a great many passengers, and if the stage of water continues the season will prove one of the best in the history of the Pittsburgh and Cincinnati boats.

25c straw hats for boys and children going for 10c at the Buckeye Clothing House.

COLUMBIAN PARK WON

Labor Day Sports Will Take Place In East End.

NO RAILROAD RATES YET

But the Committee Will Correspond With the Proper Officials—Good Progress Being Made In Securing Prizes—The Usual Badges Will Be Worn In the Parade.

The Labor day demonstration will be held at Columbiana park.

The committee met last evening and discussed the subject of grounds, and by a practically unanimous vote decided to hold the celebration at Columbiana park. The principal reason for selecting the park was because of the race track, as it will permit the affair to take the nature of a field day and will save the expenditure of a great deal of money necessary to make the day a success at Rock Spring. It was also argued that races would furnish the people with more amusement, a much desired feature.

The railway committee reported having received a letter from Mr. Van Dusen, telling them to communicate with the Central Traffic association. The committee were instructed to continue their labors, and at the next meeting it will be decided whether the affair will be made more than local.

It was decided to make the parade a leading feature, and all union men will be asked to take part and wear the usual Labor day ribbon.

The sports committee reported that they were meeting with very flattering success in securing prizes from local merchants.

William Rahe, Charles McCauley and Criss McConnell will act as a printing committee, and Ed McKinnon, E. W. Hill and J. J. Weisend will look after the music.

CHURCH CHIMES.

Subjects of Sermons For the Sabbath Day.

The regular 4 o'clock service will be held at the Young Men's Christian association tomorrow afternoon. The meeting will be addressed by W. A. Kenney on the subject "God's Call to man."

St. Stephens Episcopal church—Services by the Rev. D. W. Thornberry, of Gambier. Morning service 10:45, evening 7:30.

Methodist Protestant church, Rev. C. F. Swift, pastor—Preaching morning and evening, Sunday school 9:30 a. m., Young People's meeting 6:30 p. m. All are invited.

Christain Church, Prof. O. S. Reed, pastor:—Morning subject, "Christ the Great Sacrifice;" evening, "Why Am I a Disciple." Other services as usual.

Second U. P. church, Rev. J. R. Green, pastor—Preaching at 11 a. m., subject, "Balm in Gilead;" 8 p. m., address by John Hanley, subject, "Faith Triumphant."

First U. P. church, Rev. J. C. Taggart, pastor—Services at 11 a. m., subject "Jesus In Heaven Our Confidence on Earth;" evening subject, "God Thinks of Man," Sabbath school 9:45 a. m., Young People's meeting at 7 p. m.

A Noisy Crowd.

There was trouble among the members of a family in Davidson's Opera House, this morning. Tables and dishes were upset, and two of the boys had a fight in the hall. Frank Stevens called on the mayor to have the trouble settled, but as he was not in, nothing was done.

Going to Hollow Rock.

A large number of persons from this city will attend the campmeeting at Hollow Rock. Several have already rented cottages, but the majority will only go there for a day or two.

Men's and boy's clothing at great reductions at the Buckeye Clothing House.

NOTICE.

All Rechabites are urgently requested to meet at their hall this evening at 7:30 o'clock sharp, to arrange for the funeral of Brother Curtis Moon.

P. F. McCLOSKEY.

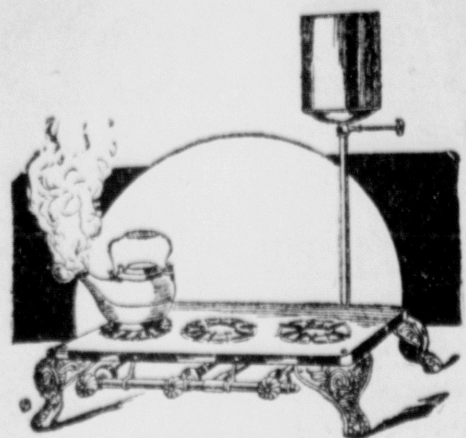

Startled the Crowd.

Last evening while James York was riding his bicycle on Fifth street the rear tire blew up with a report like a pistol shot. It startled the crowd.

A Big Tow.

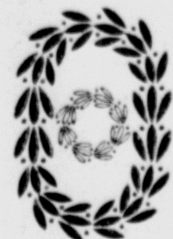

The towboat Ed Roberts passed up last evening with one of the largest tows it has handled this season.

A large assortment of soft bosom shirts, in percale, linen and madras, for 50c, 75c and 95c at the Buckeye Clothing House.

Why
Keep a Range
Full of Red Hot Coals

When you can have comfort these hot days by using one of our

Gas Ranges,
Hot Plates,
Gasoline Stoves,
or Oil Stoves

Our Stock is the Largest and Prices the Lowest.

THE EAGLE HARDWARE CO.,

Fifth Street, East Liverpool, O.

EVERY WOMAN

Sometimes needs a reliable, monthly, regulating medicine. Only harmless and the purest drugs should be used. If you want the best, get

Dr. Peal's Pennyroyal Pills

They are prompt, safe and certain in result. The genuine (Dr. Peal's) never disappoint. Sent anywhere, $1.00. Address PEAL MEDICINE CO., Cleveland, O.

For sale by Alvin B. Bulger, Druggist, Sixth and W. Market, East Liverpool.

195 and 197 Market Street. 195 and 197 Market Street

J. L. APPLE,

Dry Goods, Millinery,
Ladies and Gents Furnishings.

The big values in our summer goods during our July Clearance Sale has created much sensation in the past three weeks among the shrewd shoppers of East Liverpool and vicinity. The prices in all our different lines of goods have been cut right and left—some to one-half and some to less than half their real value. The millinery especially we have cut to one-third its original value. If you have not attended this wonderful bargain sale you are cordially invited to come and be convinced. All these goods are new and of best quality—facts not often met with in sales of this sort, where quality of fabrics is a secondary point. This difference is all in favor of the customers of this store. Note carefully the prices quoted.

36 inch, round thread, unbleached muslin, medium weight, 3 1/2c a yard.	From our $2.50, $3 and $3.50 parasols, in all colors, with two ruffles, your choice for $1.50.
36 inch bleached muslin, good quality, 4 1/2c a yard.	All our fine trimmed hats, toques and bonnets are reduced to 1/3 their cost. $1 buys a $3 hat, $1.50 buys a $4.50 hat. Great bargains.
Lancaster and other high grade brands of gingham, 6c values at 4c.	Mens' Laundered Shirts, with collar and cuffs attached, reduced to 25c.
Embroideries and laces are also proportionately reduced.	Mens' Soft Working Shirts, extra well made, at 25c.
Ladies' vests, with taped neck and sleeves, 5c.	Mens' Half Hose, 5c.
5-4 table oil cloth, best quality made, at 12c a yard.	Mens' Balbriggan Underwear, the 50c quality, at 25c.
29c for women's waists, made of lawns, percales, dimities, with detachable collars and turn-over soft cuffs, worth 75c.	Neckwear at 5, 10, 15, 20 and 25c. Worth double.
Quite a large assortment of parasols in 22 inch at 35c worth double.	Boys' Shirts, laundered and unlaundered, at exceedingly low prices.
Fine silk parasols, in white only, former price $1.50, now only 75c.

J. L. APPLE,

195 and 197 Market Street, EAST LIVERPOOL OHIO.

WILD WITH ANGER

Farmers of Tolbert's Run Ready
For Lynching

IF THEY FIND THE BIG BRUTE

Who Assaulted and Almost Killed Mrs. Warren at Her Home a Few Miles From Toronto—A Cumberland Man Suspected and the Poor Woman Will Be Given an Opportunity to Identify Him Tonight.

TORONTO, July 31.—[Special]—The people of Hancock county opposite this place and two miles from the river are today, scouring the county in search of a man who assaulted and almost killed Mrs. Warren, the wife of a well-to-do farmer of that section. If the man is found he will be hanged to the nearest tree.

Warren left his home yesterday morning, and went to work in a field not far from the house. Mrs. Warren finished her household work, and went to the chicken coop for the purpose of setting a hen. She had been there but a short time when a man approached and inquired if her husband was at home. She answered that he was not, and he attacked her. Catching her in his arms, he forced her to the ground, and, in spite of her struggles, accomplished his foul purpose.

The poor woman was rendered unconscious by the brutal assault, but not before she had fought hard for her honor. When the fiend found his work was done he picked up the poor, inanimate being and threw her over a high board fence. She fell upon a pile of rocks and lay there as one dead.

Some time afterward, how long Mrs. Warren does not know, she recovered consciousness and dragged herself to the house where she again lost consciousness. When her husband returned he found her in an awful condition, and between hysterical sobs she told him what had occurred. He at once gave the alarm, and summoning a physician found that his wife had been dangerously hurt, and might die before night. This intelligence made the man desperate, and he sworn that if the fiend was found he would kill him on sight.

Meantime the news had spread through the entire neighborhood. Mrs. Warren was delirious the greater part of the time, but she succeeded in telling them that the man was large, stout and wore a heavy mustache. He had on rough clothes and a broad brimmed hat, but did not appear to be a farmer. Mrs. Warren's aunt had called at the house a few minutes before the assault, and says she met a man going in that direction as she was on her way home. He carried a shot gun and a dog trotted at his heels. As the description coincides with that of Mrs. Warren it is believed he is the man.

The authorities had not long been notified when the people began to gather, and it was decided to start out at once in search of the man. One strong party was organized to go over the immediate neighborhood and a number of smaller parties scoured the country for miles around. They are at this writing still hunting for the man, and if he is found there will be no preliminaries. The man will be strung up to the nearest tree.

It is stated here and in Cumberland that the people did not hesitate to declare their intention. They were wild with anger, and the greatest excitement prevailed. One man who advised moderation was informed that the laws of West Virginia did not provide sufficient punishment for a crime so heinous.

During the whole of yesterday afternoon Mrs. Warren was so near death that it was feared she would not survive. The shock almost dethroned her reason, and she suffered severe bodily injury. When the brute threw her over the fence her head struck a stone, and the wound added to her pain. Last night her condition had not improved, and it was feared this morning that murder would be added to the unknown's crime.

GEORGE MAYHEW'S SISTER.

She Is Well Known to Many People In This City.

Mrs. Warren, who was assaulted at her home at Tolbert's run, near New Cumberland, yesterday, is the sister of George Mayhew, who is in the grocery business at the corner of Fourth and Washington streets.

She was a resident of Toronto for some time, and has one daughter aged four years. Mrs. Warren has been delicate for several years, and is a small woman. She could not have offered much resistance. Although Mrs. War-

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

Celebrated for its great leavening strength and healthfulness. Assures the food against alum and all forms of adulterations common to the cheap brands.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., New York.

ren never resided here she has a number of friends in the city.

When Mayhew heard of the assault he made every effort to obtain the particulars, but the information was meager. He was confident, however, that the man would be lynched if the people caught him.

THE POLICE NOTIFIED

To Watch For the Brute From Tolbert's Run.

The authorities here were notified today to keep a sharp lookout for the man who had assaulted Mrs. Warren at Tolbert's run. The description given was the same as that sent out this morning from Toronto. The man has not been seen around the city, and it is not believed that he will come this way. He would avoid places of this kind knowing that the authorities would be watching for him.

SHE WILL RECOVER.

Mrs. Warren Is Much Better This Afternoon.

TORONTO, July 31.—[Special]—Word reached here this afternoon from the Warren home which says that Mrs. Warren is much better and will likely recover. She has regained consciousness and talks rationally. Although the country has been gone over by bands of well armed men, they have not found the individual they sought.

It is said here that there were no less than five ropes in the party when they started in search of the man.

UNDER SUSPICION.

A Cumberland Man Who May Be Arrested.

NEW CUMBERLAND, July 31.—[Special]—The assault upon Mrs. Howard Warren created the wildest excitement in the vicinity of Tolbert's run, and had the man been found he would have been lynched. The hunt was abandoned when it was found she would not die, and the authorities here took up the chase. Suspicion rested on a man who was out of town when the crime was committed. He is a workman. He will be taken before Mrs. Warren this evening, and if she can identify him Sheriff Wilkins will lock him up, and he will be held to answer for the crime.

LATER—It has been deemed wise to have Mrs. Warren brought to town for the purpose of seeing the man, and if she can leave her home that course will be followed.

Bought a Good Horse.

Billy Davidson and George Rowe yesterday afternoon purchased Conner, the black gelding owned by J. R. Gillehay, of Danville, Ky., which won the free for all pace at McKee's Rocks yesterday making two of the three heats in 2:11½ and 2:11¾. The animal will be sent around the circuit and will not arrive in this city before Oct. 1.

Broke a Church Window.

While a crowd of boys were playing in Fourth street, this morning, one of them threw a stone which broke one of the large windows on the Fourth street side of the First Presbyterian church. Officers McMillan and Terrence were put on the case, but at a late hour had not arrested the boys.

Appraising Property.

Sheriff Gill and Deputy Bick are in town today appraising lot 368, which will be sold to satisfy a judgment recently rendered in the case of R. M. Burns against Hiram C. Rigby. It will be sold in three tracts.

75c and $1 straw hats reduced to 50c at the Buckeye Clothing House.

PREPARING THE SCALE

Manufacturers Are Hard at Work.

MEETING HELD LAST NIGHT

An Effort Is Being Made to Reach a Decision That Will Provide For the Payment of the Same Price For the Same Ware In Every Pottery—Much Interest Shown.

The manufacturers of the city are hard at work preparing the wage scale, and when it is completed it is believed that every pottery in town will be prepared to pay the same price for the same ware.

A meeting was held last night in the rooms of the old white granite association in the Laughlin building, and some progress made. It is the intention of the manufacturers to collect all the information possible and from it evolve a list which will be uniform, that is every pottery will pay the same price for making the same ware. The task, it is acknowledged, is a difficult one, and many changes must of necessity be made, but they are slight in the majority of cases. The work is progressing in a satisfactory manner and will be completed in a short time.

LARGE CARGOES OF GRAIN.

Many Vessels Chartered to Convey Them to Europe.

PHILADELPHIA, July 31.—Forty steamers have been chartered to load cargoes of grain at Philadelphia, New York, Baltimore and Newport News, Va., for ports in the United Kingdom and Europe, making a day's record, which, it is claimed, has never been equalled.

To fill these vessels will require over 4,000,000 bushels of grain. During the past two weeks fixtures for steam tonnage to carry over 20,000,000 bushels of cereals abroad have been effected.

A London Preacher Heard.

NORTHFIELD, Mass., July 31.—At the session of the general conference of Christian workers Mr. Moody introduced Rev. G. Campbell Morgan of London. Mr. Morgan is a very earnest and thoughtful speaker. His sermon seemed to make an impression on his hearers.

Threw the Baby to the Hogs.

OZARK, Ark., July 31.—Lee David son has been arrested here. It is said he threw his wife's baby into a hog pen and it was devoured by swine.

Saw the Stars.

Thomas Bott pleasantly entertained a party of young people at his observatory in West End last evening.

Dancing.

Dancing at Rock Spring park tonight. Last appearance of Nowling's full orchestra.

Tandems and bicycles for rent at W. O. Hamilton's.

PERSONAL MENTION.

—Mrs. Elmer Walters, of Wheeling, is this city.

—Miss Alice Goodwin spent the day in Pittsburg.

—Miss Sophia Stout returned to her home in Bellaire today.

—Miss Laura Crawford returned from Eagle Lake this morning.

—Jethro Freeman, of Smithsdale, Pa., is the guest of his mother in Grant street.

—Miss Maggie Crawford returned home this morning from a lengthy stay in Idaho.

—George Gardner returned to the city this morning after an extended visit in Richmond.

—C. C. Thompson came in from Chautauqua, yesterday, to look after some business affairs.

—J. R. Anderson, wife and family, of Pittsburg, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Wilson.

—The Misses Fenstermacher, of Philadelphia, Pa., are guests of the Misses Metz, of fifth street.

—Mrs. Laughlin and son Allan, of near Rogers, spent last evening with friends in the city.

—Dick Thompson and sister, Miss Anna, and Miss Crable returned from Kensington yesterday afternoon.

—Miss Maggie House and Miss Emma King left this afternoon for Pittsburg, where they will spend Sunday with friends.

—Jack Harris, of Pittsburg, is in the city and will spend Sunday with his parents here. Mr. Harris has been ill, but is now much better.

—Mrs. Charles Webster will leave this evening for her home in Louisville, Ky., after a visit of a month with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Adams.

—Miss Hobbs, of Fairview, is the guest of Miss Dora Andrews, Seventh street. The young ladies have accepted positions as teachers in the Carnegie public schools.

The Time Is Short.

The question of the hour is, are you in the market for the best line of clothing in America? We must sell this stock at some low price. We have a customer for our stock when reduced to a certain point.

We are nearing that point very rapidly therefore, we say again the time is short, and if you are needing a spring suit, now is your opportunity to purchase at less price than manufacturer's price. Remember all is for sale, stock, fixtures and lease. All must go quickly at some price, as we are positively retiring from the business, and anxious to do so as quickly as possible. We say you can get prices of us that no firm in the state of Ohio can offer. Don't delay. This is an important matter for, you.

Mothers, bring your boys. Buy Suits for them at lowest prices ever named in the city.

See our stock of Hats and Furnishings.

GEO. C. MURPHY

One Price Clothier, Hatter
and Furnisher.

WILD WITH ANGER

Farmers of Tolbert's Run Ready
For Lynching

IF THEY FIND THE BIG BRUTE

Who Assaulted and Almost Killed Mrs. Warren at Her Home a Few Miles From Toronto—A Cumberland Man Suspected and the Poor Woman Will Be Given an Opportunity to Identify Him Tonight.

TORONTO, July 31.—[Special]—The people of Hancock county opposite this place and two miles from the river are today, scouring the country in search of a man who assaulted and almost killed Mrs. Warren, the wife of a well-to-do farmer of that section. If the man is found he will be hanged to the nearest tree.

Warren left his home yesterday morning, and went to work in a field not far from the house. Mrs. Warren finished her household work, and went to the chicken coop for the purpose of setting a hen. She had been there but a short time when a man approached and inquired if her husband was at home. She answered that he was not, and he attacked her. Catching her in his arms, he forced her to the ground, and, in spite of her struggles, accomplished his foul purpose.

The poor woman was rendered unconscious by the brutal assault, but not before she had fought hard for her honor. When the fiend found his work was done he picked up the poor, inanimate being and threw her over a high board fence. She fell upon a pile of rocks and lay there as one dead.

Some time afterward, how long Mrs. Warren does not know, she recovered consciousness and dragged herself to the house where she again lost consciousness. When her husband returned he found her in an awful condition, and between hysterical sobs she told him what had occurred. He at once gave the alarm, and summoning a physician found that his wife had been dangerously hurt, and might die before night. This intelligence made the man desperate, and he sworn that if the fiend was found he would kill him on sight.

Meantime the news had spread through the entire neighborhood. Mrs. Warren was delicious the greater part of the time, but she succeeded in telling them that the man was large, stout and wore a heavy mustache. He had on rough clothes and a broad brimmed hat, but did not appear to be a farmer. Mrs. Warren's aunt had called at the house a few minutes before the assault, and says she met a man going in that direction as she was on her way home. He carried a shot gun and a dog trotted at his heels. As the description coincides with that of Mrs. Warren it is believed he is the man.

The authorities had not long been notified when the people began to gather, and it was decided to start out at once in search of the man. One strong party was organized to go over the immediate neighborhood and a number of smaller parties scoured the country for miles around. They are at this writing still hunting for the man, and if he is found there will be no preliminaries. The man will be strung up to the nearest tree.

It is stated here and in Cumberland that the people did not hesitate to declare their intention. They were wild with anger, and the greatest excitement prevailed. One man who advised moderation was informed that the laws of West Virginia did not provide sufficient punishment for a crime so heinous.

During the whole of yesterday afternoon Mrs. Warren was so near death that it was feared she would not survive. The shock almost dethroned her reason, and she suffered severely bodily injury. When the brute threw her over the fence her head struck a stone, and the wound added to her pain. Last night her condition had not improved, and it was feared this morning that murder would be added to the unknown's crime.

GEORGE MAYHEW'S SISTER.

She Is Well Known to Many People in This City.

Mrs. Warren, who was assaulted at her home at Tolbert's run, near New Cumberland, yesterday, is the sister of George Mayhew, who is in the grocery business at the corner of Fourth and Washington streets.

She was a resident of Toronto for some time, and has one daughter aged four years. Mrs. Warren has been delicate for several years, and is a small woman. She could not have offered much resistance. Although Mrs. War-

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

Celebrated for its great leavening strength and healthfulness. Assures the food against alumn and all forms of adulterations common to the cheap brands.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., New York.

ren never resided here she has a number of friends in the city.

When Mayhew heard of the assault he made every effort to obtain the particulars, but the information was meager. He was confident, however, that the man would be lynched if the people caught him.

THE POLICE NOTIFIED

To Watch For the Brute From Tolbert's Run.

The authorities here were notified today to keep a sharp lookout for the man who had assaulted Mrs. Warren at Tolbert's run. The description given was the same as that sent out this morning from Toronto. The man has not been seen around the city, and it is not believed that he will come this way. He would avoid places of this kind knowing that the authorities would be watching for him.

SHE WILL RECOVER.

Mrs. Warren Is Much Better This Afternoon.

TORONTO, July 31.—[Special]—Word reached here this afternoon from the Warren home which says that Mrs. Warren is much better and will likely recover. She has regained consciousness and talks rationally. Although the country has been gone over by bands of well armed men, they have not found the individual they sought.

It is said here that there were no less than five ropes in the party when they started in search of the man.

UNDER SUSPICION.

A Cumberland Man Who May Be Arrested.

NEW CUMBERLAND, July 31.—[Special]—The assault upon Mrs. Howard Warren created the wildest excitement in the vicinity of Tolbert's run, and had the man been found he would have been lynched. The hunt was abandoned when it was found she would not die, and the authorities here took up the chase. Suspicion rested on a man who was out of town when the crime was committed. He is a workman. He will be taken before Mrs. Warren this evening, and if she can identify him Sheriff Wilkins will lock him up, and he will be held to answer for the crime.

LATER—It has been deemed wise to have Mrs. Warren brought to town for the purpose of seeing the man, and if she can leave her home that course will be followed.

Bought a Good Horse.

Billy Davidson and George Rowe yesterday afternoon purchased Conner, the black gelding owned by J. R. Gillehay, of Danville, Ky., which won the free for all pace at McKee's Rocks yesterday making two of the three heats in 2:11¼ and 2:11¾. The animal will be sent around the circuit and will not arrive in this city before Oct. 1.

Broke a Church Window.

While a crowd of boys were playing in Fourth street, this morning, one of them threw a stone which broke one of the large windows on the Fourth street side of the First Presbyterian church. Officers McMillan and Terrence were put on the case, but at a late hour had not arrested the boys.

Appraising Property.

Sheriff Gill and Deputy Bick are in town today appraising lot 368, which will be sold to satisfy a judgment recently rendered in the case of R. M. Burns against Hiram C. Rigby. It will be sold in three tracts.

75c and $1 straw hats reduced to 50c at the Buckeye Clothing House.

PREPARING THE SCALE

Manufacturers Are Hard at Work.

MEETING HELD LAST NIGHT

An Effort Is Being Made to Reach a Decision That Will Provide For the Payment of the Same Price For the Same Ware In Every Pottery—Much Interest Shown.

The manufacturers of the city are hard at work preparing the wage scale, and when it is completed it is believed that every pottery in town will be prepared to pay the same price for the same ware.

A meeting was held last night in the rooms of the old white granite association in the Laughlin building, and some progress made. It is the intention of the manufacturers to collect all the information possible and from it evolve a list which will be uniform, that is every pottery will pay the same price for making the same ware. The task, it is acknowledged, is a difficult one, and many changes must of necessity be made, but they are slight in the majority of cases. The work is progressing in a satisfactory manner and will be completed in a short time.

LARGE CARGOES OF GRAIN.

Many Vessels Chartered to Convey Them to Europe.

PHILADELPHIA, July 31.—Forty steamers have been chartered to load cargoes of grain at Philadelphia, New York, Baltimore and Newport News, Va., for ports in the United Kingdom and Europe, making a day's record, which, it is claimed, has never been equalled.

To fill these vessels will require over 4,000,000 bushels of grain. During the past two weeks fixtures for steam tonnage to carry over 20,000,000 bushels of cereals abroad have been effected.

A London Preacher Heard.

NORTHFIELD, Mass., July 31.—At the session of the general conference of Christian workers Mr. Moody introduced Rev. G. Campbell Morgan of London. Mr. Morgan is a very earnest and thoughtful speaker. His sermon seemed to make an impression on his hearers.

Threw the Baby to the Hogs.

OZARK, Ark., July 31.—Lee David son has been arrested here. It is said he threw his wife's baby into a hog pen and it was devoured by swine.

Saw the Stars.

Thomas Bott pleasantly entertained a party of young people at his observatory in West End last evening.

Dancing.

Dancing at Rock Spring park tonight. Last appearance of Nowling's full orchestra.

Tandems and bicycles for rent at W. O. Hamilton's.

PERSONAL MENTION.

—Mrs. Elmer Walters, of Wheeling, is this city.

—Miss Alice Goodwin spent the day in Pittsburg.

—Miss Sophia Stout returned to her home in Bellaire today.

—Miss Laura Crawford returned from Eagle Lake this morning.

—Jethro Freeman, of Smithsdale, Pa., is the guest of his mother in Grant street.

—Miss Maggie Crawford returned home this morning from a lengthy stay in Idaho.

—George Gardner returned to the city this morning after an extended visit in Richmond.

—C. C. Thompson came in from Chautauqua, yesterday, to look after some business affairs.

—J. R. Anderson, wife and family, of Pittsburg, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Wilson.

—The Misses Fenstermacher, of Philadelphia, Pa., are guests of the Misses Metz, of fifth street.

—Mrs. Laughlin and son Allan, of near Rogers, spent last evening with friends in the city.

—Dick Thompson and sister, Miss Anna, and Miss Crable returned from Kensington yesterday afternoon.

—Miss Maggie House and Miss Emma King left this afternoon for Pittsburg, where they will spend Sunday with friends.

—Jack Harris, of Pittsburg, is in the city and will spend Sunday with his parents here. Mr. Harris has been ill, but is now much better.

—Mrs. Charles Webster will leave this evening for her home in Louisville, Ky., after a visit of a month with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Adams.

—Miss Hobbs, of Fairview, is the guest of Miss Dora Andrews, Seventh street. The young ladies have accepted positions as teachers in the Carnegie public schools.

The Time Is Short.

The question of the hour is, are you in the market for the best line of clothing in America? We must sell this stock at some low price. We have a customer for our stock when reduced to a certain point.

We are nearing that point very rapidly therefore, we say again the time is short, and if you are needing a spring suit, now is your opportunity to purchase at less price than manufacturer's price. Remember all is for sale, stock, fixtures and lease. All must go quickly at some price, as we are positively retiring from the business, and anxious to do so as quickly as possible. We say you can get prices of us that no firm in the state of Ohio can offer. Don't delay. This is an important matter for you.

Mothers, bring your boys. Buy Suits for them at lowest prices ever named in the city.

See our stock of Hats and Furnishings.

GEO. C. MURPHY

One Price Clothier, Hatter
and Furnisher.

GAINED FOUR INCHES

No Danger From Heat For the Big Bridge.

PLENTY OF ROOM TO EXPAND

The Work Was a Ticklish Job and Required a Knowledge of Bridge Engineering—The Truss Will Be Straightened Next Week.

After next week the truss of the bridge will not only be as strong as the day it was completed, but it will look just as well as at any time during its brief existence, for the kinks caused by the heat of a few weeks ago will have been taken out.

The work of making the structure as good as new has of necessity been slow. When the truss was weakened by the expansion the weight fell on the cables and there it remained for some time. Supports made of heavy timbers were placed under the floor at each tower, and workmen of experience began to chisel a passage way for the heavy truss should the thermometer ever again show the 145 degrees or more, which it is believed would have been registered that hot Sunday afternoon a short time ago. By this means four inches were gained, and abundant room was thereby provided for any emergency in the future. Only a temperature such as we never have in this part of the world will again cause the truss to bend.

The work has been done, with the exception of straightening that particular part of the truss affected by the expansion, and this will be hammered into place next week. It has been a delicate task throughout.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

This Name Gave the Carrier Flirtation of the Heart.

There came a letter to East Liverpool the other evening. Letters often come to East Liverpool. But this particular letter is worthy of especial note on account of the name and address inscribed thereon, as follows: "Miss Jerooswhiz Dusenberry Snooks, No. 185 Fifth street, East Liverpool, Columbiana county, Ohio." Inquiry develops the fact that Miss Snooks is the daughter of Methusaleh Melchizadek Aminadab Snooks, of East Brady, Pa., and is the heiress of her father's estate. The names, sur. and given, have been patented, and any infringement thereon will result in disaster to the offender.

Lost His Bicycle.

A well-known resident spent an hour hunting for his bicycle last night before he remembered that he had dismounted in front of a drug store, paid for a soda, and then walked up town as though he is not one of the most enthusiastic and at once the most absent minded man in town.

Robbed a Camp.

Peter Quinn, an 18-year-old boy, was arrested near East Palestine charged with robbing the camp of a Leetonia party at Shelton's. He was bound over to court. In the camping party were Irwin Dunlap, of this place, and the Misses Adam, formerly, of this city.

More Weeds Go Down.

Commissioner Finley's force destroyed the crop of weeds in Robinson street, this morning. The policy of the commissioner in looking so carefully after this one matter is being universally commended.

A Big Pay.

Next Saturday will be pay day for the Cleveland and Pittsburgh employes in this city. It is said the pay roll of this station will be larger for the month ending this evening than it has been this year.

Going to Africa.

Elmer Collins and Edward Patterson completed arrangements yesterday whereby they expect to leave for the southern part of Africa about Jan. 15. Several other men may go with them.

An Old Engine.

Fort Wayne engine, No. 203, was pulling the early Cleveland train this morning. The engine was of the old style and the regulars around the station gave it a good look as it passed them.

Establishing Agencies.

John F. Kelly, representing the New York Journal, is in the city. He is establishing agencies through Ohio, and it is needless to say he is accomplishing much work.

Balbriggan underwear for men at 19c and 45c at the Buckeye Clothing House.

A New New England.

The trolley roads, says Alvan F. Sanborn in The Atlantic, are rapidly covering Massachusetts, Rhode Island and Connecticut with a network that is slowly and surely redistributing the population. It seems almost inevitable that a great part of the present rural area of these three states will ultimately be included in the suburbs of their numerous and widely scattered industrial centers and of their dozen or more larger cities. When this condition arrives, if it does arrive, rural life will have become suburban, and farming, aside from market gardening, will have practically disappeared. The bicycle and good roads are exerting a minor but considerable influence in the same direction.

Equally important is the fact that large areas in all sections of New England are in process of transformation from farms to sites of country seats. Residents of the cities are coming more and more to make their real homes in the country. They are building their country houses with more comfort and more solidity, and are living in them a much larger part of the year than formerly. The country season extends already from the 1st of May to the 1st of November and is still lengthening. Improved railway and steamboat transportation, the multiplication of large fortunes, greater leisure, above all a growing appreciation of the sports and resources of country life, have contributed to this result. It looks very much as if our urban society were attaching itself primarily to the land—living on the land and leaving it for the city only in the festive season. Whether this tendency will produce again a landed aristocracy instead of an aristocracy of other forms of wealth who can say? One thing only is sure—it would produce thereby a new New England.

Bronzing.

The following method is recommended for bronzing objects of copper, for example, medals: Dissolve 2 parts of verdigris (acetate of copper) and 1 part of sal ammoniac in vinegar. Boil the solution, skim it and dilute with water until it no longer possesses a feebly metallic smell nor produces a whitish precipitate on the addition of water. Then let it boil again in an earthenware or porcelain vessel and transfer it while boiling into another vessel containing the perfectly clean medals, etc., and place the whole on the fire. As soon as the medals assume the required color remove them and wash carefully in clean water. The objects must not be left too long in the acid bath over the fire, because the layer of oxide would become too thick and would easily scale off the surface, whereas, if the operation is properly conducted, the coating adheres so firmly that it cannot be separated even by scraping.

Of course, it is only after a certain number of trials and with experience that the exact moment can be ascertained for removing the objects from the bath. It is very necessary that the bath be not too concentrated, as the superficial oxide becomes proportionately less adherent. Moreover, a whitish powder is deposited on the medal, which turns green on exposure to the air and spoils the appearance of the bronzing. —Jewelers' Circular.

How He Made a Saving.

"That mine in Tuolumne county is costing me a mint of money," said a local capitalist to one of his employees. "I wish you would figure around and see if you can't make a saving somewhere. If you can, I'll raise your salary $50 a month."

"But suppose I can't make a saving of $50 a month?" inquired the young man.

"Well, I've tried to figure it out myself, and I can't find where I can save a cent. If you can, you are worth $50 a month more."

"All right, sir. I'll look into it." The young man went over all the accounts, but he could not find where he could cut down a single expense. Finally it occurred to him that he was drawing $25 a month for acting as secretary of the mining company.

"I've found a place where you can save $25 a month," he informed his employer the next day. "I've cut off that salary of $25 a month we've been paying the secretary for doing nothing." He got his raise. —San Francisco Post.

Pretty Names For Books.

The following are some of the curious titles of old English books: "A Most Delectable Sweet Perfumed Nosegay For God's Saints to Smell At." "Biscuit Baked In the Oven of Charity, Carefully Conserved For the Chickens of the Church, the Sparrows of the Spirit and the Sweet Swallows of Salvation."

"A Sigh of Sorrow For the Sinners of Zion Breathed Out of a Hole In the Wall of an Earthly Vessel Known Among Men by the Name of Samuel Fish" (a Quaker who had been imprisoned).

"Eggs of Charity Layed For the Chickens of the Covenant and Boiled With the Water of Divine Love. Take Ye Out and Eat."

"The Spiritual Mustard Pot to Make the Soul Sneeze with Devotion." Most of these were published in the time of Cromwell. —St. Nicholas.

The voyage between New York and Christiania is 3,800 knots in length.

FOR LITTLE FOLKS.

LILLIAN AND THE WASP.

The Pain Caused by a Stone a Cruel Boy Threw at a Bird.

This is Lillian Green—a sweet, fat little dimple face that is just as good as it can be. As you see her now is just the way she was yesterday out in the sun, after she had been stung by yellow wasps. Her mother had told her that she could go out in the hayfield and play, where her father and the men were mowing. This was after the dew was off the grass. And so out went our little girl, chasing robins and blackbirds and butterflies that were so tame, where the men were cutting the grass.

"Don't go near that round place that is not mowed, little dear," said one of the men, "for there is a yellow wasp's nest right in the center of it."

Now, Lillian Green is one of the best little girls to mind that you ever saw. But of course all little girls 5 years old are apt to forget, and so when a poor chip bird fell off a tree with a broken wing, caused by a bad boy who flung a stone, Lillian ran for it. The poor bird screeched her little screech of pain and ran along on the mowed ground, and Lillian after it, until it led the little girl right into that awful wasp's nest. And then, oh, such screaming, you could have heard it if you had been within a quarter of a mile of the place. Lillian's mother heard it and ran out of the house in no time and rubbed her little girl's legs and face with wet salt. This stopped the pain, and Lillian was then put on the old settee under the grapevine, and she went to sleep. But that bad boy that was the cause of it all went home unpunished, and never thought that it was his own wickedness, in breaking that poor bird's wing, that caused even more pain afterward. That is the way one bad act always leads to another, or, as in our little Lillian Green's case, one cruel stone flung at a bird may cause a sting in the face of a little girl. —Ellen Ring in Bouquet.

The Puppy's Lament.

I'm a prisoner hard in a city back yard. I like it never a whit. 'Tis a burning shame, and the folks to blame Shall repent it—after a bit.

They pat my head; I've a good, soft bed, Plenty of dinner to eat, But they don't let me go, and I'd like to know Isn't liberty better than meat?

I race and chase every side of the place In vain attempts to get out, And all around I dig holes in the ground When the grass is beginning to sprout.

I chew flower roots and the tender shoots When the plants and shrubs come up. I've torn all the clothes—ah, the laundress knows 'Tis wrong to imprison a pup!

There's a loud complaint that I've scratched the paint And loosened the boards away, So today I'll commence to pull down the fence And hear what the folks will say.

When the yard's as flat as a wornout hat And I've chilled their souls with fear, Then those to blame for this cruel shame Will regret that they brought me here. —Eva Lovett in Independent.

Poor Boy, He Couldn't.

Nurse (to Master Todd, who had soiled his clothes)—You bad, bad boy, where have you been?

Master Todd (holding out his hands innocently)—Maten mud pies, nurse.

Nurse (wiping his hands)—Your hat is dirty too. What am I to do with such a boy? Look at the top of your head.

But the last request was not complied with. —Golden Days.

Willie Tells About the Giraffe.

The children had written compositions on the giraffe. They were reading them aloud to the class. At last the time came for little Willie Doran to read his. It was as follows:

"The giraffe is a dumb animal and cannot express itself by any sound, because its neck is so long its voice gets tired on its way to its mouth." —Chicago Record.

A Striking Story.

"Papa," asked Tommie, "is it cowardly to strike something littler than you that can't defend itself?"

"It is indeed," replied the father. "Well, I don't know," reflected Tommie. "I don't see how we could light the gas without striking a match."

HOW MANY VOTES

will the successful candidate for Governor of Ohio receive on election day, November 2d, 1897? We will give

$5,000

in Prizes

to the users of our popular brands—

Jersey and O.R. Brands

of Standard and High Grade

ROASTED COFFEE

who guess nearest to the correct answer.

To the party who sends us the correct number of votes received by the successful candidate, or the nearest thereto, we will give $100 in cash, to the next nearest $100 in cash, to the next nearest $100 in cash, to the next nearest $100 in cash, to the next nearest $50 in cash, to the next nearest $50 in cash, and numerous other gifts amounting in all to $5,000.

CONDITIONS:

All guesses must be received not later than the evening of November 1st, 1897.

Each guesser must send in ten trade marks (cow and calf) cut from front of wrapper on Jersey Brand, or ten certificates from "O.R." Coffee.

Full particulars and slip for guessing will be found in each package of Jersey or O.R. coffee. No restriction as to where you live or how many times you guess.

Mail your guesses direct to

Dayton Spice Mills Co., Dayton, O.

SPECIAL OFFER. Cut out this adv. and send to us with a trade mark or a certificate with name of newspaper and your guess will be entered.

Model Livery and Fine Undertaking.

LIVERY—The finest livery in the city. First-class roadsters and splendid vehicles. Prices reasonable. Courteous treatment to one and all. Feed and sale stable attached.

UNDERTAKING—This special feature is given cloce attention. All orders will be met promptly. You will find that it will pay you to patronize the fine establishment of

John Rinehart,

179 to 183,

Second Street.

The First National Bank

OF EAST LIVERPOOL, O.

DAVID BOYCE, President.
J. M. KELLY, Vice President.
N. G. MACRUM, Cashier.
H. H. BLYTHE, Assistant Cashier.

Board of Directors:
David Boyce. W. L. Thompson.
J. M. Kelly. O. C. Vodrey.
Robert Hall. B. C. Simms.
John C. Thompson.

Capital.....$100,000
Surplus and Earnings..... 50,000

GENERAL BANKING BUSINESS

Invite Business and Personal Accounts

Safety Deposit Boxes for Rent.

193 Washington Street.

THE NEWS REVIEW PRESS.

Finest Print Shop IN EASTERN OHIO

We Print Everything

From an Election Sticker

to a

3-Sheet Poster.

HIGH GRADE COLOR PRINTING, ART CATALOGUES, EMBOSSING, HALF TONE WORK IM. LITHOGRAPHY IM. TYPE WRITER, &c, &c, &c.

WE AIM TO DO CAREFUL, CORRECT PRINTING; TO MAKE SOMETHING ATTRACTIVE.

OUR WORK EMBRACES CARDS, LETTER HEADS, INVOICE SHEETS, INVITATIONS, FOLDERS, CIRCULARS, BILLS, &c.

Book Work.

No matter what the size or class of job, with our facilities we can compete with the world in quality of work and price.

Our Type.

Customers may have the benefit of a large assortment of borders, ornaments, initials, etc. Every new face of type patented always finds room in our job department. None but first-class printers are employed, which means the best possible results obtainable from the material.

Our Presses.

The "Century" Pony for high grade book and half tone work (finest machine manufactured). Improved Gordons for commercial work, and a large Babcock for poster printing; presided over by a pressman late in charge of the finest presses in one of the largest printing houses in the world.

In a Nut Shell

High Wages, Fine Equipment, Artistic Workmen Tells the Story.

THE NEWS REVIEW PRESS.

GAINED FOUR INCHES

No Danger From Heat For the Big Bridge.

PLENTY OF ROOM TO EXPAND

The Work Was a Ticklish Job and Required a Knowledge of Bridge Engineering—The Truss Will Be Straightened Next Week.

After next week the truss of the bridge will not only be as strong as the day it was completed, but it will look just as well as at any time during its brief existence, for the kinks caused by the heat of a few weeks ago will have been taken out.

The work of making the structure as good as new has of necessity been slow. When the truss was weakened by the expansion the weight fell on the cables and there it remained for some time. Supports made of heavy timbers were placed under the floor at each tower, and workmen of experience began to chisel a passage way for the heavy truss should the thermometer ever again show the 145 degrees or more, which it is believed would have been registered that hot Sunday afternoon a short time ago. By this means four inches were gained, and abundant room was thereby provided for any emergency in the future. Only a temperance such as we never have in this part of the world will again cause the truss to bend.

The work has been done, with the exception of straightening that particular part of the truss affected by the expansion, and this will be hammered into place next week. It has been a delicate task throughout.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

This Name Gave the Carrier Flirtation of the Heart.

There came a letter to East Liverpool the other evening. Letters often come to East Liverpool. But this particular letter is worthy of especial note on account of the name and address inscribed thereon, as follows: "Miss Jerooswhiz Dusenberry Snooks, No. 185 Fifth street, East Liverpool, Columbiana county, Ohio." Inquiry develops the fact that Miss Snooks is the daughter of Methusalem Melchizidek Aminadab Snooks, of East Brady, Pa., and is the heiress of her father's estate. The names, sur. and given, have been patented, and any infringement thereon will result in disaster to the offender.

Lost His Bicycle.

A well-known resident spent an hour hunting for his bicycle last night before he remembered that he had dismounted in front of a drug store, paid for a soda, and then walked up town as though he is not one of the most enthusiastic and at once the most absent minded man in town.

Robbed a Camp.

Peter Quinn, an 18-year-old boy, was arrested near East Palestine charged with robbing the camp of a Leetonia party at Shelton's. He was bound over to court. In the camping party were Irwin Dunlap, of this place, and the Misses Adam, formerly, of this city.

More Weeds Go Down.

Commissioner Finley's force destroyed the crop of weeds in Robinson street, this morning. The policy of the commissioner in looking so carefully after this one matter is being universally commended.

A Big Pay.

Next Saturday will be pay day for the Cleveland and Pittsburgh employes in this city. It is said the pay roll of this station will be larger for the month ending this evening than it has been this year.

Going to Africa.

Elmer Collins and Edward Patterson completed arrangements yesterday whereby they expect to leave for the southern part of Africa about Jan. 15. Several other men may go with them.

An Old Engine.

Fort Wayne engine, No. 203, was pulling the early Cleveland train this morning. The engine was of the old style and the regulars around the station gave it a good look as it passed them.

Establishing Agencies.

John F. Kelly, representing the New York Journal, is in the city. He is establishing agencies through Ohio, and it is needless to say he is accomplishing much work.

Balbriggan underwear for men at 19c and 45c at the Buckeye Clothing House.

A New New England.

The trolley roads, says Alvan F. Sanborn in The Atlantic, are rapidly covering Massachusetts, Rhode Island and Connecticut with a network that is slowly and surely redistributing the population. It seems almost inevitable that a great part of the present rural area of these three states will ultimately be included in the suburbs of their numerous and widely scattered industrial centers and of their dozen or more larger cities. When this condition arrives, if it does arrive, rural life will have become suburban, and farming, aside from market gardening, will have practically disappeared. The bicycle and good roads are exerting a minor but considerable influence in the same direction.

Equally important is the fact that large areas in all sections of New England are in process of transformation from farms to sites of country seats. Residents of the cities are coming more and more to make their real homes in the country. They are building their country houses with more comfort and more solidity, and are living in them a much larger part of the year than formerly. The country season extends already from the 1st of May to the 1st of November and is still lengthening. Improved railway and steamboat transportation, the multiplication of large fortunes, greater leisure, above all a growing appreciation of the sports and resources of country life, have contributed to this result. It looks very much as if our urban society were attaching itself primarily to the land—living on the land and leaving it for the city only in the festive season. Whether this tendency will produce again a landed aristocracy instead of an aristocracy of other forms of wealth who can say? One thing only is sure—it would produce thereby a new New England.

Bronzing.

The following method is recommended for bronzing objects of copper, for example, medals: Dissolve 2 parts of verdigris (acetate of copper) and 1 part of sal ammoniac in vinegar. Boil the solution, skim it and dilute with water until it no longer possesses a feebly metallic smell nor produces a whitish precipitate on the addition of water. Then let it boil again in an earthenware or porcelain vessel and transfer it while boiling into another vessel containing the perfectly clean medals, etc., and place the whole on the fire. As soon as the medals assume the required color remove them and wash carefully in clean water. The objects must not be left too long in the acid bath over the fire, because the layer of oxide would become too thick and would easily scale off the surface, whereas, if the operation is properly conducted, the coating adheres so firmly that it cannot be separated even by scraping.

Of course, it is only after a certain number of trials and with experience that the exact moment can be ascertained for removing the objects from the bath. It is very necessary that the bath be not too concentrated, as the superficial oxide becomes proportionately less adherent. Moreover, a whitish powder is deposited on the medal, which turns green on exposure to the air and spoils the appearance of the bronzing. —Jewelers' Circular.

How He Made a Saving.

"That mine in Tuolumne county is costing me a mint of money," said a local capitalist to one of his employees. "I wish you would figure around and see if you can't make a saving somewhere. If you can, I'll raise your salary $50 a month."

"But suppose I can't make a saving of $50 a month?" inquired the young man.

"Well, I've tried to figure it out myself, and I can't find where I can save a cent. If you can, you are worth $50 a month more."

"All right, sir. I'll look into it."

The young man went over all the accounts, but he could not find where he could cut down a single expense. Finally it occurred to him that he was drawing $25 a month for acting as secretary of the mining company.

"I've found a place where you can save $25 a month," he informed his employer the next day. "I've cut off that salary of $25 a month we've been paying the secretary for doing nothing."

He got his raise. —San Francisco Post.

Pretty Names For Books.

The following are some of the curious titles of old English books:

"A Most Delectable Sweet Perfumed Nosesay For God's Saints to Smell At."

"Biscuit Baked In the Oven of Charity, Carefully Conserved For the Chickens of the Church, the Sparrows of the Spirit and the Sweet Swallows of Salvation."

"A Sigh of Sorrow For the Sinners of Zion Breathed Out of a Hole In the Wall of an Earthly Vessel Known Among Men by the Name of Samuel Fish" (a Quaker who had been imprisoned).

"Eggs of Charity Layed For the Chickens of the Covenant and Boiled With the Water of Divine Love. Take Ye Out and Eat."

"The Spiritual Mustard Pot to Make the Soul Sneez with Devotion."

Most of these were published in the time of Cromwell. —St. Nicholas.

The voyage between New York and Christania is 3,800 knots in length.

FOR LITTLE FOLKS.

LILLIAN AND THE WASP.

The Pain Caused by a Stone a Cruel Boy Threw at a Bird.

This is Lillian Green—a sweet, fat little dimple face that is just as good as it can be. As you see her now is just the way she was yesterday out in the sun, after she had been stung by yellow wasps. Her mother had told her that she could go out in the hayfield and play, where her father and the men were mowing. This was after the dew was off the grass. And so out went our little girl, chasing robins and black-birds and butterflies that were so tame, where the men were cutting the grass.

"Don't go near that round place that is not mowed, little dear," said one of the men, "for there is a yellow wasp's nest right in the center of it."

Now, Lillian Green is one of the best little girls to mind that you ever saw. But of course all little girls 5 years old are apt to forget, and so when a poor chip bird fell off a tree with a broken wing, caused by a bad boy who flung a stone, Lillian ran for it. The poor bird screeched her little screech of pain and ran along on the mowed ground, and Lillian after it, until it led the little girl right into that awful wasps' nest. And then, oh, such screaming, you could have heard it if you had been within a quarter of a mile of the place. Lillian's mother heard it and ran out of the house in no time and rubbed her little girl's legs and face with wet salt. This stopped the pain, and Lillian was then put on the old settee under the grapevine, and she went to sleep. But that bad boy that was the cause of it all went home unpunished, and never thought that it was his own wickedness, in breaking that poor bird's wing, that caused even more pain afterward. That is the way one bad act always leads to another, or, as in our little Lillian Green's case, one cruel stone flung at a bird may cause a sting in the face of a little girl.—Ellen Ring in Bouquet.

The Puppy's Lament.

I'm a prisoner hard in a city back yard. I like it never a whit. 'Tis a burning shame, and the folks to blame Shall repent it—after a bit.

They pat my head; I've a good, soft bed, Plenty of dinner to eat, But they don't let me go, and I'd like to know Isn't liberty better than meat?

I race and chase every side of the place In vain attempts to get out, And all around I dig holes in the ground When the grass is beginning to sprout.

I chew flower roots and the tender shoots When the plants and shrubs come up. I've torn all the clothes—ah, the laundress knows 'Tis wrong to imprison a pup!

There's a loud complaint that I've scratched the paint And loosened the boards away, So today I'll commence to pull down the fence And hear what the folks will say.

When the yard's as flat as a wornout hat And I've chilled their souls with fear, Then those to blame for this cruel shame Will regret that they brought me here. —Eva Lovett in Independent.

Poor Boy, He Couldn't.

Nurse (to Master Todd, who had soiled his clothes)—You bad, bad boy, where have you been?

Master Todd (holding out his hands innocently)—Maten mud pies, nursey.

Nurse (wiping his hands)—Your hat is dirty too. What am I to do with such a boy? Look at the top of your head.

But the last request was not complied with.—Golden Days.

Willie Tells About the Giraffe.

The children had written compositions on the giraffe. They were reading them aloud to the class. At last the time came for little Willie Doran to read his. It was as follows:

"The giraffe is a dumb animal and cannot express itself by any sound, because its neck is so long its voice gets tired on its way to its mouth."—Chicago Record.

A Striking Story.

"Papa," asked Tommie, "is it cowardly to strike something littler than you that can't defend itself?"

"It is indeed," replied the father.

"Well, I don't know," reflected Tommie. "I don't see how we could light the gas without striking a match."

HOW MANY VOTES

will the successful candidate for Governor of Ohio receive on election day, November 2d, 1897? We will give

$5,000

in Prizes

to the users of our popular brands—

Jersey and O.R. Brands

of Standard and High Grade

ROASTED COFFEE

who guess nearest to the correct answer.

To the party who sends us the correct number of votes received by the successful candidate, or the nearest thereto, we will give $100 in cash, to the next nearest $100 in cash, to the next nearest $100 in cash, to the next nearest $50 in cash, to the next nearest $50 in cash, and numerous other gifts amounting in all to $5,000.

CONDITIONS:

All guesses must be received not later than the evening of November 1st, 1897.

Each guesser must send in ten trade marks (cow and calf) cut from front of wrapper on Jersey Brand, or ten certificates from "O.R." Coffee.

Full particulars and slip for guessing will be found in each package of Jersey or O.R. coffee. No restriction as to where you live or how many times you guess.

Mail your guesses direct to

Dayton Spice Mills Co., Dayton, O.

SPECIAL OFFER. Cut out this adv. and send to us with 2 trade marks or 2 certificates with name of newspaper and your guess will be entered.

Model Livery and Fine Undertaking.

LIVERY—The finest livery in the city. First-class roadsters and splendid vehicles. Prices reasonable. Courteous treatment to one and all. Feed and sale stable attached.

UNDERTAKING—This special feature is given cloce attention. All orders will be met promptly. You will find that it will pay you to patronize the fine establishment of

John Rinehart,

179 to 183,

Second Street.

The First National Bank

OF EAST LIVERPOOL, O.

DAVID BOYCE, President.
J. M. KELLY, Vice President.
N. G. MACRUM, Cashier.
H. H. BLYTHE, Assistant Cashier.

Board of Directors:
David Boyce, W. L. Thompson,
J. M. Kelly, O. C. Vodrey,
Robert Hall, B. C. Simms,
John C. Thompson.

Capital.....$100,000
Surplus and Earnings.....50,000

GENERAL BANKING BUSINESS

Invite Business and Personal Accounts

Safety Deposit Boxes for Rent.

193 Washington Street.

THE NEWS REVIEW PRESS.

Finest Print Shop IN EASTERN OHIO

We Print Everything

From an Election Sticker

to a

3-Sheet Poster.

HIGH GRADE COLOR PRINTING, ART CATALOGUES, EMBOSING, HALF TONE WORK, IM. LITHOGRAPHY, IM. TYPE WRITER, &c, &c, &c.

WE AIM TO DO CAREFUL, CORRECT PRINTING; TO MAKE SOMETHING ATTRACTIVE.

OUR WORK EMBRACES

CARDS, LETTER HEADS, INVOICE SHEETS, INVITATIONS, FOLDERS, CIRCULARS, BILLS, &c.

Book Work.

No matter what the size or class of job, with our facilities we can compete with the world in quality of work and price.

Our Type.

Customers may have the benefit of a large assortment of borders, ornaments, initials, etc. Every new face of type patented always finds room in our job department. None but first-class printers are employed, which means the best possible results obtainable from the material.

Our Presses.

The "Century" Pony for high grade book and half tone work (finest machine manufactured). Improved Gordons for commercial work, and a large Babcock for poster printing; presided over by a pressman late in charge of the finest presses in one of the largest printing houses in the world.

In a Nut Shell

High Wages, Fine Equipment, Artistic Workmen

Tells the Story.

THE NEWS REVIEW PRESS.

MERCER IN GOOD FORM

Carey Continues to Hit the Ball Regularly.

A GAME IN WELLSVILLE TODAY

East Liverpool Has a Good Team—Records of the Boys Who Are Away From Home—We Lost at Rock Spring Yesterday—Sporting News.

The East Liverpool team is this afternoon playing the Crescents of Wellsville at the fair grounds. The lineup: McNicol, short; G. Kennedy, second; Webber, first; Clark, third; Baxter, left; T. Kennedy, right; Davis, catcher; Albright, pitcher; Lynch, middle; McCarran, sub.

The game yesterday afternoon between the East Liverpool Leans and the West End Gyms, of Wellsville, resulted in a victory for the Wellsville boys by a score of 7 to 6. The batteries were Millwood and Webb; Alexander and Russell.

The Second street Maroons are today playing ball in Irondale.

George Carey continues to do good work for the Athletics, and in the last six games made ten hits, 47 putouts and three assists.

Alf Shaw is one of three players in the Syracuse team who has a batting average of over 300. He played but two games this week, and made one hit, nine putouts, three assists and one error.

John Daniels passed through the city yesterday afternoon enroute for Lawrenceville, where he will play ball with the Junctions. He says he will go from there to join the New Castle team.

The Washington correspondent of Sporting Life says: "Mercer, who is pitching the best kind of ball, won four of his six games, shutting out Pittsburg and St. Louis, and loosing a well pitched ten inning contest in Cincinnati. At this time last year Mercer was about gone. Not having been overworked during the first half of this season, he is now likely to do good work to the finish."

Winnie Mercer only lasted until the sixth inning yesterday against Baltimore and Swaim was substituted. During his league career Mercer has not won a game from Baltimore, and it looks as though he will not be able to break the hoodoo.

WOMAN'S RELIEF CORPS, TOO,

Invited to Take Part In the Township Line Picnic.

Because the Woman's Relief corps do not hold regular meetings until the first of next month, the committee from the Township Line club have sent them no formal invitation, but they, as well as all old soldiers and Sons of Veterans, are invited to be present. The arrangements this year will be much better than in former years, and an unusually good time is expected.

His First Pastorate.

Reverend Campbell, the gentleman who was installed pastor of the United Presbyterian church at Calcutta the other day, was in the city this morning accompanied by Doctor Leamon. The gentleman comes from West Sunbury, Pa., and graduated from the seminary last spring. His success is assured.

Excursion to Rock Point

Via Pennsylvania lines, Thursday, Aug. 5. Seventy-five cents round trip from Steubenville, Mingo and Toronto; 50 cents from East Liverpool and Wells-ville to Rock Point, account C. M. B. A. picnic. Ask Ticket Agent A. Hill about train service and other details.

NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given that the firm of William S. George, Jr., & Co., has been dissolved by mutual consent, and that all claims have been paid.

WM. S. GEORGE, JR., The Burford Bros., Pottery Co. East Liverpool, O., July 21, '97.

Not So Bad.

Farmers who feared a few weeks ago that they would lose much of the wheat crop because it was sprouting in the shock have no complaint at present. Much of the crop has been threshed and has proved so much better than was anticipated that they are satisfied.

Slowest of the Week.

Yesterday was the slowest day of the week at the freight station as only 89 cars were handled. Nine cars were unloaded while 17 cars were sent out.

An Early Opening.

The season at the Grand Opera House will open Saturday evening, Aug. 14, with Hi Henry's Minstrels.

All the news in the NEWS REVIEW.

HER LATEST HONOR.

Mrs. Charles Hazen Russell is Now an Alumnae Trustee of Wells College.

Mrs. Charles Hazen Russell has become the focal point of interest to the friends and patrons of Wells college. The culminating act which brings Mrs. Russell's name so prominently forward is her election by the alumnae as a trustee of the college. Mrs. Russell's career since her graduation from Wells as the valedictorian of her class has been marked by that steady intellectual growth and that expanding and deepening influence in society which make the college girl the ideal as well as the practical woman of today. Mrs. Russell was the first president of the Eastern Association of Wells College, a position subsequently held by Mrs. Cleveland and to which Mrs. Russell was re-elected four years ago, holding the office up to the present time. She devotes most of her spare time to literary work, and her translations from German romantic literature have appeared in print from time to time, although she has but little impulse to publish, and much of her best work is given to the literary societies of which she is a leading member.

MRS. CHARLES HAZEN RUSSELL.

Sorosis elected Mrs. Russell to membership in 1892 and soon after appointed her chairman of the committee on education. In this club, as in others, she has shown her talent for marshaling opponents in debate and setting the subject incisively before them. Her style is subtle in thought, but clear and convincing in expression.

Mrs. Russell founded the Portia club of Brooklyn and is still its president. This club is devoted to the careful study of the best literature. Kosmos club of Brooklyn claims her as an active member, and Chiropean, modeled after Sorosis, owes much to her influence and guidance.

Mrs. Russell was much interested in the Federation of Women's Clubs and is the representative in the federation of several societies. Among the honors lately paid her is an invitation to deliver in St. Lawrence university a course of lectures on English literature. This will probably be among her first duties in the fall, on her return from Europe, where she is spending the summer. Interested as Mrs. Russell appears in literary and club life, there is no place where she shines as effectively as in her own home, making the house of her husband, the Hon. Charles Hazen Russell, the center of a large and brilliant social circle and at the same time the most restful and comfortable of homes. It is the rounded and harmonious development of her nature in so many directions which makes Mrs. Russell a remarkable woman and fits her to be the representative and model of the college woman of today.—New York Times.

Healthy, Happy Children.

A woman whose four rosy, sun tanned children are the envy of her neighbors down on Long Island gives this recipe for health and peace of mind: "Buy enough of checked blue gingham to make each child half a dozen big aprons, not the little ornamental, useless sort, but great big envelopes, such as the French school children wear. Let them wear these all day long, and don't complain if they soil them. Dirt, and the kind that flowers flourish in and that vegetables thrive in, will not hurt the most delicate child living, but constant scolding about dirty clothes will wear out any child's nerves and spoil all his enjoyment. Also have a few loose sunbonnets on hand. Of course the boys won't wear them, but the girls are much better with this pretty, cool, light headgear, for it is a safeguard from sunstroke."—Exchange.

Firework Foulard.

"Firework" foulard, or foulard silk with a sort of lightning or firework effect over the colored surface, is the novelty of the moment. It is being worn on all occasions, and some of these gowns, with their sharply contrasted trimmings, are startling in their brilliancy. Then there are the grenadines and canvases and silk muslins, all worn over the very brightest colors, and yet the more expensive gowns are so skillfully managed that the lion and the lamb appear to lie down together in harmony. Even cerise, which resists all other colors, is made by the deft manipulation of the skilled fingers of the modiste to mingle its bright note melodiously with the rest.

The College Girl Graduate.

Edward W. Bok writes to the college girl graduate in The Ladies' Home Journal. "Whatever the necessities, her desires or ambitions," he says, "let her not forget that first of all she was designed by God to be a woman, to live her life in true womanliness, so that she may be an inspiration, a strength, a blessing, not necessarily to a world, but, what is infinitely better, to those within her immediate reach whose lives are touched by hers. Very few lives are free—free to go and come, travel, read, study, write, think, paint and sing at will. In the lives of most women these gifts are an aside in life, as it were, an underbreath. Most of us are beset with loving calls of toil, care, responsibility and quiet duties which we must recognize, heed and obey. We must love our mothers more than our Greek. If the instinct of daughter, sister, wife or mother dies out of a college bred woman, even in the course of a most brilliant career, the world will forget to love her; it will scorn her, and justly.

"If she does not make her surroundings homelike wherever she is, whether she be teacher, artist, musician, writer, daughter at home, or a mother in the household, and if she herself is not cheery and loving, dainty in dress, gentle in manner, and beautiful in soul, as every true woman ought to be, the world will feel that the one thing needful is lacking—vivid, tender womanliness, for which no knowledge, however profound, can ever compensate. It is better for a woman to fill a simple human part lovingly, better to be sympathetic in trouble, and to whisper a comforting message into but one grieving ear, than that she should make a path to Egypt and lecture to thousands on ancient Thebes."

An Interesting Controversy.

An interesting controversy was started recently by two women, each occupying a prominent position in her own section of society—namely, Miss Marie Corelli and Lady Jeune. Miss Corelli contends that the majority of girls in the better classes are not free agents in the choice of their husbands; that even if they, the girls themselves, are animated by the best sentiment—i. e., the idea that they should marry for love and for love only—their parents bring pressure to bear upon them in order to induce them to marry men of position instead of men of personal worth, and so forth. According to the novelist, unhappy unions are the result, in which woman becomes the sufferer and victim and man the tyrant, the evildoer and the torturer.

Lady Jeune, on the other hand, while admitting that this is the case now and again, maintains that as a rule girls are left free to choose, although the parents may suggest and advise, nay, often make it their special business to bring young men and women together, with a view to marriage, who under ordinary circumstances would never have dreamed of looking at one another. Lady Jeune does not say in so many words that the young women themselves are frequently tempted by the suitors' worldly standing rather than by their character, temperament and disposition, and that they are as much to blame for their failure in matrimony as their parents, and perhaps more.

A Dainty Poke Bonnet.

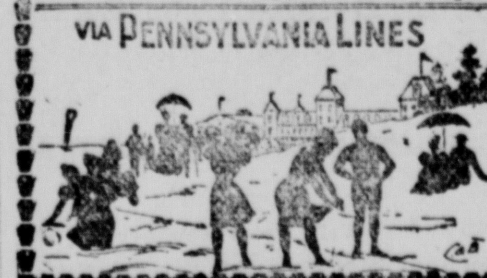

A very picturesque and dainty poke bonnet recently worn at a fashionable garden party up the Hudson was made of pale daffodil yellow tulle. The entire bonnet was shirred over fine gold wire, including the prim little drum crown. At the extreme edge of the flaring brim were set very closely together little pink button roses, with a cluster of the same flowers above the left ear and inside the brim. The bonnet was further decorated with filmy loops of the tulle, a buckle of French brilliants, long scarf ends of the airy material that were tied under the chin. This Frenchy creation was worn by a lady with brilliant color and large brown eyes. It made her look ten years older than her actual years. Nevertheless, it was most becoming and unique in effect. It had a decidedly Victorian "atmosphere," and was more noticed than any other of the costly and wonderful head coverings displayed on that occasion. The bonnet was very short above the ears, but the poke portion measured at least eight inches from where it met the crown to the extreme edge just in front.—New York Post.

Queen Wilhelmina.

Queen Wilhelmina of Holland will become of age next year, and plans are already formed for the coronation. It will take place in Amsterdam instead of at The Hague, although the latter city is the capital. The chief reason seems to be that the royal palace in Amsterdam is more commodious than the one at The Hague. The palace in Amsterdam is an imposing edifice which faces the busy square known as the Dam, in the heart of the town. Although it is nearly three centuries old, it has never been favored as a residence by the Dutch monarchs. While the coronation ceremonies may be monopolized by Amsterdam the queen will probably spend most of her time at The Hague, since the capital is the pleasantest city in Holland for a permanent residence, besides being the seat of the national parliament.

It will probably be years or another generation before cycling by women is countenanced in Spain.

SEASHORE EXCURSIONS

Low Rates For Vacation Trips and Outings Along the Ocean.

Round Trip From Steubenville Only $10.

General excursions to the seashore at exceptionally low rates will be inaugurated by the Pennsylvania lines this summer, offering a grand opportunity for delightful outings at the most popular ocean resorts on the continent. This announcement will be good news to persons who may desire to enjoy their vacations at the seaside. They may visit Atlantic City, Cape May, Avalon, Sea Isle City, Angelsea, Ocean City, Holly Beach or wildwood, at very low fare, round trip tickets to either resort being obtainable at the same rate.

The first excursion will be run Thursday, July 15, followed by others on July 59th, August 12 and 21. Round trip rates to either Atlantic City, Cape May, Avalon, Sea Island City, Angelsea, Ocean City, Wildwood or Holly Beach, New Jersey, will be $10 from Steubenville.

Excursion tickets will be good going on trains leaving Steubenville 4:24 a. m., 1:09 p. m., 2:15 p. m., and 4:08 p. m. The 4:45 a. m. train connects in Pittsburgh Union Station with a special train of parlor cars and coaches running through to Atlantic City via Delaware bridge route, arriving at Philadelphia at 6:25 p. m., Atlantic City, 8:55 p. m., making the run from Pittsburg to the seashore in 12 hours. Excursionists may spend the night in Philadelphia and proceed to the shore by any regular train the following day. The 4:08 p. m. train has sleeping cars from Steubenville to Philadelphia without change, and will connect in Pittsburg union station with Sleeping cars running through to Atlantic city.

The return limit will cover 12 days including date of sale, which will be ample for customary 10 days' vacation. For further desired information, apply to J. K. Dillon, D. P. A., Pittsburg, Pa., for particulars. Illustrated description of resorts to which excursion tickets will be sold, with list of hotels, and boarding houses at each, will be furnished upon application.

Low Rates.

Special reductions in fare over the Pennsylvania lines will be granted for numerous events to take place this summer in various parts of the United States, in addition to local excursions. Some of the points to which tickets will be sold and dates of sale are as follows:

To Nashville, Tenn., daily to October 15, for Tennessee Centennial and International exposition.

To Winona assembly grounds, Eagle Lake, (near Warsaw, Ind.) May 15 to August 31, for annual assembly and summer school.

To Indianapolis, September 8 and 9, for National Encampment Sons of Veterans.

The reduced rates over the Pennsylvania lines will not be restricted to members of the organizations mentioned, but may be taken advantage of by the public generally. Excursion tickets may be obtained at ticket offices on the Pennsylvania system and will also be sold over this route by connecting railways. Any Pennsylvania line ticket or passenger agent will furnish desired information concerning rates, time of trains, return limit, and other details, to all applicants, or the same may be obtained by addressing Samuel Moody, assistant general passenger agent, Pittsburg, Pa.

Excursions to Nashville.

The Tennessee Centennial and International exposition will be in progress at Nashville, Tenn., from May until October inclusive. Special low rate round trip ticket will be sold via Pennsylvania lines for this event. Full particulars concerning fare, dates of sales, time of train, etc., may be obtained upon application to the nearest Pennsylvania line ticket agent, or by addressing D. C. MacWatters, district passenger agent, Pittsburg, Pa.

Home Measurements.

Sister measured my grin one day,
Took the ruler and me,
Counted the inches all the way,
One and two and three.

"Oh, you're a Cheshire cat," said she.
Father said, "That's no sin."
Then he nodded and smiled at me,
Smiled at my three inch grin.

Brother suggested I ought to begin
Trying to trim it down.
Mother said, "Better a three inch grin
Than a little half inch frown."
—Neil Kimberly McElhorne in St. Nicholas

Cleveland & Pittsburgh Div. Pennsylvania Lines.

Schedule of Passenger Trains—Central Time.

Westward.	3:35	3:37	3:39	3:41	3:59
Pittsburgh	16:05	11:30	14:30	11:00	17:10
Rochester	7:00	2:15	5:30	11:50	8:17
Beaver	7:05	2:20	5:35	11:55	8:24
Vanport	7:09		5:43	11:59	8:29
Industry	7:20		5:56	12:10	8:41
Cooks Ferry	7:23		6:01	12:11	8:45
Smiths Ferry	7:35	2:40	6:07	12:20	8:54
East Liverpool	7:46	2:49	6:15	12:30	9:05
Wellsville	7:58	3:00	6:28	12:40	9:15
Wellsville	8:05	3:05		12:45
Wellsville Shop	8:09			12:50
Yellow Creek	8:15			12:55
Hammondsville	8:23			1:03
Irondale	8:26	3:22		1:06
Salineville	8:42	3:38		1:27
Bayard	9:20	4:10		2:05
Alliance	9:44	4:33		2:30
Ravenna	10:05	4:56		2:35
Hudson	11:02	5:25		3:10
Cleveland	12:10	6:25		4:30
Wellsville	8:10	3:10	6:55	15:55	11:02
Wellsville Shop	8:15	3:13	6:58	15:59	11:05
Yellow Creek	8:21	3:18	7:04	16:05	11:10
Port Homer	8:27	3:23	7:09	16:09
Empire	8:34	3:28	7:14	16:17	11:21
Elliottsville	8:41	3:33	7:18	16:21	11:25
Toronto	8:45	3:38	7:23	16:30	11:28
Browns	8:52	3:43	7:28	16:35	11:33
Steubenville	9:08	4:00	7:45	16:51	11:45
Mingo Je	9:15	4:07	7:53	16:58	11:53
Brilliant	9:22	4:10	8:00	17:14	12:01
Rush Run	9:33	4:22	8:09	17:24	12:10
Portland	9:40	4:39	8:15	17:30	12:16
Yorkville	9:45	4:46	8:20	17:37	12:21
Marlins Ferry	9:58	5:02	8:28	17:53	12:35
Bridgeport	9:05	5:10	8:35	17:58	12:40
Bellevue	10:15	6:20	8:45	18:10	12:45
Eastward.	3:40	3:42		3:44	3:46
Bellevue	14:45	19:00		14:45	11:00
Bridgeport	4:53	9:09		4:54	11:10
Marlins Ferry	5:01	9:15		5:02	11:16
Yorkville	5:10	9:25		5:11	11:26
Portland	5:15	9:28		5:16	11:28
Rush Run	5:20	9:33		5:21	11:34
Brilliant	5:28	9:41		5:29	11:42
Mingo Je	5:35	9:48		5:36	11:50
Steubenville	5:44	9:56		5:45	11:58
Browns	6:00	10:15		6:01	12:19
Toronto	6:07	10:15		6:08	12:27
Elliottsville	6:11	10:20		6:12	12:32
Empire	6:13	10:30		6:14	12:40
Port Homer	6:20	10:33		6:21	12:45
Yellow Creek	6:26	10:40		6:27	12:50
Wellsville Shop	6:31	10:45		6:32	12:55
Wellsville	6:35	10:50		6:36	13:00
Wellsville	8:05			3:05
Wellsville Shop	8:09			3:09
Yellow Creek	8:15			3:15
Hammondsville	8:23			3:23
Irondale	8:26			3:26
Salineville	8:42			3:42
Bayard	9:20			4:20
Alliance	9:44			4:44
Ravenna	10:05			5:05
Hudson	11:02			6:02
Cleveland	12:10			7:10
Wellsville	6:45	11:00		6:51	13:10
East Liverpool	6:55	11:10		7:00	13:20
Smiths Ferry	7:05	11:20		7:08	13:30
Cooks Ferry	7:13	11:26		7:16	13:38
Industry	7:20	11:31		7:22	13:42
Vanport	7:24	11:40		7:26	13:46
Beaver	7:40	11:45		7:36	14:00
Rochester	7:50	11:50		7:46	14:10
Pittsburgh	8:50	12:40		8:30	15:10

Fullman Sleeping Cars are run on Nos. 331 and 332, and Parlor Cars on Nos. 337 and 338 between Pittsburgh and Cleveland via Yellow Creek and Alliance. No. 336 connects at Rochester for New Castle, Jamestown, Youngstown, Niles, Warren, Ashtabula and intermediate stations. No. 340 for Erie, Ashtabula and intermediate stations.

Nos. 335 and 337 connect at Bayard for New Philadelphia, and stations on Tuscarawas Branch. Nos. 340 and 360 connect with Nos. 335 and 337 at Wellsville.

L. F. LOREE, General Manager, E. A. FORD, General Passenger Agent, 516-97-111 PITTSBURGH, PENN'A.

For time cards, rates of fare, through tickets, baggage checks, and further information regarding the running of trains apply to any Agent of the Pennsylvania Lines.

50 YEARS' EXPERIENCE.

PATENTS

TRADE MARKS, DESIGNS, COPYRIGHTS, &c.

Anyone sending a sketch and description may quickly ascertain, free, whether an invention is probably patentable. Communications strictly confidential. Oldest agency for securing patents in America. We have a Washington office. Patents taken through Munn & Co. receive special notice in the

SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN, beautifully illustrated, largest circulation of any scientific journal, weekly, terms $3.00 a year; $1.50 six months. Specimen copies and HAND BOOK ON PATENTS sent free. Address

MUNN & CO., 361 Broadway, New York.

Wade

The Jeweler.

Can now be found in his handsome new quarters,

Foutts & Stevenson Block,

MARKET STREET.

Rubber Stamps

Exclusive agency for the Celebrated AIR CUSHION RUBBER STAMPS.

NEWS REVIEW.

DYSPEPSIA,

Hearthburn, Gastritis, and all Stomach Disorders positively cured. Grover Graham's Dyspepsia Remedy is a specific. One dose removes all distress, and a permanent cure of the most chronic and severe cases is guaranteed. Do not suffer! A 50 cent bottle will convince the most skeptical.

RAIRD & SON, Druggists, East End.

BRIGHT, SPICY...

News Review

MERCER IN GOOD FORM

Carey Continues to Hit the Ball Regularly.

A GAME IN WELLSVILLE TODAY

East Liverpool Has a Good Team—Records of the Boys Who Are Away From Home—We Lost at Rock Spring Yesterday—Sporting News.

The East Liverpool team is this afternoon playing the Crescents of Wellsville at the fair grounds. The lineup: McNicol, short; G. Kennedy, second; Webber, first; Clark, third; Baxter, left; T. Kennedy, right; Davis, catcher; Albright, pitcher; Lynch, middle; McCarran, sub.

The game yesterday afternoon between the East Liverpool Leans and the West End Gyms, of Wellsville, resulted in a victory for the Wellsville boys by a score of 7 to 6. The batteries were Millwood and Webb; Alexander and Russell.

The Second street Maroons are today playing ball in Irondale.

George Carey continues to do good work for the Athletics, and in the last six games made ten hits, 47 putouts and three assists.

Alf Shaw is one of three players in the Syracuse team who has a batting average of over 300. He played but two games this week, and made one hit, nine putouts, three assists and one error.

John Daniels passed through the city yesterday afternoon enroute for Lawrenceville, where he will play ball with the Junctions. He says he will go from there to join the New Castle team.

The Washington correspondent of Sporting Life says: "Mercer, who is pitching the best kind of ball, won four of his six games, shutting out Pittsburg and St. Louis, and losing a well pitched ten inning contest in Cincinnati. At this time last year Mercer was about gone. Not having been overworked during the first half of this season, he is now likely to do good work to the finish."

Winnie Mercer only lasted until the sixth inning yesterday against Baltimore and Swaim was substituted. During his league career Mercer has not won a game from Baltimore, and it looks as though he will not be able to break the hoodoo.

WOMAN'S RELIEF CORPS, TOO,

Invited to Take Part In the Township Line Picnic.

Because the Woman's Relief corps do not hold regular meetings until the first of next month, the committee from the Township Line club have sent them no formal invitation, but they, as well as all old soldiers and Sons of Veterans, are invited to be present. The arrangements this year will be much better than in former years, and an unusually good time is expected.

His First Pastorate.

Reverend Campbell, the gentleman who was installed pastor of the United Presbyterian church at Calcutta the other day, in the city this morning accompanied by Doctor Leamon. The gentleman comes from West Sunbury, Pa., and graduated from the seminary last spring. His success is assured.

Excursion to Rock Point

Via Pennsylvania lines, Thursday, Aug. 5. Seventy-five cents round trip from Steubenville, Mingo and Toronto; 50 cents from East Liverpool and Wellsville to Rock Point, account C. M. B. A. picnic. Ask Ticket Agent A. Hill about train service and other details.

NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given that the firm of William S. George, Jr., & Co., has been dissolved by mutual consent, and that all claims have been paid.

WM. S. GEORGE, JR., The Burford Bros., Pottery Co. East Liverpool, O., July 21, '97.

Not So Bad.

Farmers who feared a few weeks ago that they would lose much of the wheat crop because it was sprouting in the shock have no complaint at present. Much of the crop has been threshed and has proved so much better than was anticipated that they are satisfied.

Slowest of the Week.

Yesterday was the slowest day of the week at the freight station as only 89 cars were handled. Nine cars were unloaded while 17 cars were sent out.

An Early Opening.

The season at the Grand Opera House will open Saturday evening, Aug. 14, with Hi Henry's Minstrels.

All the news in the NEWS REVIEW.

HER LATEST HONOR.

Mrs. Charles Hazen Russell Is Now an Alumnae Trustee of Wells College.

Mrs. Charles Hazen Russell has become the focal point of interest to the friends and patrons of Wells college. The culminating act which brings Mrs. Russell's name so prominently forward is her election by the alumnae as a trustee of the college. Mrs. Russell's career since her graduation from Wells as the valedictorian of her class has been marked by that steady intellectual growth and that expanding and deepening influence in society which make the college girl the ideal as well as the practical woman of today. Mrs. Russell was the first president of the Eastern Association of Wells College, a position subsequently held by Mrs. Cleveland and to which Mrs. Russell was re-elected four years ago, holding the office up to the present time. She devotes most of her spare time to literary work, and her translations from German romantic literature have appeared in print from time to time, although she has but little impulse to publish, and much of her best work is given to the literary societies of which she is a leading member.

MRS. CHARLES HAZEN RUSSELL.

Sorosis elected Mrs. Russell to membership in 1892 and soon after appointed her chairman of the committee on education. In this club, as in others, she has shown her talent for marshaling opponents in debate and setting the subject incisively before them. Her style is subtle in thought, but clear and convincing in expression.

Mrs. Russell founded the Portia club of Brooklyn and is still its president. This club is devoted to the careful study of the best literature. Kosmos club of Brooklyn claims her as an active member, and Chiropcean, modeled after Sorosis, owes much to her influence and guidance.

Mrs. Russell was much interested in the Federation of Women's Clubs and is the representative in the federation of several societies. Among the honors lately paid her is an invitation to deliver in St. Lawrence university a course of lectures on English literature. This will probably be among her first duties in the fall, on her return from Europe, where she is spending the summer. Interested as Mrs. Russell appears in literary and club life, there is no place where she shines as effectively as in her own home, making the house of her husband, the Hon. Charles Hazen Russell, the center of a large and brilliant social circle and at the same time the most restful and comfortable of homes. It is the rounded and harmonious development of her nature in so many directions which makes Mrs. Russell a remarkable woman and fits her to be the representative and model of the college woman of today.—New York Times.

Healthy, Happy Children.

A woman whose four rosy, sun tanned children are the envy of her neighbors down on Long Island gives this recipe for health and peace of mind: "Buy enough of checked blue gingham to make each child half a dozen big aprons, not the little ornamental, useless sort, but great big envelopes, let them wear these all day long, and don't complain if they soil them. Dirt, the kind that flowers flourish in and that vegetables thrive in, will not hurt the most delicate child living, but constant scolding about dirty clothes will wear out any child's nerves and spoil all his enjoyment. Also have a few loose sunbonnets on hand. Of course the boys won't wear them, but the girls are much better with this pretty, cool, light headgear, for it is a safeguard from sunstroke."—Exchange.

Firework Foulard.

"Firework" foulard, or foulard silk with a sort of lightning or firework effect over the colored surface, is the novelty of the moment. It is being worn on all occasions, and some of these gowns, with their sharply contrasted trimmings, are startling in their brilliance. Then there are the grenadines and canvases and silk muslins, all worn over the very brightest colors, and yet the more expensive gowns are so skillfully managed that the lion and the lamb appear to lie down together in harmony. Even cerise, which resists all amateur attempts at conciliation with other colors, is made by the deft manipulation of the skilled fingers of the modiste to mingle its bright note melodiously with the rest.

The College Girl Graduate.

Edward W. Bok writes to the college girl graduate in The Ladies' Home Journal. "Whatever the necessities, her desires or ambitions," he says, "let her not forget that first of all she was designed by God to be a woman, to live her life in true womanliness, so that she may be an inspiration, a strength, a blessing, not necessarily to a world, but, what is infinitely better, to those within her immediate reach whose lives are touched by hers. Very few lives are free—free to go and come, travel, read, study, write, think, paint and sing at will. In the lives of most women these gifts are an aside in life, as it were, an underbreath. Most of us are beset with loving calls of toil, care, responsibility and quiet duties which we must recognize, heed and obey. We must love our mothers more than our Greek. If the instinct of daughter, sister, wife or mother dies out of a college bred woman, even in the course of a most brilliant career, the world will forget to love her; it will scorn her, and justly.

"If she does not make her surroundings homelike wherever she is, whether she be teacher, artist, musician, writer, daughter at home, or a mother in the household, and if she herself is not cheery and loving, dainty in dress, gentle in manner, and beautiful in soul, as every true woman ought to be, the world will feel that the one thing needful is lacking—vivid, tender womanliness, for which no knowledge, however profound, can ever compensate. It is better for a woman to fill a simple human part lovingly, better to be sympathetic in trouble, and to whisper a comforting message into but one grieving ear, than that she should make a path to Egypt and lecture to thousands on ancient Thebes."

An Interesting Controversy.

An interesting controversy was started recently by two women, each occupying a prominent position in her own section of society—namely, Miss Marie Corelli and Lady Jeanne. Miss Corelli contends that the majority of girls in the better classes are not free agents in the choice of their husbands; that even if they, the girls themselves, are animated by the best sentiment—i. e., the idea that they should marry for love and for love only—their parents bring pressure to bear upon them in order to induce them to marry men of position instead of men of personal worth, and so forth. According to the novelist, unhappy unions are the result, in which woman becomes the sufferer and victim and man the tyrant, the evildoer and the torturer.

Lady Jeanne, on the other hand, while admitting that this is the case now and again, maintains that as a rule girls are left free to choose, although the parents may suggest and advise, nay, often make it their special business to bring young men and women together, with a view to marriage, who under ordinary circumstances would never have dreamed of looking at one another. Lady Jeanne does not say in so many words that the young women themselves are frequently tempted by the suitors' worldly standing rather than by their character, temperament and disposition, and that they are as much to blame for their failure in matrimony as their parents, and perhaps more.

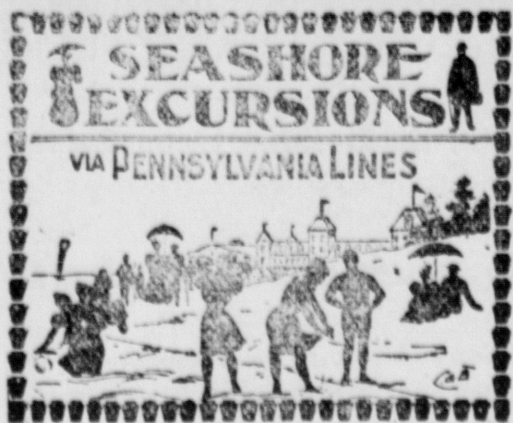

A Dainty Poke Bonnet.

A very picturesque and dainty poke bonnet recently worn at a fashionable garden party up the Hudson was made of pale daffodil yellow tulle. The entire bonnet was shirred over fine gold wire, including the prim little drum crown. At the extreme edge of the flaring brim were set very closely together little pink button roses, with a cluster of the same flowers above the left ear and inside the brim. The bonnet was further decorated with filmy loops of the tulle, a buckle of French brilliants, long scarf ends of the airy material that were tied under the chin. This Frenchy creation was worn by a lady with brilliant color and large brown eyes. It made her look ten years older than her actual years. Nevertheless, it was most becoming and unique in effect. It had a decidedly Victorian "atmosphere," and was more noticed than any other of the costly and wonderful head coverings displayed on that occasion. The bonnet was very short above the ears, but the poke portion measured at least eight inches from where it met the crown to the extreme edge just in front.—New York Post.

Queen Wilhelmina.

Queen Wilhelmina of Holland will become of age next year, and plans are already formed for the coronation. It will take place in Amsterdam instead of at The Hague, although the latter city is the capital. The chief reason seems to be that the royal palace in Amsterdam is more commodious than the one at The Hague. The palace in Amsterdam is an imposing edifice which faces the busy square known as the Dam, in the heart of the town. Although it is nearly three centuries old, it has never been favored as a residence by the Dutch monarchs. While the coronation ceremonies may be monopolized by Amsterdam the queen will probably spend most of her time at The Hague, since the capital is the pleasantest city in Holland for a permanent residence, besides being the seat of the national parliament.

It will probably be years or another generation before cycling by women is countenanced in Spain.

Low Rates For Vacation Trips and Outings Along the Ocean.

Round Trip From Steubenville Only $10.

General excursions to the seashore at exceptionally low rates will be inaugurated by the Pennsylvania lines this summer, offering a grand opportunity for delightful outings at the most popular ocean resorts on the continent. This announcement will be good news to persons who may desire to enjoy their vacations at the seaside. They may visit Atlantic City, Cape May, Avalon, Sea Isle City, Anglesea, Ocean City, Holly Beach or wildwood, at very low fare, round trip tickets to either resort being obtainable at the same rate.

The first excursion will be run Thursday, July 15, followed by others on July 5th, August 12 and 21. Round trip rates to either Atlantic City, Cape May, Avalon, Sea Island City, Anglesea, Ocean City, Wildwood or Holly Beach, New Jersey, will be $10 from Steubenville.

Excursion tickets will be good going on trains leaving Steubenville 4:24 a. m., 1:09 p. m., 2:15 p. m., and 4:08 p. m. The 4:45 a. m. train connects in Pittsburg Union Station with a special train of parlor cars and coaches running through to Atlantic City via Delaware bridge route, arriving at Philadelphia at 6:25 p. m., Atlantic City, 8:55 p. m., making the run from Pittsburg to the seashore in 12 hours. Excursionists may spend the night in Philadelphia and proceed to the shore by any regular train the following day. The 4:08 p. m. train has sleeping cars from Steubenville to Philadelphia without change, and will connect in Pittsburg union station with sleeping cars running through to Atlantic City.

The return limit will cover 12 days including date of sale, which will be ample for customary 10 days' vacation. For further desired information, apply to J. K. Dillon, D. P. A., Pittsburg, Pa., for particulars. Illustrated description of resorts to which excursion tickets will be sold, with list of hotels, and boarding houses at each, will be furnished upon application.

Low Rates.

Special reductions in fare over the Pennsylvania lines will be granted for numerous events to take place this summer in various parts of the United States, in addition to local excursions. Some of the points to which tickets will be sold and dates of sale are as follows:

To Nashville, Tenn., daily to October 15, for Tennessee Centennial and International exposition.

To Winona assembly grounds, Eagle Lake, (near Warsaw, Ind.) May 15 to August 31, for annual assembly and summer school.

To Indianapolis, September 8 and 9, for National Encampment Sons of Veterans.

The reduced rates over the Pennsylvania lines will not be restricted to members of the organizations mentioned, but may be taken advantage of by the public generally. Excursion tickets may be obtained at ticket offices on the Pennsylvania system and will also be sold over this route by connecting railways. Any Pennsylvania line ticket or passenger agent will furnish desired information concerning rates, time of trains, return limit, and other details, to all applicants, or the same may be obtained by addressing Samuel Moody, assistant general passenger agent, Pittsburg, Pa.

Excursions to Nashville.

The Tennessee Centennial and International exposition will be in progress at Nashville, Tenn., from May until October inclusive. Special low rate round trip ticket will be sold via Pennsylvania lines for this event. Full particulars concerning fare, dates of sales, time of train, etc., may be obtained upon application to the nearest Pennsylvania line ticket agent, or by addressing D. C. MacWatters, district passenger agent, Pittsburg, Pa.

Home Measurements.

Sister measured my grin one day,
Took the ruler and me,
Counted the inches all the way,
One and two and three.

"Oh, you're a Cheshire cat," said she.
Father said, "That's no sin."
Then he nodded and smiled at me,
Smiled at my three inch grin.

Brother suggested I ought to begin
Trying to trim it down.
Mother said, "Better a three inch grin
Than a little half inch frown."
—Nell Kimberly McElhone in St. Nicholas.

Cleveland & Pittsburgh Div. Pennsylvania Lines.

Schedule of Passenger Trains—Central Time.

Westward.	3:35	3:37	3:39	3:41	3:59
Pittsburgh	iv	16:05	11:30	14:30	11:00
Rochester	"	7:00	2:15	5:30	11:50
Beaver	"	7:05	2:20	5:35	11:55
Vanport	"	7:10	2:25	5:40	12:00
Industry	"	7:15	2:30	5:45	12:05
Cooks Ferry	"	7:20	2:35	5:50	12:10
Smiths Ferry	"	7:25	2:40	5:55	12:15
East Liverpool	"	7:30	2:45	6:00	12:20
Wellsville	ar	7:35	2:50	6:05	12:25
Wellsville	iv	6:05	3:05	12:45
Wellsville Shop	"	6:09	3:09	12:50
Yellow Creek	"	6:15	3:15	12:55
Hammondsville	"	6:23	3:23	1:03
Irondale	"	6:26	3:26	1:06
Salineville	"	6:42	3:38	1:27
Bayard	"	6:50	3:40	1:35
Alliance	ar	6:54	3:44	1:39
Ravenna	iv	10:40	3:08	stop
Hudson	"	11:02	3:25	stop
Cleveland	ar	12:10	3:25	stop
Cleveland	iv	8:10	3:10	6:55	11:02
Wellsville Shop	"	8:15	3:15	6:59	11:05
Yellow Creek	"	8:21	3:18	7:04	11:08
Port Homer	"	8:27	3:23	7:09	11:13
Empire	"	8:34	3:28	7:14	11:18
Elliottsville	"	8:41	3:35	7:18	11:25
Toronto	"	8:45	3:38	7:23	11:28
Browns	"	8:52	3:43	7:30	11:35
Steubenville	iv	9:05	4:00	7:45	11:45
Mingo Je	"	9:15	4:10	7:53	11:53
Brilliant	"	9:22	4:20	8:00	12:01
Rush Run	"	9:33	4:32	8:09	12:10
Portland	"	9:40	4:39	8:16	12:17
Yorkville	"	9:45	4:45	8:23	12:21
Martins Ferry	"	9:58	5:02	8:36	12:28
Bridgeport	"	10:05	5:10	8:45	12:35
Bellevue	ar	10:15	5:20	8:45	12:45
Eastward.	3:40	3:42	3:44	3:46	4:15
Bellevue	iv	14:45	19:00	14:45	11:00
Bridgeport	"	4:53	9:05	4:54	11:10
Martins Ferry	"	5:01	9:15	5:02	11:16
Yorkville	"	5:10	9:25	5:11	11:25
Portland	"	5:15	9:28	5:16	11:28
Rush Run	"	5:20	9:33	5:21	11:34
Brilliant	"	5:28	9:41	5:29	11:41
Mingo Je	"	5:35	9:48	5:36	11:48
Steubenville	iv	5:44	9:56	5:45	11:56
Browns	"	6:00	10:12	6:01	12:02
Toronto	"	6:07	10:19	6:08	12:09
Elliottsville	"	6:11	10:20	6:12	12:10
Empire	"	6:13	10:30	6:14	12:20
Port Homer	"	6:20	10:33	6:21	12:27
Yellow Creek	"	6:26	10:40	6:27	12:33
Wellsville Shop	"	6:44	10:58	6:45	12:51
Wellsville	ar	6:35	10:50	6:36	12:45
Wellsville	iv	8:05		3:05
Wellsville Shop	"	8:09		3:09
Yellow Creek	"	8:15		3:15
Hammondsville	"	8:23		3:23
Irondale	"	8:26		3:26
Salineville	"	8:42		3:42
Bayard	"	8:50		3:50
Alliance	ar	9:20		4:20
Ravenna	iv	10:40		5:05
Hudson	"	11:02		5:25
Cleveland	ar	12:10		6:25
Cleveland	iv	6:45	11:00	6:51	3:10
East Liverpool	"	6:55	11:10	7:00	3:20
Smiths Ferry	"	7:05	11:20	7:08	3:30
Cooks Ferry	"	7:13	11:28	7:16	3:38
Industry	"	7:21	11:36	7:24	3:46
Vanport	"	7:34	11:40	7:37	3:54
Beaver	"	7:41	11:45	7:44	4:01
Rochester	"	7:50	11:50	7:53	4:10
Pittsburgh	ar	8:50	12:40	8:50	5:10

Pullman Sleeping Cars are run on Nos. 341 and 342, and Parlor Cars on Nos. 337 and 338 between Pittsburg and Cleveland via Yellow Creek and Alliance. No. 336 connects at Rochester for New Castle, Jamestown, Youngstown, Niles, Warren, Ashtabula and intermediate stations. No. 340 for Erie, Ashtabula and intermediate stations.

Nos. 335 and 337 connect at Bayard for New Philadelphia, and stations on Tuscarawas Branch. Nos. 340 and 340 connect with Nos. 335 and 337 at Wellsville.

L. E. LOREE, General Manager, E. A. FORD, General Passenger Agent, 516-97-11 PITTSBURGH, PENNA.

For time cards, rates of fare, through tickets, baggage checks, and further information regarding the running of trains apply to any Agent of the Pennsylvania Lines.

50 YEARS' EXPERIENCE.

PATENTS

TRADE MARKS, DESIGNS, COPYRIGHTS, &c.

Anyone sending a sketch and description may quickly ascertain, free, whether an invention is probably patentable. Communications strictly confidential. Oldest agency for securing patents in America. We have a Washington office. Patents taken through Munn & Co. receive special notice in the

SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN, beautifully illustrated, largest circulation of any scientific journal, weekly, terms $3.00 a year; six months, $1.50. Specimen copies and HAND BOOK ON PATENTS sent free. Address

MUNN & CO.,
361 Broadway, New York.

Wade

The Jeweler.

Can now be found in his handsome new quarters,

Foutts & Stevenson Block,

MARKET STREET.

Rubber Stamps

Exclusive agency for the Celebrated AIR CUSHION RUBBER STAMPS.

NEWS REVIEW.

DYSPEPSIA,

Heartburn, Gastritis, and all Stomach Disorders positively cured. Grover Graham's Dyspepsia Remedy is a specific. One dose removes all distress, and a permanent cure of the most chronic and severe cases is guaranteed. Do not suffer! A 50 cent bottle will convince the most skeptical.

RAIRD & SON, Druggists
East End.

BRIGHT, SPICY....

News Review

IMPORTANT TO ADVERTISERS.
Merchants and business men must have advertisements in this office on the evening previous to insertion in this paper. This rule is imperative, and is an absolute necessity resulting in good to paper and patron.
The largest bonafide "paid" general circulation of any daily published in East Liverpool. Advertisers will make note.
HARRY PALMER,
Manager.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

A street fakir did business in the Diamond today.
The Pacific No. 2 passed up at noon today with a large tow.
No cases have been filed in the local courts for several days.
Born to Mr. and Mrs. John Sellers, of Spring street, a daughter.
Born to Mr. and Mrs. Chal Bricker, of Spring street, a daughter.
All the uptown streets were given a thorough cleaning this morning.
The street force are today putting a new floor on the Pennsylvania avenue bridge in East End.
A horse driven by George C. Potter this morning fell in Fifth street. No damage was done.
Steven Severs broke ground in Chester this morning for the erection of a new six-room frame dwelling.
Reverend Reinartz left at noon today where he will preach in the Lutheran church of that place tomorrow.
A number of East End wheelmen will ride to Waterford tomorrow. They will go by the way of Clarkson and Rogers.
Mrs. L. V. Reed, of Wheeling, will sing at the opening of the Young Men's Christian association meeting tomorrow afternoon.
Claude Tarleton, clerk at the Thompson House, left this afternoon for Cambridge to visit his father who is ill at that place.
Otto Sheaffer, of Steubenville, who made an assignment of his business in this city to J. M. McKee, some days ago, was in the city today.
Officer Earl yesterday afternoon arrested Tom Pearl, a colored man, and Pokey Little for indulging in an altercation. They were each fined $6.60.
Physical Director Morris, of the Young Men's Christian association, will begin active work on his field day program next week. It will no doubt be a large one.
Sophia M. Wachter entered suit before Squire Rose this morning against Wolf, of Minerva street, for forcible detention. The hearing is set for Tuesday morning.
Miss Montie Whittenberger, while bicycle riding last evening in Jethro street, ran into an unsuspecting canine. The young lady took a header but was not injured.
Waste paper is again beginning to make its appearance in the streets, causing many people to inquire if the ordinance is being as rigidly enforced as it was at first.
Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Albright and Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Henderson are today in Middleton township attending the thirty-first anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Stokesberry.
East Liverpool is all right. Wm. J. Sloan, of that city, has been granted a patent on a finger nail trimmer. It is not stated whether the machine is operated by electricity or elbow oil.—Salem Herald.

Officer McMillan was called to the National House last night. He removed a crowd of loiterers. They have been in the habit of holding down the bricks at that place for some time, and have become very noisy.
E. C. McVoy, traveler for the Sebring company, arrived today from a trip through the west. While in Denver, Mr. McVoy met Fred Bostwick, who made many friends here as the manager of the light company.
Mrs. Lessell, of Thompson hill, who has been visiting in England for several months, is expected home this evening. She landed in New York on the Lucania today. Charles Howe, of this city, was a passenger on the same ship.
Many traveling salesmen who have been in the city during the past few days, say that business is improving, particularly in the Beaver valley and towns close to Pittsburgh. When the coal strike is settled they expect a boom.
There was a merry party of bike riders left the city at five o'clock this morning, going towards Smith's Ferry. On the return trip, one of the young ladies, an expert rider, was hustling for home at a clipping pace, when she struck a quagmire and was precipitated to mother earth with stunning effect. She soon recovered, but her costume was a sight to behold.

CHAPEL INSCRIPTIONS

Will Be Decided Upon By the Soldiers Next Friday.

NO WORTHY NAMES OMITTED

The Tablets Will Be a Feature of the Memorial Building At Riverview—All Men Who Served in the Rebellion Are Invited to Attend the Meeting.

The Grand Army men propose to make the memorial chapel now under course of erection at Riverview cemetery as interesting as it will be beautiful, and with that end in view will carefully decide upon the names that are to be inscribed upon the tablets.

At the meeting of General Lyon post last night it was decided to call all the old soldiers of the city together next Friday evening. Not only members of the post, but every one who fought in the Rebellion is invited to attend. It is the intention to select the names for the tablets, and the post is desirous of missing no worthy man. The meeting will also hear reports of the progress already made, and it is understood that they will be most gratifying.

Work on the chapel is progressing rapidly. Contractor Floto has already secured a good start, and will not lose any time if the weather allows his men to work.

A Monetary Conference Assured.
WASHINGTON, July 31.—Official information just received in Washington indicates that Great Britain will consent to join in an international monetary conference to be held in this city next winter.

Secretary Sherman Much Better.
WASHINGTON, July 31.—Word comes to Washington from Secretary Sherman at Amagansett, L. I., that his health has improved very much. He will leave for Boston in a day or two and this trip will be followed by a sea voyage.

Colonel Grant Has Resigned.
NEW YORK, July 31.—Colonel Fred Grant has resigned as police commissioner, because the board decided that officers should act the spy on disorderly houses.

The Weather.
Generally fair; light to fresh westerly winds.

LEAGUE GAMES YESTERDAY.

At Chicago—
Chicago	0 0 1 0 1 0 3 0 0 0	5 12 4	R H E
Pittsburg	3 0 0 1 1 0 0 0 2 7	14 1	R H E
Batteries—Briggs and Kittredge; Hastings, Hughey, Sugden and Merritt. Umpire—Sheridan. Attendance, 1,900.
At Washington—
Wash.	4 0 5 0 2 0 0 0 0	11 14 4	R H E
Baltimore	0 2 3 3 5 0 2 0 0	5 1 0	R H E
Batteries—Mercer, Swain and Farrell; Maul, Hoffer, Clarke and Bowman. Umpire—Emslie. Attendance, 1,800.
At Cincinnati—
Cincinnati	0 0 0 0 1 2 4 1	8 11 1	R H E
Cleve.	2 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0	2 6 1	R H E
Batteries—Breitenstein and Peltz; Powell, Wilson and Criger. Umpire—Hurst. Attendance, 6,000.
At New York—
N. York	0 0 0 0 2 0 0 1	3 10 2	R H E
Brooklyn	0 0 1 0 0 0 0 0 0	1 4 1	R H E
Batteries—Rusie and Warner; Payne and Barrell. Umpire—O'Day. Attendance, 2,900.
At St. Louis—
St. Louis	2 0 0 1 0 1 1 0 2	7 14 4	R H E
Louisville	1 0 0 0 1 0 0 3	6 3 3	R H E
Batteries—Donahue and Murphy; Cunningham, Evans and Wilson. Umpire—McFarland. Attendance, 1,500.
At Philadelphia—
Philadelphia	0 1 0 0 2 0 0 0	3 4 2	R H E
Boston	0 1 0 0 0 0 0 5	1 8 13	R H E
Batteries—Orth, Clements and Boyle; Klobedanz and Bergen. Umpire—McDonald. Attendance, 4,793.

Standing of the Clubs.

Boston.....	55	24	686	Pittsburg.....	37	42	468
Balto.....	51	26	662	Chicago.....	36	47	444
Cincin.....	50	26	658	Brooklyn.....	34	45	430
N. York.....	46	31	597	Louisv'le.....	35	47	427
Cleveland.....	43	35	551	Wash.....	29	49	372
Phila.....	40	43	482	St. Louis.....	20	61	272

League Schedule Today.

Philadelphia at Baltimore. New York at Brooklyn. Pittsburg at Chicago. Cleveland at Cincinnati. Louisville at St. Louis and Boston at Washington.

The Interstate Games.

At Wheeling—
Wheeling	0 0 0 0 4 0 0 0	4 4 6	R H E
Dayton	0 0 0 0 2 0 6 1	0 9 6	R H E
Batteries—Campbell and Messett; Bates and Kellner.
At Youngstown—
Youngstown	0 0 0 0 0 0 3 0	1 4 12 4	R H E
Ft. Wayne	0 0 0 0 0 0 2 0	1 3 10 4	R H E
Batteries—Jordan and Zinram; Gear and O'Meara.
At Mansfield—
Mansfield	0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0	0 0 6	R H E
Toledo	2 1 0 0 3 3 2 4	1 16	R H E
Batteries—Ely and Vetter; Keenan and Arthur.
At New Castle—
New Castle	0 1 0 0 0 0 1 0	0 2 4	R H E
Springfield	0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0	0 0 2 3	R H E
Batteries—Smith and Graffias; Pool and Rupert.

Interstate League Standing.

	W	L	Pc		W	L	Pc
Toledo.....	57	26	.687	Youngstown	40	36	.526
New Castle.....	52	29	.642	Springfield.....	34	48	.368
Dayton.....	48	36	.571	Mansfield.....	28	53	.346
Ft. Wayne.....	44	39	.530	Wheeling.....	26	57	.313

Interstate Schedule

Interstate Schedule.

Springfield at New Castle. Toledo at Mansfield. Ft. Wayne at Youngstown and Dayton at Wheeling.

RIOTING AT SCOTSDALE.

A Non-Union Man Fired Into a Jeering Crowd.

SCOTSDALE, Pa., July 31.—As the afternoon turn of non-union men were going home from the steel mill one of them became incensed at the remarks of some boys and deliberately fired at the crowd. A large crowd was gathered about the station at the time and they started after the non-union man, who fired four or five shots into the crowd before he reached the Geyer House, where he boards.

The hotel was immediately surrounded by an excited crowd and it was with some difficulty that Burgess Porter got them cooled down, and had he not had the assistance of the strike leaders there is no telling to what end the maddened people would have gone. Another non-union man, whose name could not be learned, drew his revolver on Pittsburgh street and fired several shots. He was knocked down and pretty badly beaten before he could be rescued by the officers and taken to his boarding house.

Homer S. Wolfe of McKeesport and George Stitt of Apollo were arrested, charged with doing the shooting.

NEW PLACE FOR ANDREWS.

He Will Be at the Head of John Brisben Walker's New University.

PROVIDENCE, July 31.—Dr. E. Benjamin Andrews, who recently resigned the presidency of Brown university owing to objections to his silver utterances, has accepted the presidency of a new university to be founded by John Brisben Walker, and to be known as the Cosmopolitan university. It is to be modeled after the Chautauqua school and will be conducted by correspondence.

E. BENJAMIN ANDREWS.

Two Freight Trains Collided.

BUFFALO, July 31.—Two Lehigh freight trains collided at Depew Junction, killing George Ellensbee, engineer, of Manchester, and Charles Eddy, fireman, of Sayre. James Ratcliffe, fireman, of Sayre, was slightly injured.

King of Siam In London.

LONDON, July 31.—Chulalongkorn, king of Siam, has arrived in the Siamese royal yacht and was saluted by the warships. On reaching London he was escorted by troops to Buckingham palace. The populace cheered him.

Killed by a Guard Member.

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., July 31.—James C. Forman, married, aged 45, has been instantly killed at the Twelfth regiment rifle range. He was engaged in picking berries at a point 250 yards back of the target, and was in a stooping position, when a ball struck him.

Victims of Foul Air.

HINTON, W. Va., July 31.—A freight train has been stalled in Lewis tunnel, on the Chesapeake and Ohio, and the overcome by foul air. Conductor Ed Bray is dead. Sam Hamilton, Ed Womack and Tom Kamewood are in a precarious condition.

FOR RENT.

TOILET—TWO THREE ROOMED HOUSES. For full particulars rental, etc., inquire of J. B. McKinnon, No. 111 Washington street.

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—TWO THREE ROOMED HOUSES, with an acre of ground to each. Fine orchard with each house; in Chester, West Va. For terms, etc., call on J. B. McKinnon, No. 111 Washington street.

BACKACHE

makes the young feel old, and the old feel that life is not worth the living. It is a danger signal of Kidney Disease. It can be

CURED

I have been suffering from lame back and nervous trouble for some time, but by taking the sample box of Doctor Hobbs Sparagus Kidney Pills that I got from The Averbeck Drug Co., I feel greatly benefited. I will say that I can highly recommend your pills as I think there is none better.

M. MCINTYRE, Youngstown, O.

HOBBS Sparagus Kidney Pills.

HOBBS REMEDY CO., PROPRIETORS, CHICAGO. Dr. Hobbs Pills For Sale in EAST LIVERPOOL, O., by ALVIN H. BULGER, Examined Pharmacist, Cor. 9th and W. Market Sts.

A SIMPLE TIRE REPAIR.

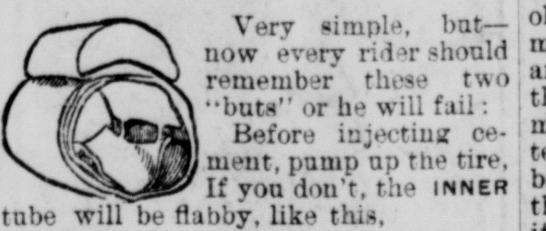

Punctures in the well known Morgan & Wright tire are mended about as easily as a man would close a hole in his finger with a bit of court plaster. Inside of the inner tube of the tire lies a long strip of patching rubber, like this:

By injecting M. & W. Quick repair cement through the puncture into this inner tube, and then pressing down on the tire with the thumb, like this,

the repair strip inside is picked up by the cement, thus closing the puncture, like this:

Very simple, but—now every rider should remember these two "butts" or he will fail:

Before injecting cement, pump up the tire. If you don't, the INNER tube will be flabby, like this, and the cement will not get inside of it, where the repair strip lies.

When you have a puncture, get right off. Riding a tire flat when it has a tack or nail in it, may damage it considerably.

Dr. of Ophthal

ORDINANCE No. 521.

AN ORDINANCE TO IMPROVE LINCOLN avenue from Grant street to the north line of Wall street.

SECTION 1. Be it ordained by the Council of the City of East Liverpool, two thirds of all the members elected thereto concurring, that the improvement of Lincoln avenue, from Grant street to the north line of Wall street, be proceeded with in accordance with the resolution to improve said street, passed June 22, 1897, and the plans and specifications on file in the office of the City Engineer, by grading the entire street, setting the curbs, paving the sidewalks and side-drains and doing whatever may be found necessary to make a complete job.

SECTION 2. That the expense of the said improvement, including damages, if any assessed in favor of any land owner, together with interest on bonds, advertising, etc., shall be assessed on the lots and lands abutting on the said street, in the manner as shall be determined by Council, and set forth in the assessing ordinance hereafter to be passed and in accordance with the law on the subject of assessments.

The assessments therefore to be paid for in five annual installments, if deferred, and the same collected as provided by law and in the assessing ordinance for the said improvement.

Bonds may be issued in anticipation of the collection of the assessments, unless the property owner pay their assessments before the same are issued and within the time that shall be set in the assessing ordinance.

The following is the property to be assessed: Lot 195, one hundred feet; lot 102, seventy-one feet; lot 116, one hundred feet; lot 79, one hundred and thirty feet.

SECTION 3. That this ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and legal publication.

Passed July 27, 1897.

JOHN HORWELL, President pro tem of Council.

Attest: JAMES N. HANLEY, City Clerk.

Published in the East Liverpool News Review, July 31, 1897.

SALE OF BONDS.

OFFICE OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION, EAST LIVERPOOL, OHIO, July 23, 1897.

SEALED PROPOSALS, addressed to the undersigned and marked on the outside, "Proposals for Bonds," will be received at this office until 6 o'clock p. m., Standard Time, of Friday, September 3, 1897, for the purchase on September 17, 1897, of six thousand ($6,000) dollars of bonds to be issued by the Board of Education of the City of East Liverpool, Ohio, for the purpose of providing for the necessary expenses connected with the erection, furnishing and improving of school buildings in said city.

The bonds will be issued under the authority conferred by section 3904 of the Revised Statutes of Ohio, and by a general election held November 3, 1896. The bonds will be issued in sums of $500 each; will be dated September 17, 1897, and will be payable at the rate of $2,000 each year after six years from the date thereof. The bonds will bear interest at the rate of 4 per cent. per annum, payable semi-annually by coupons attached thereto, both principal and interest to be payable at the office of the Treasurer of said city.

The bonds will be ready for delivery on September 17, 1897, and must be paid for on that day in cash or certified check. Each proposal must be accompanied by a certified check on some National bank in the sum of $500, payable to the Clerk of the Board of Education as a guarantee that the bonds will be promptly paid for when ready for delivery. The checks of those to whom the bonds are not awarded, will be returned on or before September 17, 1897. The bonds will not be sold for less than their par value, and the right and privilege is reserved by the Board of Education to reject any and all bids.

By order of the Board.

W. T. NORRIS, Clerk.

Published in the East Liverpool News Review July 31 and August 4, 11, 18, 1897.

Dr. Geo. D. Arnum, Surgeon Dentist.

Specialties: Crown and Bridge Work, and Preservation of the Natural Teeth.

Syndicate Bldg., Sixth St.

LADIES DO YOU KNOW

DR. FELIX LE BRUN'S Steel & Pennyroyal Pills are the original and only FRENCH, safe and reliable cure on the market. Price, $1.00; sent by mail. Genuine sold only by

For sale by Will Reed, East Liverpool, O.

WE want you to know there is a "Standard" Sewing Machine Company. If you don't know it we cannot get your trade. This company has existed eleven years. It commenced with $200,000 capital. It has increased each year in sales and in capital. It now has $2,000,000 invested. It has an immense factory and most complete facilities for making 300 machines per day. It has already made and sold 325,000 machines, each one speaking for itself and the company that made it.

It can now turn out 100,000 machines every year. The recent rapid growth of its trade and large demand will justify this output.

It wants your trade, and will give you the best machine in the world. Carefully examine it. Recognize the principles on which it is constructed. No other like it—because it costs too much for the old line companies to make. Their old style antiquated machinery will not do the close and accurate work necessary to turn out a rotary. It is twenty years ahead of all competition. Highest grade, fastest speed, finest made, the "Standard of the world. Young, ambitious, enterprising, it knows that to succeed in face of the steady competition and calumny of the old companies it must give you a machine very far superior in principle and workmanship. It has done so, and the 325,000 users of its goods are unanimous in saying so. It wants your intended purchases also. Its machines are better than the best, and it stands by this assertion. Prove it by its use, and if not so it will never cost you one cent. Ask for the "Standard."

SMITH & PHILLIPS, East Liverpool, O.

DR. J. BERT GEORGE, SURGEON DENTIST.

Room 4, Foutts' Bld., Fifth and Market.

Office hours—8:30 a. m. to 12 m. 1:30 to 5:00 p. m.

The News Review

Aims to do careful, correct printing, to make something attractive.

BE VERY CAREFUL HEALTH IS A PRECIOUS GIFT

YOUR HEALTH, at times, demands that care shall be taken of your physical system. Pure drugs, properly prepared, may be the "stitch in time" which saves you from severe sickness. None but pure drugs, prepared by graduated Pharmacists, are made use of at

REED'S OPERA HOUSE PHARMACY.

AT ZEB KINSEY'S 5 and 10.

1 good broom..... 10

1 4-quart coffee pot..... 10

1 10-quart tin bucket..... 10

1 Bissell carpet sweeper..... $1 75

1 window shade and roller..... 10

1 pint tin cup..... 1

1 quart tin cup..... 3

White back wall paper..... 2

Our Engraving Plan

has panned out well for the month of July.

Our customers were pleased and so were we. So we will continue to engrave your watches free of charge when repairing them.

It's a good idea to have your name in your watch.

If you haven't one we will sell you one at a very moderate price, and if you cannot spare the cash, we will make very easy terms for you.

Wade, The Jeweler.

Market street.....

IMPORTANT TO ADVERTISERS.
Merchants and business men must have advertisements in this office on the evening previous to insertion in this paper. This rule is imperative, and is an absolute necessity resulting in good to paper and patron.

The largest bonafide "paid" general circulation of any daily published in East Liverpool. Advertisers will make note.
HARRY PALMER,
Manager.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

A street fakir did business in the Diamond today.

The Pacific No. 2 passed up at noon today with a large tow.

No cases have been filed in the local courts for several days.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. John Sellers, of Spring street, a daughter.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Chal Bricker, of Spring street, a daughter.

All the uptown streets were given a thorough cleaning this morning.

The street force are today putting a new floor on the Pennsylvania avenue bridge in East End.

A horse driven by George C. Potter this morning fell in Fifth street. No damage was done.

Steven Severs broke ground in Chester this morning for the erection of a new six-room frame dwelling.

Reverend Reinartz left at noon today where he will preach in the Lutheran church of that place tomorrow.

A number of East End wheelmen will ride to Waterford tomorrow. They will go by the way of Clarkson and Rogers.

Mrs. L. V. Reed, of Wheeling, will sing at the opening of the Young Men's Christian association meeting tomorrow afternoon.

Claude Tarleton, clerk at the Thompson House, left this afternoon for Cambridge to visit his father who is ill at that place.

Otto Sheaffer, of Steubenville, who made an assignment of his business in this city to J. M. McKee, some days ago, was in the city today.

Officer Earl yesterday afternoon arrested Tom Pearl, a colored man, and Pokey Little for indulging in an altercation. They were each fined $6.00.

Physical Director Morris, of the Young Men's Christian association, will begin active work on his field day program next week. It will no doubt be a large one.

Sophia M. Wucherer entered suit before Squire Rose this morning against Wolf, of Minerva street, for forcible detention. The hearing is set for Tuesday morning.

Miss Montie Whittenberger, while bicycle riding last evening in Jethro street, ran into an unsuspecting canine. The young lady took a header but was not injured.

Waste paper is again beginning to make its appearance in the streets, causing many people to inquire if the ordinance is being as rigidly enforced as it was at first.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Albright and Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Henderson are today in Middleton township attending the thirty-first anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Stokesberry.

East Liverpool is all right. Wm. J. Sloan, of that city, has been granted a patent on a finger nail trimmer. It is not stated whether the machine is operated by electricity or elbow oil.—Salem Herald.

Officer McMillan was called to the National House last night. He removed a crowd of loiterers. They have been in the habit of holding down the bricks at that place for some time, and have become very noisy.

E. C. McVoy, traveler for the Sebring company, arrived today from a trip through the west. While in Denver, Mr. McVoy met Fred Bostwick, who made many friends here as the manager of the light company.

Mrs. Lessell, of Thompson hill, who has been visiting in England for several months, is expected home this evening. She landed in New York on the Lucania today. Charles Howe, of this city, was a passenger on the same ship.

Many traveling salesmen who have been in the city during the past few days, say that business is improving, particularly in the Beaver valley and towns close to Pittsburgh. When the coal strike is settled they expect a boom.

There was a merry party of bike riders left the city at five o'clock this morning, going towards Smith's Ferry. On the return trip, one of the young ladies, an expert rider, was hustling for home at a clipping pace, when she struck a quagmire and was precipitated to mother earth with stunning effect. She soon recovered, but her costume was a sight to behold.

CHAPEL INSCRIPTIONS

Will Be Decided Upon By the Soldiers Next Friday.

NO WORTHY NAMES OMITTED

The Tablets Will Be a Feature of the Memorial Building At Riverview—All Men Who Served in the Rebellion Are Invited to Attend the Meeting.

The Grand Army men propose to make the memorial chapel now under course of erection at Riverview cemetery as interesting as it will be beautiful, and with that end in view will carefully decide upon the names that are to be inscribed upon the tablets.

At the meeting of General Lyon post last night it was decided to call all the old soldiers of the city together next Friday evening. Not only members of the post, but every one who fought in the Rebellion is invited to attend. It is the intention to select the names for the tablets, and the post is desirous of missing no worthy man. The meeting will also hear reports of the progress already made, and it is understood that they will be most gratifying.

Work on the chapel is progressing rapidly. Contractor Floto has already secured a good start, and will not lose any time if the weather allows his men to work.

A Monetary Conference Assured.
WASHINGTON, July 31.—Official information just received in Washington indicates that Great Britain will consent to join in an international monetary conference to be held in this city next winter.

Secretary Sherman Much Better.
WASHINGTON, July 31.—Word comes to Washington from Secretary Sherman at Amagansett, L. I., that his health has improved very much. He will leave for Boston in a day or two and this trip will be followed by a sea voyage.

Colonel Grant Has Resigned.
NEW YORK, July 31.—Colonel Fred Grant has resigned as police commissioner, because the board decided that officers should act the spy on disorderly houses.

The Weather.
Generally fair; light to fresh westerly winds.

LEAGUE GAMES YESTERDAY.

At Chicago—		R H E
Chicago	0 0 1 0 1 0 3 0 0 0	5 12 4
Pittsburg	3 0 0 1 1 0 0 0 2 7	14 1
Batteries—Briggs and Kittredge; Hastings, Hughey, Suggen and Merritt. Umpire—Sheridan. Attendance, 1,900.
At Washington—		R H E
Wash.	4 0 5 0 2 0 0 0 0	11 14 4
Baltimore	0 2 3 3 5 0 2 0 0	5 11 0
Batteries—Mercer, Swaim and Farrell; Maul, Hoffer, Clarke and Bowerman. Umpire—Emmie. Attendance, 1,800.
At Cincinnati—		R H E
Cincinnati	0 0 0 0 1 2 4 1	8 11 1
Cleveland	2 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0	2 6 1
Batteries—Breitenstein and Peltz; Powell, Wilson and Criger. Umpire—Hurst. Attendance, 6,000.
At New York—		R H E
N. York	0 0 0 0 2 0 0 1	3 10 2
Brooklyn	0 0 1 0 0 0 0 0 0	1 4 1
Batteries—Rusie and Warner; Payne and Burrell. Umpire—O'Day. Attendance, 2,500.
At St. Louis—		R H E
St. Louis	2 0 0 1 0 1 0 1 0	2 14 4
Louisville	1 0 0 0 1 0 0 3	6 7 3
Batteries—Donahue and Murphy; Cunningham, Evans and Wilson. Umpire—McFarland. Attendance, 1,500.
At Philadelphia—		R H E
Philadelphia	0 0 1 0 0 2 0 0 0	3 4 2
Boston	0 1 0 0 0 0 5 1	8 13 1
Batteries—Orth, Clements and Boyle; Klobedanz and Bergen. Umpire—McDonald. Attendance, 4,793.

Standing of the Clubs.
W L P	W L P	W L P	W L P
Boston	55 24 .696	Pittsburg	37 42 .468
Balto.	51 26 .662	Chicago	36 47 .434
Cincin.	50 26 .658	Brooklyn	34 45 .430
N. York	46 31 .597	Louisville	35 47 .427
Cleveland	43 35 .551	Wash.	29 49 .367
Phila.	40 43 .482	St. Louis	30 61 .327

League Schedule Today.
Philadelphia at Baltimore, New York at Brooklyn, Pittsburg at Chicago, Cleveland at Cincinnati, Louisville at St. Louis and Boston at Washington.

The Interstate Games.
At Wheeling—
Wheeling.....0 0 0 0 4 0 0 0—4 4 6
Dayton.....0 0 0 2 0 6 1 0—9 6 3
Batteries—Campbell and Messett; Bates and Kellner.
At Youngstown—
Youngstown.....0 0 0 0 0 3 0 1—4 12 4
Ft. Wayne.....0 0 0 0 0 0 2 0—3 10 4
Batteries—Jordan and Zimram; Gear and O'Meara.
At Mansfield—
Mansfield.....0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—0 6 0
Toledo.....2 1 0 0 3 3 2 4—1 16
Batteries—Ely and Vetter; Keenan and Arthur.
At New Castle—
New Castle.....0 1 0 0 0 0 1 0—2 4 0
Springfield.....0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—0 2 2
Batteries—Smith and Graffius; Pool and Rupert.

Interstate League Standing.
W L P	W L P	W L P	W L P
Toledo	57 26 .687	Youngstown	40 36 .526
New Castle	52 29 .642	Springfield	38 48 .388
Dayton	43 36 .541	Mansfield	38 53 .416
Ft. Wayne	44 39 .530	Wheeling	36 57 .389

Interstate Schedule.
Springfield at New Castle, Toledo at Mansfield, Fort Wayne at Youngstown and Dayton at Wheeling.

RIOTING AT SCOTSDALE.

A Non-Union Man Fired Into a Jeering Crowd.

SCOTSDALE, Pa., July 31.—As the afternoon turn of non-union men were going home from the steel mill one of them became incensed at the remarks of some boys and deliberately fired at the crowd. A large crowd was gathered about the station at the time and they started after the non-union man, who fired four or five shots into the crowd before he reached the Geyer House, where he boards.

The hotel was immediately surrounded by an excited crowd and it was with some difficulty that Burgess Porter got them cooled down, and had he not had the assistance of the strike leaders there is no telling to what end the maddened people would have gone. Another non-union man, whose name could not be learned, drew his revolver on Pittsburgh street and fired several shots. He was knocked down and pretty badly beaten before he could be rescued by the officers and taken to his boarding house.

Homer S. Wolfe of McKeesport and George Stitt of Apollo were arrested, charged with doing the shooting.

NEW PLACE FOR ANDREWS.
He Will Be at the Head of John Brisben Walker's New University.

PROVIDENCE, July 31.—Dr. E. Benjamin Andrews, who recently resigned the presidency of Brown university owing to objections to his silver utterances, has accepted the presidency of a new university to be founded by John Brisben Walker, and to be known as the Cosmopolitan university. It is to be modeled after the Chautauqua school and will be conducted by correspondence.

Two Freight Trains Collided.
BUFFALO, July 31.—Two Lehigh freight trains collided at Depew Junction, killing George Ellensbee, engineer, of Manchester, and Charles Eddy, fireman, of Sayre. James Ratcliffe, fireman, of Sayre, was slightly injured.

King of Siam In London.
LONDON, July 31.—Chulalongkorn, king of Siam, has arrived in the Siamese royal yacht and was saluted by the warships. On reaching London he was escorted by troops to Buckingham palace. The populace cheered him.

Killed by a Guard Member.
WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., July 31.—James C. Forman, married, aged 45, has been instantly killed at the Twelfth regiment rifle range. He was engaged in picking berries at a point 250 yards back of the target, and was in a stooping position, when a ball struck him.

Victims of Foul Air.
HINTON, W. Va., July 31.—A freight train has been stalled in Lewis tunnel, on the Chesapeake and Ohio, and the overcome by foul air. Conductor Ed Bray is dead. Sam Hamilton, Ed Womack and Tom Kamewood are in a precarious condition.

FOR RENT.
TO LET—TWO THREE ROOMED HOUSES. For full particulars rental, etc., inquire of J. B. McKinnon, No. 111 Washington street.

FOR SALE.
FOR SALE—TWO THREE ROOMED HOUSES, with an acre of ground to each. Fine orchard with each house; in Chester, West Va. For terms, etc., call on J. B. McKinnon, No. 111 Washington street.

BACKACHE
makes the young feel old, and the old feel that life is not worth the living. It is a danger signal of Kidney Disease. It can be CURED

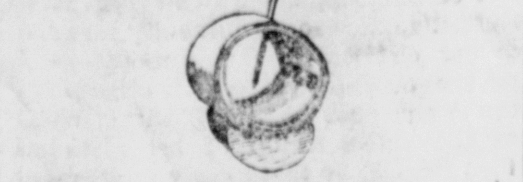

I have been suffering from lame back and nervous trouble for some time, but by taking the sample box of Doctor Hobbs Sparagus Kidney Pills that I got from The Averbeck Drug Co., I feel greatly benefited. I will say that I can highly recommend your pills as I think there is none better.

M. McINTYRE,
Youngstown, O.

HOBBS
Sparagus Kidney Pills.
HOBBS REMEDY CO., PROPRIETORS, CHICAGO.
Dr. Hobbs Pills For Sale in EAST LIVERPOOL, O., by ALVIN H. BULGER, Examined Pharmacist, Cor. 9th and W. Market Sts.

A SIMPLE TIRE REPAIR.

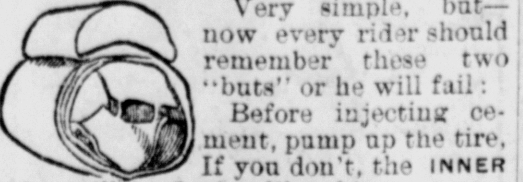

Punctures in the well known Morgan & Wright tire are mended about as easily as a man would close a hole in his finger with a bit of court plaster. Inside of the inner tube of the tire lies a long strip of patching rubber, like this:

By injecting M. & W. Quick repair cement through the puncture into this inner tube, and then pressing down on the tire with the thumb, like this,

the repair strip inside is picked up by the cement, thus closing the puncture, like this:

Very simple, but—now every rider should remember these two "butts" or he will fail:

Before injecting cement, pump up the tire. If you don't, the INNER tube will be flabby, like this, and the cement will not get inside of it, where the repair strip lies.

When you have a puncture, get right off. Riding a tire flat when it has a tack or nail in it, may damage it considerably.

ORDINANCE No. 521.

AN ORDINANCE TO IMPROVE LINCOLN avenue from Grant street to the north line of Wall street.

SECTION 1. Be it ordained by the Council of the City of East Liverpool, two thirds of all the members elected thereto concurring, that the improvement of Lincoln avenue, from Grant street to the north line of Wall street, be proceeded with in accordance with the resolution to improve said street, passed June 22, 1897, and the plans and specifications on file in the office of the City Engineer, by grading the entire street, setting the curbs, paving the sidewalks and side-drains and doing whatever may be found necessary to make a complete job.

SECTION 2. That the expense of the said improvement, including damages, if any assessed in favor of any land owner, together with interest on bonds, advertising, etc., shall be assessed on the lots and lands abutting on the said street, in the manner as shall be determined by Council, and set forth in the assessing ordinance hereafter to be passed and in accordance with the law on the subject of assessments.

The assessments therefore to be paid for in five annual installments, if deferred, and the same collected as provided by law and in the assessing ordinance for the said improvement.

Bonds may be issued in anticipation of the collection of the assessments, unless the property owner pay their assessments before the same are issued and within the time that shall be set in the assessing ordinance.

The following is the property to be assessed: Lot 146, one hundred feet; lot 129, seventy-one feet; lot 116, one hundred feet; lot 79, one hundred and thirty feet.

SECTION 3. That this ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and legal publication.

Passed July 27, 1897.

JOHN HORWELL,
President pro tem of Council.
Attest: JAMES N. HANLEY,
City Clerk.

Published in the East Liverpool News Review, July 31, 1897.

SALE OF BONDS.

OFFICE OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION,
EAST LIVERPOOL, OHIO, July 24, 1897.

SEALED PROPOSALS, addressed to the undersigned and marked on the outside, "Proposals for Bonds," will be received at this office until 6 o'clock p. m., Standard Time, of Friday, September 3, 1897, for the purchase on September 17, 1897, of six thousand ($6,000) dollars of bonds to be issued by the Board of Education of the City of East Liverpool, Ohio, for the purpose of providing for the necessary expenses connected with the erection, furnishing and improving of school buildings in said city.

The bonds will be issued under the authority conferred by section 304 of the Revised Statutes of Ohio, and by a general election held November 3, 1896. The bonds will be issued in sums of $500 each; will be dated September 17, 1897, and will be payable at the rate of $2,000 each year after six years from the date thereof. The bonds will bear interest at the rate of 4 per cent. per annum, payable semi-annually by coupons attached thereto, both principal and interest to be payable at the office of the Treasurer of said city.

The bonds will be ready for delivery on September 17, 1897, and must be paid for on that day in cash or certified check. Each proposal must be accompanied by a certified check on some National bank in the sum of $500, payable to the Clerk of the Board of Education as a guarantee that the bonds will be promptly paid for when ready for delivery. The checks of those to whom the bonds are not awarded will be returned on or before September 8th 1897. The bonds will not be sold for less than their par value, and the right and privilege is reserved by the Board of Education to reject any and all bids.

By order of the Board,
W. T. NORRIS, Clerk.
Published in the East Liverpool News Review July 31 and August 4, 11, 18, 1897.

Dr. Geo. D. Arnum,
Surgeon Dentist,
Specialties: Syndicate Bldg.,
Crown and Bridge Work, Sixth St., and Preservation of the Natural Teeth.

LADIES
DO YOU KNOW
DR. FELIX LE BRUN'S
Steel & Pennyroyal Pills are the original and only
FRENCH, safe and reliable cure on the market. Price, $1.00; sent by mail. Genuine sold only by—
For sale by Will Reed, East Liverpool, O.

Wade,
The Jeweler,
Market street.....

WE want you to know there is a "Standard" Sewing Machine Company. If you don't know it we cannot get your trade. This company has existed eleven years. It commenced with $200,000 capital. It has increased each year in sales and in capital. It now has $2,000,000 invested. It has an immense factory and most complete facilities for making 300 machines per day. It has already made and sold 325,000 machines, each one speaking for itself and the company that made it.

It can now turn out 100,000 machines every year. The recent rapid growth of its trade and large demand will justify this output.

It wants your trade, and will give you the best machine in the world. Carefully examine it. Recognize the principles on which it is constructed. No other like it—because it costs too much for the old line companies to make. Their old style antiquated machinery will not do the close and accurate work necessary to turn out a rotary. It is twenty years ahead of all competition. Highest grade, fastest speed, finest made, the "Standard" of the world. Young, ambitious, enterprising, it knows that to succeed in face of the steady competition and calumny of the older companies it must give you a machine very far superior in principle and workmanship. It has done so, and the 325,000 users of its goods are unanimous in saying so. It wants your intended purchases also. Its machines are better than the best, and it stands by this assertion. Prove it by its use, and if not so it will never cost you one cent. Ask for the "Standard."

SMITH & PHILLIPS, East Liverpool, O.

DR. J. BERT GEORGE,
SURGEON DENTIST,
Room 4, Foutts' Bld., Fifth and Market.
Office hours—8:30 a. m. to 12 m.
1:30 to 5:30 p. m.

The News Review
Aims to do careful, correct printing, to make something attractive.

BE VERY CAREFUL HEALTH IS A PRECIOUS GIFT

YOUR HEALTH, at times, demands that care shall be taken of your physical system. Pure drugs, properly prepared, may be the "stitch in time" which saves you from severe sickness. None but pure drugs, prepared by graduated Pharmacists, are made use of at

REED'S
OPERA HOUSE PHARMACY.

AT ZEB KINSEY'S
5 and 10.

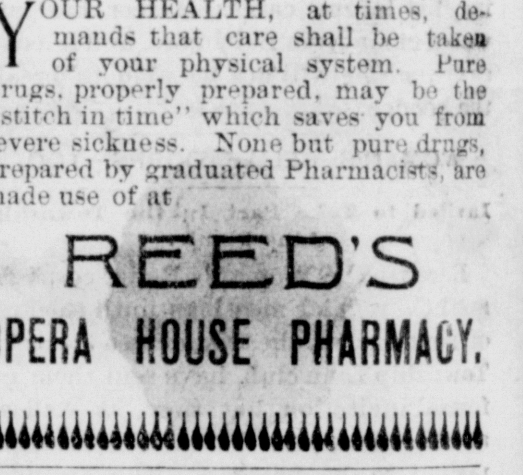

1 good broom.....	10
1 4-quart coffee pot.....	10
1 10-quart tin bucket.....	10
1 Bissell carpet sweeper.....	$1 75
1 window shade and roller.....	10
1 pint tin cup.....	1
1 quart tin cup.....	3
White back wall paper.....	2

Our Engraving Plan

has planned out well for the month of July.

Our customers were pleased and so were we. So we will continue to engrave your watches free of charge when repairing them.

It's a good idea to have your name in your watch.

If you haven't one we will sell you one at a very moderate price, and if you cannot spare the cash we will make very easy terms for you.

Wade,
The Jeweler,
Market street.....